

RAILROADS PREPARE FOR BIG EXCURSION

Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric Announce Cut Rates to Albany.

Plans are already under way for excursions to the game. The Southern Pacific and the Oregon Electric have both made proposals to transport the crowd which will number approximately two thousand students and townspeople.

The Southern Pacific will furnish a special train to leave any time in the morning and to return immediately after the game, for a one way rate of $1.35.

The Oregon Electric has promised a special train for a similar one way price of $1.30, and upon the same running time.

Steps will be taken at once by Yell Leader Abe Blackman to mobilize the student forces for the game.

Announcement of more definite plans for the excursion will be made in the regular issue of the Emerald tomorrow.

Monthly Omits November.

The second issue of the Oregon Monthly will go to press about December first, according to present plans. Manager Cake finds himself confronted with the problem of so husbanding the funds of the magazine as to equalize the expenditure incurred in printing and circulating, gratis, several thousand extra copies of the October number, in the interest of the Millage Tax Bill. He has solved the question by combining the November and December numbers in one issue.

"No special feature of campus activities will be given predominance," day. "We shall try to set a new standard in fiction, verse and humor, and will welcome contributions of any nature. The Monthly will be ready for distribution about the fifteenth of December."

Coach Hyatt, leader in aquatic sports at Wisconsin, has devised a new water game to take the place of water polo, which was done away with by the "Big Nine" as an intercollegiate sport.

SOCIOLOGY DEPARTMENT AIDS ASHLAND'S WOMEN VOTERS

That the newly enfranchised citizens of the State are preparing themselves for the positions of politicians and office holders, is evidenced by the Ashland Equal Suffrage Club. This organization, having successfully carried out its fight for women's rights, has applied to the Department of Economics and Sociology for outlines for the study of social and political questions. The department will take this matter up with similar clubs over the State and is prepared to furnish material where it is wanted.

Dr. H. B. Leonard Talks to Y. M. C. A.

"A Christian is a man who is always in training," said Dr. H. B. Leonard who spoke in the Y. M. C. A. meeting Thursday evening in the absence of Hon. R. A. Booth.

From his personal experience, Dr. Leonard mentioned instances of Christian athletes, whom he knew, who could play football Saturday, then preach the following day.

The meeting was concluded with a solo by Marion McClain, a former student in the University.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA LEADS IN WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Kappa Alpha Theta stands at the head of the inter-sorority basketball league with three victories for three games played to her credit. The Theta team so far is the only team which has maintained a perfect score up-to-date, though the Gamma Delta Gamma six has not yet been heard from.

The Oregon Club suffered defeat at the hands of the Kappa Alpha Theta machine Thursday by a score of 33 to 5. The game was too one sided to be very interesting. The co-ed basketball enthusiasts were surprised at the showing made by the Oregon Club in this game, as their team was one of the strongest in the league last year.

The feature of this game was the unerring shooting of Hazel Rader and Bess Cowden.

Social events for the past week have been conspicuous for their absence. "The Clouds" has held the attention of the student body and is the only event scheduled to take place this week-end, as the Phi Delta Theta dance, which was to be given in honor of the Glee Club, has been postponed until next week.

The new system of Student Control was begun at Stanford University last Saturday.

COACHES' CONFERENCE DECIDES O. A. C. GAME

Gordon Moores and Sam Dolan Are Largely Responsible for Getting the Two Teams Together.

Immediately after the O. A. C. Whitman game in Corvallis last Saturday, the question of a game between the University and the Agricultural College arose in a discussion between Coach Sam Dolan and Assistant Coach Gordon Moores.

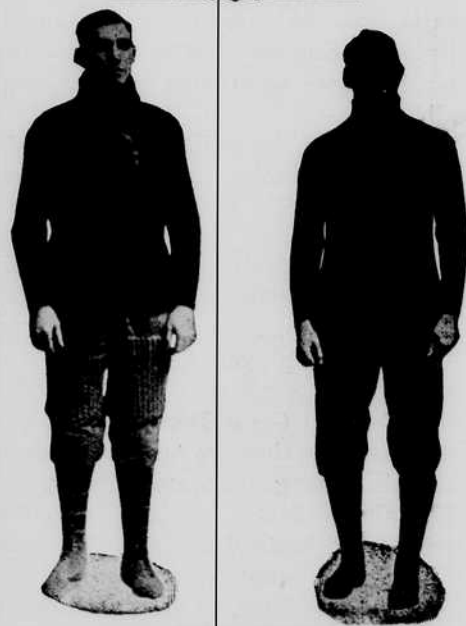

Coach Moores admitted the superiority of the Aggie team, and told Dolan that the University was willing to play simply for the sake of putting an end to the wrangling, and with no hope of raising the Varsity's per cent for the season. Dolan then expressed his personal desire for a game next Saturday at Albany, in the light of that city's recent offer.

With this impetus and the promise made by both coaches to do as much as possible towards arranging the game, the matter rested until Coach Moores arrived in Eugene Sunday morning.

The Faculty members of the Athletic Council were informed of the plan proposed and gave their assent to the project. Coach Moores had the local situation lined up by noon, and ready for the arrival from Seattle of Manager Geary this morning. Coach Dolan telephoned to Coach Moores last evening, asking Moores to advise him this morning by 11:00 o'clock as to the action of the Athletic Council, but this body could not meet by that time.

A called meeting of that body resulted in the Council's assent being given to the Albany game.

There are more football captains playing halfback on the 28 leading colleges of the United States, than any other position. Tackle, fullback and quarterback come next, and four captains play end.
