MANY COLLEGE MEN WHOLLY OR IN PART PAY OWN EXPENSES

Y. M. INVESTIGATIONS SHOW
53 PER CENT OF MEN
STUDENTS WORK FOR EDUCATION

FRATERNITYMEN NO EXCEPTION

Prefs. Give Influence of Y. M. C. A.
as Cause for Democratic Conditions.

Investigations conducted by Charles W. Koyl, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and Karl Martzloff, head of the Y. M. C. A. social service committee, have proved that 53 per cent of all men in attendance at the University are either wholly or in part self-supporting. Of these men, about one-third were found to live in fraternities. The figures are: 54 in fraternities, and 111 in the dormitory and in town.

These results will compare favorably with any college or university in the country. The larger part of the 53 per cent of students are almost wholly self-supporting. This is especially true of the students outside fraternities, although exact statistics were not available on this point. A surprisingly large number of men are working at odd jobs while attending school, in addition to those working for their board or rooms. It is in this connection that the Y. M. C. A. is interested, and a flourishing employment agency is maintained for the students' aid.

A canvass of the various fraternities in the University brought out the following figures in regard to the number of students entirely or partly self-supporting:

	Entirely.	Partly.
Beta Theta Pi.....	3	3
Kappa Sigma.....	3	0
Alpha Tau Omega.....	3	6
Sigma Nu.....	3	3
Zeta Phi.....	5	2
Phi Gamma Delta.....	3	4
Phi Delta Theta.....	2	5
Sigma Chi.....	3	4
Avava.....	2	0
	27	27

The report of the Y. M. C. A. Employment Bureau shows that during November alone a total cash return of $311.55 was secured for the students, benefitting 37 men. Of this amount, $238 was for regular jobs given to six

GLEE CLUB RECOGNIZED

Women's Glee Allowed Temporary
Status as Student Body Enterprise.

To place the Girls' Glee Club on an equal footing with any other varsity enterprise by making it a regular Student Body activity, is the purpose seen in an action of the Executive Council meeting held Saturday.

A motion was carried, "that the Girls' Glee Club be granted the temporary status of a regular branch of Student Body activities, to be governed by the rules now governing the University of Oregon Glee Club, this status to continue until the 21st of March."

The latter clause indicates that a motion will be introduced at the regular Student Body meeting March 21, to make the Girls' Club a permanent Student Body enterprise. This means that the Co-eds would be backed up by that organization in their future efforts.

"DEADY BUG" NEW NAME OF OREGON MONTHLY HUMOROUS DEPARTMENT

Graduate Coach System and Golf
Among Subjects Treated in December Number.

"Look out Maybelle, a 'Deady Bug' is coming." "Where?" "In the Oregon Monthly for December. It's the new name for the joke department."

The magazine will be out the end of the week, and will contain "The Dawn of Tomorrow," "Commencement Oration, by Birdie Wise, '12, and "The Brotherhood of Man," by Alberta Campbell. In addition will appear an article by Hayward on the Olympic games, one by Tommy Boylen on the Graduate Coach System, one by Fen Waite on Golf, and one by Faye Ball on the purpose and progress of the Agora Club. Thornton Howard will furnish the cartoons, and a picture of the football squad will be reproduced.

Heretofore the lack of funds has been a serious drawback, but the management hopes to overcome this evil and get out a regular periodical.

OREGON CLUB AND ZETA PHI LEAD IN HAND BALL

Officials Endeavor to Revive Lagging Interest—Class Games to Start Soon.

Interest in the inter-fraternity handball tournament seems to be dragging, only two games having been played during the last several days. Austin Brownell and Harold Quigley, representing Zeta Phi, defeated Henry Fowler and Watson, the Sigma Chi team, by 21 to 10 and 21 to 12 scores. Zeta Phi also won from the Sigma Nu team of Edward Geary and Everett Stuller in 21 to 3 and 21 to 7 games. The game scheduled for Monday, between the Dormitory and Phi Delta Theta, was indefinitely postponed, as the Phi Delta Theta team failed to appear.

The League officials are making an effort to have the teams follow the regular schedule, as it is desired to

LEONE CASS BAER TO SPEAK TO NEWS CLASS

"Women in Newspapers," is Subject
Announced—Miss Baer One of First Women Jurors.

Miss Leone Cass Baer will address the Journalism class next Wednesday afternoon. The subject of her talk will be "Women in Newspapers."

Miss Baer has the distinction of being one of the twelve women jurors who made up the first jury composed entirely of women ever impaneled in Oregon. This jury sat on a case tried in Portland December 4, and the experience has been graphically described by Miss Baer in the Oregonian.

Leone Cass Baer is one of the foremost women now in the profession of journalism work. For some time she has been dramatic critic and dramatic editor of the Oregonian. During the conference of newspaper men held at the University a few weeks ago, Col. Hofer, of Salem, said that he ranked her among the foremost journalists on the Pacific Coast.

During her stay in Eugene, Miss Baer will be entertained at the Chi Omega and the Mary Spiller houses. She will return to Portland Wednesday evening, making the trip in the private car of Valeska Suratt, the leading lady of the "Kiss Waltz," who passes through Eugene en route to Portland from San Francisco.

EMERALD'S SUBSCRIPTION LIST RECORD BREAKER WITH 1164 PAID SUBSCRIBERS

SHOWS INCREASE OF 50 PER CENT OVER PREVIOUS RECORDS, AND IS OF COSMOPOLITAN COMPOSITION—MORE ALUMNI
SUBSCRIBERS THAN STUDENTS, BUT CAMPUS CIRCULATION ALSO LARGER THAN IN PREVIOUS YEARS

The Emerald, like a youngster at the time he steps into his first long trousers, has been taking long strides in growth during the past year. A six column paper, publishing each week over 650 inches of news, appearing three times a week, it now ranks among the foremost college newspapers of the Pacific Northwest. The report of the circulation manager, given out today and printed below, is likewise characteristic of the paper's growth. Today the Emerald has 50 per cent more paid subscribers than at any previous year of its publication.

The Emerald's total circulation is 1146. This number is divided as follows:

Subscribers, mailed.....	614
Campus student subscribers.....	314
City subscribers.....	143
Exchanges.....	75

These figures are interesting in that they show what a comparatively small part of the circulation goes to the students, and how large a number goes to members of the Alumni. The Emerald by these figures is actually read more by the alumni than by students. This is in spite of the fact that the paper is primarily a newspaper of the students.

The campus student subscribers numbers but 314. This is less than a third of the total. Those listed as "city subscribers," represent advertisers, alumni, and a few students living too far away from the campus for carrier delivery. The "subscribers mailed," numbering 614, represent almost wholly papers going to the alumni. The number does not necessarily show that the Alumni are more loyal to the college paper than the students, for the roll of the graduates is larger. But it does show how great an interest these, who leave the University, are taking in their Alma Mater. It also indicates that the Emerald cannot be edited for but one class of readers, but must be cosmopolitan enough to appeal to business and professional men, and college professors, as well as students.

The number of subscribers upon the campus, however, is fairly large in comparison to previous years. The figure 314 is 50 or 60 larger than it has ever been before. It means that one Emerald is distributed for every two students.

HAYWARD EXHIBITS INTEREST IN GOLF

Says He Will Give "Gym" Credits for Consistent Play, and Offers Cup for Tournament.

Resulting from the announcement yesterday by "Bill" Hayward that "gym" credits will be given for regular and consistent golf playing, 20 men have signed up for "cow pasture pool," and the College Hill course will soon be echoing with, "Fore! On the green in two!"

Hayward has not only signified his intention of helping the movement along by giving "gym" credits, but has come forward with the offer of a handsome cup to the winner of a handicap tournament, to be played this winter.

He says: "While I have not played golf for several years, I am still interested in the sport and intend to take up the game later myself. I will give 'gym' credits to those who play regularly and conscientiously, and will arrange to have someone on the links to check the cards. An hour of outdoor exercise is of more benefit than an hour's work in the gym, and I hope enough will play to make this scheme a go."

The course has recently been moved and the weeds removed from the putting greens, so that the links are now in better condition than for several years. If enough students join the Golf Club and pay their regular fifty cents dues, it is planned to sand the greens and buy new marking flags.

BOB BRADSHAW PICKED TO CAPTAIN 1913 TEAM

Robert Bradshaw, '14, of The Dalles, Oregon, was elected captain of the University of Oregon football team for 1913, at a meeting of the 1912 squad in the Gymnasium this afternoon.

It is not known whether there were any other candidates or not. The vote

The Sophomores, with Fred Hardy in the chair, will meet in McClure Hall, while Robert Prosser will assemble his Freshmen cohorts in Villard. These two classes will consider an inter-class debate. Bert Prescott will address the Freshmen.

PROFESSOR BARKER DIVIDES TIME AMONG FOUR LECTURE HALLS

Crowded Conditions at University
Leave Little Room for Classes in Geography.

With a small office in the basement of McClure Hall, and classes in whatever room happens to be vacant, Professor F. L. Barker's life is a varied one, and furnishes an example of the crowded condition necessitated at the University.

Professor Barker, of the department of Geology and Geography, begins his day's work at 8 o'clock in the President's office in Villard. His 9 o'clock class take him to room 21 in Deady, his 10 o'clock class to the basement of the Library, and his 11 o'clock class back to Villard in room three.

In the afternoon he is allowed to spend two consecutive hours in President Campbell's office.

Not only must he rush from one room to another in order to meet his classes, but he must also transfer the books and apparatus necessary in conducting his classes.

CO-ED PLAYERS FAVOR "OPEN DOOR" AT GAMES

Spencer Says, Plan Will Increase
Interest Shown in Women's Activities.

Fifteen girls, picked at random, were interviewed for their opinion, yesterday afternoon, in regard to allowing all college students admittance to the women's basketball games and athletic contests.

Nine girls unanimously favored the issuance of invitations,—to allow the girls of the teams to invite whoever they wished,—and only two were opposed to the plan.

"The hardest thing about it," said one girl, "is the breaking down of an established custom. Hitherto games have been played before girls only, and now they seem sensitive in open-

WORKING STUDENTS BALK ON CUT RULE

Petition Circulated by Ben Dorris
Asks Modification of New Faculty Edict.

Student sentiment against the recent Faculty ruling in regard to the penalty imposed for cuts, took shape last evening, when a number of students signed a petition circulated by Ben F. Dorris, Jr., '15, asking for a modification of the measure.

This remonstrance, which contained nearly forty names at a late hour last night, is confined to those students who are either partially or wholly self-supporting, and who declare that their outside work makes necessary "cutting" at certain times. The abolition of the ruling is not asked, merely the modification of it as it affects those who are working outside of college hours.

Immediately upon the heels of this petition, a movement was started to circulate a general remonstrance to be signed by all the students, to be presented to the Faculty for their consideration. Those who signed the first, were generally willing to take the initiative in a more general objection to the recent action. The second petition will probably be circulated this week.

In the meantime additional names will be secured on the first petition in an endeavor to get it in shape for presentation to the Faculty at their next meeting.

SOPHOMORES PROVE CLASS

Upperclass Contest Bloodthirsty—
Eight Seniors Play in Final Ten Minutes.

Yesterday afternoon the Sophomores defeated the Freshmen and the Juniors defeated the Seniors in the first games of the inter-class series. "The games were fast and hard fought and featured by the rooting of the Junior and Senior classes.

The Sophomores succeeded in rolling up a score of 28 to 14 for the Freshmen. Although the Freshmen were game fighters, they were no match for the experienced second year men and showed their lack of experience in the new rules.

The team work of the Sophomores was the best that was displayed by any of the classes yesterday. They have a well balanced team and will give the Juniors, who won the championship last year, a good contest for first honors.

The Juniors beat the Seniors by an 18 to 4 score. The game was rough and many fouls were called. During the last few minutes of play, the bloodthirsty Seniors had as many as eight men on the floor at the same time. But even this number was not able to stop the scoring of the winning team. The basket throwing of Benson and the guarding of Briedwell was prominent.

PROF. DUNN TO LECTURE

"Greek Heroes," Subject of Discourse
—Speaker Will Feature "Iliad and Odyssey."

Professor Dunn will deliver the second of his series of lectures Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, in his room in Deady. The subject of this lecture is, "A Gallery of Greek Heroes." It will be illustrated by stereopticon pictures and will be a review of the most notable and popular of the Greek heroes of Homer's "Iliad and Odyssey" and of Grecian history down to the time of the overthrow of the Greeks by the Romans. All University students and Faculty members are invited to be present.

At the University of Pennsylvania, 25 men have responded to the call for wrestling practice. Among them was Dorizas, the Greek wrestler, who has won prizes abroad, and who was in the Olympic games twice.
