

HOWE WILL SPEAK ON SHAKESPEARE CRITICS

The Choral Club Will Make Their First Appearance Before the Regular Assembly.

Professor Herbert Crombie Howe, of the English department of the University, will speak at the regular Assembly tomorrow morning on "The Ins and Outs of Shakespeare Criticism."

Professor Howe has spoken at Assembly on several previous occasions, and has proven a popular speaker before the students.

The first public appearance of the Woman's Glee Club will constitute a part of the program. The organization has been practicing faithfully under the direction of Mr. Bowman, and will appear frequently at student gatherings hereafter. Their first number has been announced as "Spring Beauties." Miss Florence Avery, president of the organization, declared that encores would not be needed.

CLASS PRESIDENTS ACT

Sophomore Hour Postponed; Freshman and Sophomore Committees are Named.

President Ed. Bailey of the Senior class has appointed no new committees since the last class meeting, and is contemplating no further meetings of the class until the committee on the class play is ready to report.

Dell Stannard, president of the Junior class, has appointed Vernon Mitschenbacher chairman of the Class Day Committee, which includes two other members, Flora Dunham and May Norton.

President Hardesty of the Sophomore class announces that the Sophomore hour has been postponed till December 18.

The Freshman class president, Bob Prosser, has appointed Howard Lindsay chairman of the Freshman class hour committee, which will consist of two more members chosen by the chairman.

Y. W. C. A. HOLDS BAZAAR

Hope to Raise $250 by Christmas Sale of Needlework and Dainty Pastries.

With the possibilities to raise an additional $250 for the Bungalow fund, members of the college Y. W. C. A. are quite enthusiastic over a bazaar planned for Friday afternoon. This is to occur in the Central Presbyterian Church from 1 until 8 o'clock. On sale at attractive booths will be a great variety of articles ranging from pastry to needlework. Found among the needlework will be many suggestions for Christmas, declare those preparing this affair.

"We hope to make $250 for our Bungalow," says Mrs. E. D. Fletcher, of the Y. W. C. A., "and we will, if the students will give us their co-operation, both in boosting for us and in spending a little money with us. If they do, our final effort will be fairly crowned with success."

BASKETBALL FOR CLUBS

many stars are Parsons, Chandler, Benson, Stellar, Bean, and McCowan.

The strength of the other teams of the league is not fully known, and any might spring a surprise on the favorites. The Avayas are strengthened by the two Bigbees of Albany fame. It is reported that the Zeta Phi team has been practicing daily in the downtown Y. M. C. A.

The Dormitory Club is organized with Chester Fee as captain. The Phi Delta Theta fraternity and the Oregon Club have to be heard from.

It is rumored that Gilmour Dobie, the famous Washington coach, will leave Washington this year and take a position as coach of the University of Pennsylvania. During his stay on the coast Dobie has developed a number of strong teams, which have held the Northwest championship for the last five years.
