SQUAD LEAVES FOR CLASH WITH IDAHO

SEVENTEEN MEN ACCOMPANY COACH AND TRAINER

Numerous Changes Are Made on Eve of Departure—Fenton and Hall Will Play.

The Oregon football squad of seventeen men, accompanied by Coach Louis Pinkham and Trainer William Hayward, left at 10:55 this morning for Moscow, where they will meet the University of Idaho on Saturday. The squad will go through light signal practice at the Portland Multnomah Club this afternoon.

Last night the team engaged in hard scrimmages with Eugene High School and the second team of the University. Coach Pinkham has made several changes in the line up, which will make the team that faces Idaho the strongest of the season.

Fenton and Hall, who have been out of the game for some time, will replace Bradshaw and Anunsen at ends. Bailey and Grout still retain their tackle positions. McClelland and Holden will probably start the game as guards but both are in danger of being replaced by either Farris or Soden. Caufield still plays center. The line up of the back field is uncertain until the whistle blows, but in all probability Cook will be seen at full, Cornell at quarter, and Walker at right half. The other half will be either Heusner, Briedwell or Parsons.

Those making the trip were Coach Pinkham, Trainer Hayward, Captain Walker, Fenton, Grout, Holden, Cau-field, McClelland, Bailey, Hall, Cornell, Cook, Parsons, Briedwell, Heusner, Bradshaw, Anunsen, Jones, and Soden.

DEMOCRATS WILL WIN

Declaring that Theodore Roosevelt was asking too much of the credulity of the American people in this campaign, Hon. George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts, attacked the third term platform, in an address last evening in Villard Hall.

"Our country is tending toward a new democracy, in which Oregon has taken the lead. You who now have the chance had best fall in line and make your part known in this great movement, for it will go down in history as the dawning of a new era in democracy." So spoke Hon. George Fred Williams, of the American Bar Association, before an audience of Wilson enthusiasts last evening.

Mr. Williams held the attention of his audience for two hours and ten minutes while he expounded the principle planks of the Republican and Bull Moose platforms, and gave his reasons why Democracy should and would triumph at this election.

Mr. Williams outlined trust and money control of our government at present and then quoted Woodrow Wilson as saying: "It is the purpose of the people to clear the government for action, and then to use it, not to serve any interests, but civilization and the people."

The annual meeting of the overseers of Whitman College will be held on November 19, in Walla Walla, when officers will be elected and vacancies filled. The annual reports will show an excellent condition of the college, both financial and otherwise.
