TOO MUCH FOR OREGON

a quarterback run made nine yards before he was brought to earth by Parsons. Clarke made four yards on the next down. He was injured when tackled and time was taken out.

Clarke Dashes Over Line.

After a short delay, signals for an end run were called and the former Oregon star skirted Hall for a touchdown, Beck's splendid interference helping out. Clarke kicked goal, making Multnomah's total 14 points.

In the first part of the third period, Oregon began forward passing almost entirely. Hall missed a good chance to score for Oregon by failing to receive a pass on the 43-yard line. On the next down, Beck intercepted a pass on the 45-yard line, and made a sensational run of 40 yards before he was downed. The teams lined up on the 10-yard line and three plunges netted Multnomah its third touchdown, Wolff carrying the ball across the line. Clarke failed at the try for goal.

It was in the third quarter that Oregon scored its touchdown. Multnomah began another march down the field from the 35-yard line, but a fumble by Wolff on the 20-yard line lost the ball for Multnomah. Captain Walker recovered it on the first down, Cook went through the line for two yards. On the next play Fenton made one of his famous forward pass shoots which traveled 18 yards. Cornell, the midget quarterback of the Oregon team, caught the ball as it crossed the goal line. The crowd went wild when the score was made. Fenton kicked goal easily.

In the last quarter Multnomah made another threatening attack, annexing 55 yards on straight football. Wolff went over for a touchdown, but it wasn't allowed because Multnomah was penalized five yards for being offside, and just as the next formation was started time was called.

the same manner as preparatory school graduates.

The division of the conference into the two triangular leagues for basketball will meet with some dissension. O. A. C. and Washington oppose it, while Whitman and W. S. C. threaten to drop out of the basketball schedule if it is not done. They maintain that to make the long trips down into Oregon is too expensive, and that they should be allowed to play Idaho and each other, and then the winner play the winners of the Oregon-O. A. C. triangle.

EUGENE HIGH STEPS ON VANCOUVER ELEVEN

However, Vancouver was not slow to discover the weakness of the Eugene line where Powrie and Orswell, two strong tackles were missing, and with remarkable plunging their quarterback Knapp or the full back Hatheway dove through the line time and again for heavy gain. It took the better part of three quarters to overcome this handicap. A safety was scored in the third quarter after Vancouver had successfully held on their three yard line, but Eugene blocked the punt from behind the goal line. But in the last quarter, Vancouver was badly stepped on. Three touchdowns were rushed down the field in rapid succession, accelerated by long forward passes and carried over by straight plunging or by long end runs.

The little Eugene team is the strongest, pluckiest little football machine ever seen upon Kincaid field for its weight. Weighing less than 137 pounds, it is able to handle with ease high school teams ten pounds heavier. The backfield knows nothing but fight; neither Ross, Kletzing, nor Gray, can be stopped by anything short of a brick wall, and they are aided by remarkable interference. They play the open style of game and work with an accuracy that is thrilling. Johnston, their coach, is a Michigan man, and deserves great credit for his little squad.

The principle of the High School is George Hug, all-Northwest center on the Varsity team for four years, and his work, too, can be readily seen in the work of the team.

Women of Taste

There is only one thing that we dislike more than commonplace—that is the weird and extreme.
Women of taste avoid what is too common as carefully as they avoid what is too conspicuous. So do we.

WHAT COMES IN HERE ARE THE TRULY STYLISH THINGS—THE MODELS THAT ARE QUIETLY DISTINCTIVE, EXCLUSIVE, TASTEFUL—IN A WORD THE STYLE THAT MARK THE AMERICAN LADY.

And that's why Wooltex coats and suits are here—for that reason and because they are also the BEST MADE garments we know and the best values at their moderate price.

HAVE YOU SEEN THEM?
