SOCIETY
By Bess Lewis.
Social activity at the University does not seem to be seriously affected by the news of the failure of the Millage Bill.

Friday evening was given over to Bill Hayward's training table benefit, but the first University night at the Skating Rink attracted many.

Mu Phi Epsilon was at home Saturday afternoon to the housemothers, town and Faculty women in honor of their new housemother, Miss Lewis, of New York. In the receiving line were Miss Eve Stinson, Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Mrs. M. H. Douglass, and Miss Mae Norton. Miss Valene Eastham and Miss Meta Goldsmith served tea and wafers in the dining-room. The house was attractively decorated with bronze chrysanthemums and autumn leaves.

Chi Omega issued invitations to the housemothers, town and Faculty women for a reception given Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Charles Gray. In the receiving line were Mrs. Gray, Miss Ruth Guppy, Mrs. Snodgrass, Mrs. Ellen M. Pennell, and Miss Lucille Davis. Mrs. Cannon poured the tea, and Mrs. B. A. Washburn presided over the ices. White carnations were used for decorations.

Miss Valene Eastham entertained at her home last Saturday evening with a dancing party. Her guests were, Eve Stinson, Mae Norton, Meta Goldsmith, Nelle Murphy, Edna Butler, of Grand Rapids, Mich., Mabel Smith, Alberta Campbell, Irma Campbell, Mrs. C. T. Travis, of Portland; Carl Homer, John Welch, Ralph Newlands, Will Holden, Don Rader, George Carter, Jessup Strang, Paul Lynch, Ernest Poole, and Frank Fitzhenry.

Miss Anne Taylor will spend the week-end in Portland.

Miss Helen Werlein has gone to Portland for the week-end.

Miss Hazel Barta is spending the week-end in Roseburg.

Miss Buelah Bridges, who has been visiting at the Gamma Phi Beta house, has returned home.

Mrs. Wootton, of Astoria, has been visiting her daughter, Elizabeth, during the week at the Mary Spiller house.

Miss Mildred Lawrence has gone to Albany for a few days.

Miss Mable Lawrence is entertaining her sister, Miss Hazel Lawrence.

Jay Coffee and Robert Buchanan have gone to Portland for a few days.

Kappa Sigma has pledged Sam Cooke, '16.

Miss Lola Price, of Portland, has been the guest of her sister, Miss Rose Price.

Miss Perkins and Miss Burgess were dinner guests at the Mary Spiller house last Sunday.

Miss Opal Jarvis went to Roseburg Friday to visit friends.

Claire Raley, '16, went to Woodburn today to visit her sister.

Arthur Crawford, '16, is pledged Phi Delta Theta.

Three Theta Girls are jointly celebrating birthdays this week. Hazel Rader, Bess Cowden, and Charlie Fenton are those who will act as hostesses to a score of college people this evening. The glowing feature of the event is to be a huge birthday cake, containing a ring, thimble and coin, and having sixteen candles on the top, each girl claiming she is just sweet sixteen. The out-of-town guests for the occasion are Mabel Adams, of Silverton, and Aletha Emerick, of Medford. Besides all their sorority sisters, the girls have asked in Delbert Stannard, Fen Waite, Norman Mat-schek, Herbert Thatcher, Charles Bingham, Gavin Dyott, Claude Still, Glen Storie, Norton Cowden, William Bibee, Carl Fenton, Boyce Fenton, Irwin Brooks, Clark Burgard, Herman Oberteuffer, Ernest Vosper, Donald Rader, Vernon Vawter, Robert Bean, Donald Rice, Karl Onthank, Vernon Motschenbacher, and Wallace Caulfield.

Miss Aletha Emerick, from Medford, a student of the University last year, is visiting her sorority sisters to be with them until the Thanksgiving holidays. Miss Mabel Adams, sister of Francis Adams, is making a week-end visit at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

COLLEGE WOMEN WORK

REORGANIZATION OF COUNCIL DEEMED SIGNIFICANT

Miss Guppy Wishes to Raise Co-ed Standards to Secure Branch of Alumnae Association.

The first step toward student self-government among the University Co-eds was taken last evening by the re-organization of the Woman's Council, and the adoption of a policy that is based upon the Woman's Self-Government Association of the University of Wisconsin. Under the new regime the Woman's Council is to consist half of sorority women and half non-sorority women, together with the Dean of Women. As there are nine sororities and women's clubs in the University, this will give the council nineteen members.

The members are enthusiastic over the possibilities of the council's field. It proposes to make itself a leading factor in all the activities of college women, acting in the capacity of intermediary between the Faculty and the students. This will make faculty intervention unnecessary to some extent, providing the plans of the newly formed council materialize.

Their purpose is that of the similar organization at the University of Wisconsin: "It seeks in every way to better the unity of spirit of the University; to give rise to a sense of responsibility of the women toward each other; and to take steps by which the social standing of the University may be placed and kept upon a high standard.

One of the immediate aims of the Council will be to make possible the establishment of a local branch of the National College Alumnae Association. At the next meeting, to be held a week from next Friday, Miss Guppy will explain the steps in which standards may be raised in order to make possible the establishment of this organization here.

Ralph Cronise, '09, is now holding down a homestead in Douglas county. With him is his younger brother, Harry, who intends entering the University next year.

Miss Mae Sage, '11, is head of the commercial department of the Ontario, Oregon, high school.
