STUDENTS AID FINAL TICKET SALE FRIDAY

TWENTY VOLUNTEERS WILL DIS-POSE OF NECESSARY NUMBER

Price of Season Tickets Remains the Same Despite O. A. C. Game Here.

Ten men and ten women will cooperate in making Friday of this week a Season Ticket Day. Ninety more tickets must be sold to insure the success of the scheme. All those who own tickets, do not want to turn them in and they are expected to aid in the sales made by the band of volunteers.

The fact that there is a strong likelihood of the O. A. C. football game being played in Eugene this fall, which would add one whole dollar to the intrinsic worth of the tickets, which will be one of the arguments used by the ticket sellers. The price of the tickets has been reduced fifty cents in order to subtract for the game with Willamette University, which was held a week ago last Saturday. In the game to be played Saturday between Oregon and Washington State College, the student tickets will admit to the east half of the grandstand. In all the games, a portion of the best seats will be reserved for those possessing season tickets.

The students who form the band of volunteers are Cecil Miller, Bess Lewis, Alice Farnsworth, Elizabeth Busch, Florence Cleveland, Ruth Stone, Nellie Hemenway, Georgia Kinsey, Eleanor McClain, Lena Newton, Don Rice, Vernon Motschenbacher, Del Stannard, Vernon Vawter, Russel Calkins, Gray, McConnell, Otto Heider, Charles Reynolds, Sam Michael, and Charlie Collier.
