EUGENE HAS YET TO MEET SALEM HIGH

Portland "Prep" Champions Wanted for Game With Eugene High on Thanksgiving.

(By Tommy Boylen.)

The victory of Eugene High School over the strong Astoria High team on election day by a 20 to 0 score places the local team in line for the state championship. Astoria has defeated both Lincoln and Jefferson High Schools of Portland and played a tie game with Vancouver.

Although the game was played on a wet field, which was disadvantageous to the light and fast Eugene team, the outcome was never in doubt. Eugene scored in the second quarter on a forward pass from Gray to Bibbee. Again in the third quarter Bibbee picked up a fumble and converted it into a touchdown, and in the same quarter a long forward pass from Gray to Bibbee was responsible for the third touchdown.

Astoria came back strong in the last quarter and all but scored. Their heavy back field by line plunging and short end runs worked the ball within the five yard line three times in this interval, but each time lacked the necessary strength to score.

Eugene has at least four players who could make any preparatory team in the Northwest. These are Captain Gray, fullback, Ross, right half, and Bibbee and Bigbee, ends.

Next Saturday Eugene plays Salem High in Salem. Never in the history of the two schools has either team lost this annual game when played at home; but Eugene intends to break this tradition. The Oregon Electric will run a special train that day and have made a rate of one and a third.

Manager Frank Northrup, of Eugene, is making an effort to bring the Washington interscholastic champions of Portland here for a Thanksgiving game.

HAYWARD'S OLYMPIC LECTURE MAKES HIT

THE PICTURES OF OREGON MEN RECEIVE OVATION

Film of Trainer Also Flashed on the Screen, Bill Says by Mistake—Proceeds, $100.

Before a packed house, Bill Hayward gave his football benefit lecture illustrated by actual photographs of the different national teams, the trainers, athletes, the races, scenes in Sweden, and several snapshots of the Swedish king. Martin Hawkins, '11, and Walter McClure, '13, Oregon's two representatives, figured prominently in several pictures.

The entertainment was begun by first showing on the screen a snapshot of the American team. This was followed by pictures aboard the steamship Finland, in one of which Walter McClure could be seen leaning over the rail. Bill had photos showing how much like a gymnasium the ship had been arranged, and there were numerous snapshots of the men in training on the ship.

Among the pictures of the races and the athletes in action were Hawkins and McClure in heats which they won; several snapshots of Jim Thorpe, the Carlisle representative, whom Bill classes as the greatest athlete the world has ever seen; the marathon runners; high divers, and swimmers.

Probably the most enthusiasm was shown by the audience when a picture of the lecturer was flashed on the screen. The ovation accorded the speaker lasted for nearly a minute, while the operator heightened the enthusiasm by refusing to remove the film. Bill, however, denied all knowledge of the matter, and said, someone must have slipped something over on him.

The net proceeds amounted to $100.

CO-ED BASKET BALL TO BEGIN MONDAY

GAMMA PHI BETA-LAMBDA RHO FRAY OPENS SERIES

Over Sixty Women Out for Practice—Both Captains Expect Defeat in Coming Game.

Basket ball season in the woman's gymnasium formally opens Monday with the first of the inter-sorority series. Co-ed athletics have been more active at the University than at any previous year. With the close of fall tennis and golf seasons, basket ball now promises to hold full sway for the next six weeks. Between 60 and 100 girls are practicing in order to contest for the Hayward cup.

The first inter-sorority game will be played Monday afternoon between Gamma Phi Beta and Lambda Rho. Neither team is at all confident, so it promises to be interesting.

"I know we will not win," said Grace Bean, captain of the former team, this morning. "Because some of our girls have never played before and this is our first year in the League."

"No, we do not expect to win," Janet Young, Lambda Rho captain, stated. "We are the weakest team and we know it, but we are certainly going to do our best."

The line-ups will be:
Lambda Rho. Gamma Phi Beta.

Angeline Young.....f.....Anna McMicken
Aline Noren.....c.....Catharine Carson
