BASKETBALL FOR CLUBS AND CLASSES OCCUPIES LIMELIGHT FOR FANS

KAPPA SIGMA IN LINE FOR PERMANENT POSSESSION OF TROPHY

OTHER FRATERNITIES COVET CUP

Sigma Chi, Alpha Tau Omega, and Phi Gamma Delta Will Also Fight for Championship.

The football season closed, all interest has now turned to basketball. The Varsity squad, however, will not commence practice until after Christmas to give the inter-fraternity teams a chance to get into condition.

A great pre-season interest has been shown in these inter-fraternity series this year and promises are for a large attendance when Referee Shockley calls the first game Friday afternoon between the Sigma Nu fraternity and the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Last year the Kappa Sigma fraternity won the Hayward cup and the inter-fraternity championship. Should they win again, the trophy will become a permanent fixture of their mantel. This season their team will be playing without Roberts, Cobb and McAllen, the first being chosen as all-fraternity forward last year. Still and Boylen are the old men on the team.

There are several fraternities who are of the belief that the trophy should be passed on from year to year. Among these who appear to be the most capable of bringing about the desired succession and wrestling the honors from the Kappa Sigma fraternity are Sigma Chi, Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Gamma Delta, and Sigma Nu fraternities.

The Sigma Chi fraternity qualified for the semi-finals last year and they should make a bid for the first honors again this year with such stars as Briedwell, Vosper and Watson in their midst.

The Alpha Tau Omega fraternity is weakened by the absence of Viereck, Huggins, and McDaniels, but with the two Motschenbachers in the game and a number of Freshmen with prep school records to draw from, they should be able to give a good account of themselves.

The Phi Gamma Delta fraternity is minus their star forward Tom Word. However, with Gould, Fisher, and George, as a nucleus, they should be able to develop a fast team.

The Sigma Nu team has been practicing for some time under the direction of Don Rader. Among their

PACIFIC TOUR PUT OFF

Inability to Secure Well Rounded Team Reason Given by Spaulding for Postponement.

The tour of Australia and New Zealand by the team representing the Spaulding Athletic Company of New York, which included Hawkins and McClure, two Oregon men, has been postponed until June.

The American athletes were to sail in the middle of December, but because of the impossibility of taking an evenly balanced team the trip was delayed. Chief difficulties lay with the inability to find a hurdler who could defeat the Australian stars. Hawkins was slated to run these events for the Americans, but his studies at the Law School in Portland would not permit his leaving.

Twenty-three special trains carried 18,000 spectators from New York to Princeton for the recent Yale-Princeton football game.

ENGINEERS WILL ENTERTAIN WITH FEATURE DANCE

Mechanical Appliances Will be Utilized by "Civils" in First Club Effort for Four Years.

Tripods and slide rules will be featured at the Engineering Club Dance, scheduled for December 7, next Saturday evening. This is the first dance of this nature to be given for four years, and will mark the revival of this feature of campus life.

Committees, headed by Abe Blackman and Carl Thomas, are in charge of arrangements for decorating and programs. Four seniors in the department of Electrical Engineering—Will Neill, Claude Washburn, Clyde Pattee, and Cyril Meyers—are devising a unique lighting effect, involving a spectacular display of high-tension "juice" and a novel moonlight reproduction. The programs, designed and engraved by Carl Thomas, '14, are of engineering technique.

An admission of fifty cents per couple will be charged. A general invitation is issued to students and faculty.

The Daily Cardinal, published at the University of Wisconsin, is for sale every morning on the honor plan in the main hall of the building of that institution.

PORTLAND THEATRES TURN DOWN GLEE CLUB

Dates All Full, Says Manager Geary—Lincoln High Auditorium Is Considered.

Graduate Manager Arthur Geary has encountered considerable difficulty in arranging a date for the University Glee Club in Portland. He is unable to engage a date at the Heilig; the management kept postponing an agreement and finally told him that all dates available for the club were filled. The management of the Bungalow was reticent of allowing the club a date on account of such arrangement breaking into their regular performance; and when the Orpheum took over the Bungalow Theatre, after the collapse of the Marquam building, all prospects of an appearance there faded.

Manager Geary said: "The place of the performance now lies between the Star Theatre and the Lincoln High School Auditorium. The students here from Lincoln High are good, loyal boosters, who will be home during the holidays. I think we could get a good crowd. By reducing the prices to seventy-five and fifty cents, the proceeds would probably be as good as any of the theatres. The auditorium of Lincoln has a capacity of two thousand or more."

GALE SEAMAN TO ADDRESS Y. M. C. A. FRIDAY EVENING

Gale Seaman, of Los Angeles, Coast Student Secretary on the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A., has been secured to give the address at the Y. M. C. A. meeting Friday, from 7 to 7:30 P. M., in Dr. Schmidt's room, on the subject "Constructive Forces in Character Building." The date of meeting was changed to accommodate Secretary Seaman, who is en route to attend the California Y. M. C. A. conference.

A year ago, Mr. Seaman addressed a meeting of the Student Y. M. C. A. with an audience of over 50 men. While in town, he will attend the regular cabinet meeting, when the monthly reports will be made out. At present he is returning from a trip through Washington and Montana, where he has been visiting and assisting student organizations.

The program will include a vocal duet by Hazel and Imogene McKown.

The honor system has been adopted for the University of Missouri gymnasium classes and each student is required to keep track of his own attendance.

TINA LERNER, RUSSIAN PIANIST BILLED FOR CONCERT IN VILLARD

MU PHI EPSILON INTRODUCES NOTED PERFORMER FREE TO COLLEGE FOLK

PRESS AGENTS ENTHUSE OVER FOREIGNER

Unusual Opportunity to Hear Pianist of International Reputation Tomorrow.

Miss Tina Lerner, Russian pianist, appears in concert at Villard Hall Wednesday evening, at 8:15. The Portland Musical Association has made this concert a present to Mu Phi Epsilon, and the sorority is making it a complimentary concert to all the students of the University and the town people. The patronesses will be Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Mrs. M. H. Douglass, and Miss G. W. Lewis.

Through the University School of Music, the students in Eugene have, more or less frequently, had the opportunity to hear musicians of national reputation. But to be able to hear Miss Lerner, without cost, is, indeed, unusual. The press agents speak well of this pianist, saying:

"Judging from the impression which Miss Tina Lerner made wherever she has appeared in this country, there seems to be no question as to the complete agreement with the verdict which Europe passed on the merits of the young pianist. The brilliant young musician has shown herself quite the equal of any woman artist before the public. Considerations of youth, sex and environment aside, Miss Lerner's record has shown that she is amply able to hold her own in competition with the giants of the keyboard."

"It did not take long," said the Baltimore Sun, "for Miss Lerner to make a striking impression by her innate grace, refinement and unaffected simplicity of manner. She is an artist in every sense of the word—full of temperament, deeply imbued with the keen sense of music so characteristically a feature of the people of her Russian father land."

FOOTBALL SEASON A FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Geary Reports, Balance of $300 to be Turned Into Student Body Treasury.

Although a final report has not yet been made out, Graduate Manager Arthur Geary reports a comfortable balance to be turned over to the Student Body fund, as a result of the football season just ended.

The game with Oregon Agricultural College netted $1,631 to the football fund of the University; the game with Multnomah Club brought in a balance of $1,556.40; and Manager Geary cleared $600 for the fund on the University of Washington game. "This will clear up all debts," said Manager Geary, "and will leave a balance of approximately three hundred dollars. As the bills are not all in yet, I can not tell definitely, but that is my estimate."

CLASS BASKETBALL MEN TO ELECT CAPTAINS TOMORROW

The presidents of the four classes will summon the respective class basketball players tomorrow afternoon to elect four captains for the class teams.

Michigan closed her football season last Saturday with a victory over Cornell.

PROFESSIONAL ACTOR ENTHUSIASTIC OVER GLEE CLUB WORK

DIRECTOR BOWMAN HAS LED STAGE CAREER FOR MORE THAN TEN YEARS

SANG IN GRAND OPERA FOUR YEARS

Club Will Be in Best of Form on Appearance Here, December 19.

For the first time in the sixteen years that University of Oregon Glee Clubs have toured the state, a director with grand opera experience is in charge. M. L. Bowman, who has been dividing his time between Portland and Eugene while training the Glee Club this fall, was, for a number of years, the leading bass of the Henry W. Savage Opera Co. A young man in appearance, he has seen eight and a half years of stage life.

"The boys are doing fine," says Mr. Bowman, "and will have their program in tip top shape December 19, when they make their bow to the Eugene audience. The boys are hard workers, and when one or two recruits from the football team have learned the music, we will have a well balanced club. This is my first experience in training an amateur club. All my work here-to-fore has been with professionals."

Mr. Bowman's stage experience has led him into every important town in the United States. He began his professional career as an actor nearly ten years ago, and led in supporting the castes of such famous artists as Blanch Walsh in "Salambo," Viola Allen in the "Eternal City," and Edward Morgan in the "Gentleman from Indiana." In the spring of 1903 he appeared as soloist at the Scottish Gaelic Concert in New York City. Henry Savage immediately tendered him an engagement with the Grand Opera Company. In four years following he sang in Tannhauser, Lohengrin, Walkyrie, Faust, Aida, an Rigolette.

Mr. Bowman will sing as one of the members on the program of the Glee Club concert this year.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL TO MEET DEC. 13

Coch Managers Report and Contract Ratification Will be Settled by Athletic Council.

A number of important questions will come up for consideration at the regular meeting of the Athletic Council on December 13. The one of most interest generally will be the question of the retention of the graduate coach system for football and the selection of a football coach for next year.

Manager Arthur Geary's complete report of the football season will be received by the Council at this time; and the awarding of Varsity letters to the football men who have earned them this fall, will be arranged. The contract with Multnomah Club for future football games with the University will be passed upon by the Council, and a selection made between the two options offered by the club. One option is for allowance of 25 per cent of the gate receipts to Multnomah Club for the field, with a maximum of $1,000; and the other will allow the same per cent to Multnomah Club for the field, with the stipulation that the club allow the University $150 for expenses. Manager Geary said that the Council would probably favor the first arrangement.

Also, a delegate to the annual Northwest Conference, December 21-

GAMMA DELTA GAMMA ENTERS BASKETBALL RACE

Contend With Oregon Club First—Only Two Teams as Yet Eliminated.

This afternoon the Gamma Delta Gamma team will play their first game when they meet the Oregon Club. Although the Gamma Delta Gamma team has not appeared in a game as yet, they have been practicing consistently and are credited with an excellent machine.

After the Beth Reah-Lambda Rho game, just previous to the Thanksgiving recess, the statement appeared that the Beth Reah Club had been eliminated from the series. They were credited with three games, two defeats and one victory—whereas they have played only two games, defeating Gamma Phi Beta and being defeated by the Oregon Club, thus remaining eligible in the series.

Four out of the six teams entered in the league are still in the running for the cup. The standing of all entries is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost
Kappa Alpha Theta	2	0
Oregon Club	2	1
Beth Reah	1	2
Lambda Rho	1	1
Gamma Phi Beta	0	2
Gamma Delta Gamma	0	0

TWO DOLLARS IS PRICE SET FOR NEW OREGANA

That is, if Early Payment is made—In Case of Late Payment $2.50 Will be Charged.

Manager Hawley Bean, of the 1914 Oregana, will start his subscription campaign either Wednesday or Thursday of this week. Announcement to this effect was made by the manager yesterday afternoon.

The same plan will be followed this year as was pursued by the management last year, that of one dollar down, and one dollar payment when the book is received. Provision will be made for the accurate record of those paying in advance. Those who do not avail themselves of this opportunity to buy a year book, will be forced to pay $2.50 when purchase is made in the spring.

Alva Grout will be in charge of the campus campaign, but will be aided by several assistants whom he will appoint immediately from the various houses and organizations. An effort will be made to complete this University canvass in two weeks.

Contracts for the engraving will be let before Wednesday evening, according to Manager Bean.

JOINT FINANCE CAMPAIGN RAISES FUNDS FOR Y. M. C. A.

Monday morning began the three days' joint finance campaign of the University and Eugene Y. M. C. A.'s to raise $5,500, of which the student organization gets $1,130. This will cover the budget for the coming year, to January 1, 1914, plus the deficits of previous years. The canvass will be made among the business men of Eugene, alumni, and parents of students, by ten committees, made up of students, faculty, and business men, under the leadership of Ivan B. Rhodes, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who has agreed to take charge of the canvass. At Secretary Koyle's suggestion, a large thermometer has been installed on the city association building, to indicate the progress of the campaign.

The finance campaign among the students last week brought in over $200 in pledges, and increased the student membership to 165. This gives about $360 toward the $2,000 budget of the University Y. M. C. A.

The dean of women at the University of Minnesota has put a ban upon the use of the word co-ed.

22. will be elected at this meeting, and instructions given to the University's representative.

VARNELL GIVES BAILEY AND PARSONS PLACES ON ALL STAR ELEVEN

OREGON'S BABY TACKLE LISTED AS EASILY BEST IN CONFERENCE

COOK AND CORNELL SECOND CHOICE

1912 Dope Can Badly Dented—Race for Captaincy Between Bradshaw and Fenton.

The placing of two men on Varnell's official all-Northwest team, the tying with Washington State College for third place in the conference, and a fiscal balance of between two and three hundred dollars are the results of Oregon's 1912 football season just closed.

Johnny Parsons and Ed, Bailey were given half back and tackle positions on the Spaulding team because the former "put up the most brilliant offensive game yet seen in the Northwest, not excepting Borleske's great work of years ago, and the later, for the reason that "with two hundred and twenty-five pounds of solid bone and muscle, unusual speed, and ability to think quickly, made him the best tackle in the conference." Both the Oregonian and the Journal gave Fenton a guard position, as he "was far and away the best forward passer in the conference and a great punter." Cook is heralded as a second to Niles of Whitman in fullback position, because of his bulk and speed as a line plunger. Right behind Quarterback Young of Washington is Anson Cornell, for "he excels any runner we have had in the Northwest recently." Three men will be lost by graduation, Fariss from guard, Bailey from tackle, and Captain Walker from the backfield, but several good men have already spoken for their places.

Dope Can Marred.
For years the Northwest "dope can" has not been so battered as it has this year. Idaho walloped W. S. C. 13-0. W. S. C. defeated Oregon 7-0, yet Oregon won from Idaho 3-0. Again, Whitman smothered Oregon 2-0, the Oregon Aggies beat Whitman 20-3, but Oregon turned the tables on O. A. C. by a score of 3-0. The Whitman-Idaho game, won by the later 13-6, was the last dent in the "can." Through all the season, Washington calmly pursued it's even tenor and brought home the fifth consecutive championship.

Hall and Caulfield Leave Race.
For the captaincy of the 1913 team four men are eligible, but Caulfield and Hall leave the race to Fenton and Bradshaw, believing them better fitted for the position. The election will take place sometime in the near future.

SHOCKLEY IS MARRIED

Miss Elsie Simmons, of Parkdale, Oregon, is Thanksgiving Bride of Gym Instructor.

Edgar W. Shockley, assistant physical director in the men's gymnasium, was married to Miss Elsie Simmons at Parkdale, Oregon, on Thanksgiving day. The ceremony was performed by Reverend W. L. Van Nuys, former pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Pendleton.

Mrs. Shockley is the daughter of Mr. J. W. Simmons, a prominent fruit grower of the upper Hood River valley. Her home was formerly in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Shockley will be at home to their friends after December 12, at 965 Pearl street.

The University of South Carolina offers a one hour course in automobile instruction.
