

UNIVERSITY WILL AID SOLONS AT CAPITOL

Exhibit of Reference Material Placed In State Building for Convenience of Legislature.

The University has been granted the best exhibit space in the rotunda of the Capitol building at Salem, by the Secretary of State. This space will be used for analysis of subjects concerning legislation, charts, maps, and diagrams submitted by the University. The idea is to give the legislators a comprehensive view of both sides of the various questions, as well as to show them what the University is doing in research work on problems of interest to the state.

Professor F. G. Young visited the Capitol in the interests of the University last Saturday and submits the following lists of subjects that have been analyzed and placed on exhibit:

1. Power Resources of Oregon—Prompt and Highest Development of Them.
2. Development of Agricultural Credit—Associations for.
3. Co-operation in Buying and Selling—Plans for Organizing.
4. Appropriation of the Unearned Social Increment—A Plan of Taxation to Effect this.
5. The Problem of Organizing Municipal Markets.
6. Agencies to Reduce Unemployment to Lowest Minimum.
7. Organization to Secure Highest Efficiency in the Legislature.
8. Comparative Study of State Systems of Direct Legislation.
9. Political Reorganization of the American State.
10. Outline of Most Approved Features in Highway Codes. (With provision for continuous maintenance.)
11. The Principles of Planning Small Cities.
12. A State Budgetary System.
13. A System for Oregon Municipal Budgets.
14. Oregon County Budgets.
15. Chart of Proposed Basis for Adjustment of Salaries of Oregon County Officials.

REDDIE IS SURPRISED

"Dombey and Son" Caste Pays Stately Visit to Home of Director and Fun Ensues.

A surprise party was sprung on Professor and Mrs. Reddie last night and they were presented with a large rocking chair by the caste of "Dombey and Son" in appreciation of their work in making the play a success.

Mysterious baskets and bundles accompanied seventeen of the cast to the Reddie residence on Fairmount Heights,—the house was easily captured, Professor and Mrs. Reddie having been invited to a nearby neighbors. After all had been put in readiness, the host and hostess were called home and were met at the door with an Oregon song and hearty good cheers. Walter Dimm presented the rocking chair in behalf of the Dramatic Club. The evening was spent in telling stories and playing charades. Refreshments were served by some of the masculine guests neatly attired as serving girls.

BARNETT CONTRIBUTES TO NOTED PERIODICAL

Oregon Professor Discusses Direct Primary in Political Science Quarterly.

Among the six leading articles contributed to the current number of the Political Science Quarterly, is one by Dr. James D. Barnett of the Political Science department of the University upon the topic, "Forestalling the Direct Primary in Oregon." The Political Science Quarterly is a magazine of worldwide circulation and is published by the Academy of Political Science in connection with Columbia University.

Dr. Barnett gives a description of the success Oregon has achieved in trying out the Direct Primary System, and describes some of the schemes used to get around its provisions. The Assembly plan, so popular with certain politicians of the state a few years ago, is thoroughly discussed. Other states at this time are being introduced to the Primary system, and this article by Dr. Barnett, who is a recognized authority on this subject in the United States, is an important one. It has been reprinted in pamphlet form by the publishers for the use of those interested.

PAPER SOLVENT DECLARES CAKE

"The figures given above are approximate. A detailed financial statement will be forthcoming at the next meeting of the executive committee." Matter Deferred Until Next Year. The situation regarding the Monthly is not materially different from that of a few days ago. The resignation of Flora Dunham has not been considered by the Executive Council, nor has it considered the report of the manager. These matters will not come before this committee until next year, after the Christmas holidays.

OREGON GRADS SUCCEED

Harley Glafke Returns to Visit Alma Mater and Reports Work of Former Students.

Harley Glafke, a former Portland boy and a graduate of the University of Oregon from the Pre-Medical Course in the class of 1907, is out from Chicago, and paid a visit to his old Oregon friends last week.

He and "Ike" Fountain, the University's famous yell leader in his day, entered Northwestern Medical College, Chicago. On graduation, they took the competitive examination for internships at the Cook County Hospital, Chicago, the most desirable place open to graduates. Out of some 160 applicants for the 40 positions, they received the highest honor, being among the first group of twenty chosen.

Glafke will shortly enter the office of one of the most noted physicians in Chicago. After a year or two he expects to study abroad at either Vienna or Berlin. He will probably ultimately locate for practice in his old home in Portland.

He says that "Billy" Neal, also from the Pre-Medical Course at the University of Oregon, was pronounced by the Dean of Northwestern Medical the best prepared man in his class, in fact a phenomenon.

"Ike" Fountain is now located in Klamath Falls, with his wife and child.

"Billy" Neal is a nephew of Dr. Bartle of Eugene.
