

OWL CLUB WOULD PLAY LINCOLN HIGH ALUMNI

Basketball-Enthusiastic High School Grads Send Challenge to Former Portland Rivals.

The following challenge, passed at a meeting of the Owl Club Wednesday at the Chi Omega house, was communicated to the alumni of Lincoln High School today. The challenge reads: "The Owl Club, composed of Washington High School graduates at the University of Oregon, hereby challenges the Lincoln High School alumni in the University of Oregon to a game of basketball, the date of which to be set by the challenged team."

At the meeting, which was attended by 18 former students of the Portland school, a motion was carried for the president, Miss Rose Basler, to appoint a committee to write individual letters to the members of the February graduating class of Washington High School, urging them to attend the University, and at the same time extolling the merits of the college.

CLASS AIDS ENGINEER

Senior Electricians Make Charts for Albany City Engineer on Lighting Systems.

In pursuance of a request from City Engineer John Penland, a former student at the University, the Senior class in Electrical Engineering is drawing up charts and estimates for an ornamental lighting system for the city of Albany. The cost of installing the different types of lighting systems is being estimated and the figures will be submitted to the Albany City Council soon.

The estimates which have been compiled are based on the cost of ornamental concrete posts. These have been installed at the University of Washington, Riverside, California, and other places.

The class expects to make a survey of Eugene's electrical system for the use of Albany and any other towns who may desire information on the subject.

The work is being done by William Neill, Cyril Meyer, and Claude Washburne, under the direction of Professor C. R. Reid of the Electrical Department.

LAUREANS "PIP UP" TO PREVENT THEIR DEATH

The principal business to come before the Laurean Literary Society at its next meeting on Tuesday evening will be the consideration of measures for the revival or discontinuance of the organization.

The following program has been prepared for Tuesday night's meeting:

1. Declamation—Fred Hardesty.
2. "Critical Review of Browning"—Sam Wise.
3. Humorous recitation—Carlyle Geisler.
4. "Why I Am a Socialist"—Luton Ackerson.
5. Declamation—Allen McConnell.
6. Current Events—Bert Lombard.

WASHINGTON WOULD LIKE CONFERENCE CROSS COUNTRY

The University of Washington is advocating an annual cross country race between the Universities of the Northwest to be held in a place centrally located as possible. This form of contest is extremely popular in the eastern colleges and the only drawback that Washington fears might prevent it in the west is that admission could not very well be charged and some other means would have to be suggested in order to meet the expenses of the visiting teams. There is a large number of good distance men in the northern college and they feel confident that they could maintain their prestige in that form of a meet.

The senior law students of Drake University have voted to grow mustaches. The majority favored the adornment in view of the saving of the price of a shave in spite of the hardship that will devolve on a few.

EDITH CLEMENTS CHOSEN AS Y. W. C. A. PRESIDENT

Y. W. C. A. held their usual meeting in the Shack on Monday evening. The program was led by Alice Farnsworth and consisted of a piano solo by Mildred Dority, the reading of a letter from Miss Mathews, of Japan, to whom part of the funds of the society go, by Miss Sears, and a talk by Professor Dunn, in which he told of the life and works of St. Patrick, including several interesting personal incidents in the life of the great man, which both interested and amused the audience.

The election of officers followed. Maud Mastick and Barbara Booth were unanimously elected Secretary and Treasurer, respectively. Edith Clements was elected president and Ruth Beach vice-president.

There will be no Y. W. C. A. meeting during the following two weeks on account of examinations, but the usual meeting will be held on the Monday of the third week.

FRESHMEN REBUILD FALLEN TRACK SHED

Thirty-five Freshmen, under the direction of H. M. Fischer and their president, Robert Prosser, and under the watchful eye of Bill Hayward repaired last Saturday the shed over the covered track which the wind demolished several weeks ago.

Phi Delta Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Nu, Zeta Phi, Phi Gamma Delta fraternities, and Dormitory Club, were represented.

Y. M. C. A. TO HOLD STAG MIX IN MEN'S DORMITORY

The Y. M. C. A. stag mix which will be held in the Men's Dormitory February 14, will be the best ever, according to the plans which are being worked out by the Y. M. C. A. cabinet. A few stunts will be presented by three or four of the fraternities and other features will be in evidence. The mix was formerly planned to be held in the gymnasium of the Eugene Y. M. C. A. building, but the gym could not be obtained, so the plan was given up.

A Methodist College is to be established in Southern Idaho with a nucleus of $500,000, if the Educational Committee of the church reports favorably.
