COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE BRANCH ESTABLISHED

14 WOMEN ALUMNAE OF EAST-
ERN SCHOOLS UNITE WITH NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

MISS GUPPY HEADS SOCIETY

Eugene Branch Will Endeavor to
Have University of Oregon
Women Admitted.

The National Association of Collegiate Alumnae came into Eugene February 27th, when at a meeting in the Commercial Club rooms, fourteen women alumnae of eastern institutions established the fiftieth branch of the association and the first one to be granted in the Northwest.

Miss Ruth Guppy was elected chairman and Miss Dinsmore secretary of the local organization. To be eligible a member must be a graduate of certain American institutions designated by the Association, or must hold a non-professional degree from a foreign university.

In Eugene there are twenty women college graduates with the requisites of admission. The faculty members are Mrs. J. Parsons, Miss Harriet Thompson, Dr. Bertha Stuart, Miss Ruth Guppy, of Michigan, Miss Burgess, of Radcliffe, and Mrs. Eric Allen, of Wisconsin. A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution for the second meeting, March 13, in the Commercial Club rooms.

The National Association of Collegiate Alumnae founded in 1882 with graduates of twenty-eight institutions of the country, now has a membership totalling over five thousand. National conventions are held twice a year at places designated by the national committee.

The object of the organization is to work along educational and philanthropic lines and to draw together the graduates of various schools who would otherwise never be able to meet. At present the University of Oregon women alumnae are not eligible, but the Eugene branch proposes to work for their admission.

The institutions belonging to the National Association are Barnard, Wellesley, California, Cornell, Grinnell, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas, Stanford, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Northwestern, Mt. Holyoke, Oberlin, Radcliffe, Smith, Syracuse, Western Reserve, Lawrence, and Vassar.

Last Saturday at a meeting of the University alumnae it was decided to entertain the Senior girls at an afternoon reception, March 8, at the home of Miss Mary DrBar. Miss Guppy, Dean of Women, will talk on "Women Graduates and What They May Accomplish."

SENIOR LOTTERY BALL AT FOLLY HALL TO BE MOST INFORMAL FUNCTION OF YEAR

Senior President Edward Bailey, with Marjorie Cowan, will lead the Grand March next Tuesday evening that will open first Senior Lottery Ball. Second in line will be the last year's Junior President Dean Walker, with Minne Holman. The dance will commence promptly at 8:15, at Folly Hall, with Hendershott's orchestra furnishing the music.

In keeping with the spirit and purpose of the dance as it was first intended, every effort will be made to maintain the utmost informality. There will be no decorations worthy of the name and no dress suits. An abundant supply of "exceedingly good punch" has been promised to wet

ENGINEERS RESENT PRESENCE OF OUTSIDERS IN SPEAKING CLASS

Professor Reddie Spoils Attempt of "Civils" to Make Life Unbearable for Scientifically Untutored.

Professor Reddie's class in Engineer public speaking is, collectively and individually, trying to side track two members of the class, who are not engineers, and who can't tell a parabolic curve from an azimuth, so they say.

The two who "aint," have been dubbed "high brows," by the "civils," and for revenge, a conspiracy has been hatched among the engineers to speak in such technical terms as to make the oratorical efforts of the majority unbearable to the two lonely future students of Blackstone and Meacham.

So far the efforts along this line have been of little avail, for Professor has become "wise." But the war is still on, and the Engineers claim that they will rid the class of the two undesirables in some way.

W.S.C. CAPTURES FAST BASKET BALL CONTEST

WALKER STARS FOR OREGON
QUINTET

Superior Shooting of W. S. C. Men
Wins Hardest Basketball Game of Year.

The Washington State Colleg basketball team came back and defeated the varsity five by a 24 to 20 score, Thursday night, in a game fully as exciting as that played the night before. Although the Oregon players displayed the same fighting spirit which won Wednesday's game, they were not as lucky in the matter of shooting baskets, as the Washington Aggies, who seemed to land almost at will from any point on the floor.

Bohler, Anderson, and Sampson, starred for W. S. C. Bohler, the tall blonde forward, getting five baskets, while Sampson threw two field goals and four fouls.

Walker played the strongest game for Oregon. Although suffering from a cut on his head received early in the game, from a collision with Sampson, Walker succeeded in making 10 of the 20 points scored by his team. Captain Sims, although playing a strong game, could not hit the basket with the same regularity as in the previous game. Stevenson was again used at center, but was replaced by Fenton in the second half. "Bill" Hayward sprung an agreeable surprise on the "rooters," when he sent Fenton into the game, it having been reported that the tall center would be out of basketball for the rest of the season.

Oregon will play O. A. C. Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the

BENEFIT BALL APRIL 4 OPEN TO EUGENE FOLK

FORMAL WILL BE GIVEN TO AID IN FINANCING
PREP SCHOOL
MEET

DRAMATIC PROCEEDS WANTED

Students Would Take Over Junior
Week-End Play—Financial Reports Accepted.

Two important steps toward financing the Annual Interscholastic Meet were taken by the Executive Committee this afternoon. Elizabeth Busch and Burleigh Cash were appointed by President Carlton Spencer to negotiate with the Dramatic Club toward turning over the play usually put on during the Junior Week-End by that organization to the Student Body, to be managed by the Executive Committee for the benefit of the meet, and Graduate Manager Arthur Geary was authorized to arrange a Grand Ball, also for the benefit of the meet.

Benefit Ball Public Affair.
This benefit ball is scheduled to come April 4, announced Geary this afternoon. "It will be open to Eugene and University society people alike, and will be a thoroughly formal function. On account of the size of the floor, it is not possible to entertain Eugene society people ordinarily. This ball, however, will be given as much in honor of them as of the University. It should be the most exclusive affair of the year."

USE COMMON SENSE SAYS J. D. THOMISON

Hood River Editor, in Journalism
Address, Sounds Warning Against Negligence.

"With a little common sense a man can do anything he sets his mind upon," said Joseph D. Thomison, a graduate of Stanford and now editor of the Hood River Glacier, in his address yesterday before the students in Journalism. "The newspaper is not an exception to this."

"One of the easiest things for a country editor to do is to become negligent. To make a successful newspaper man, he must take an active part in the town affairs, know the gossip and political situations. With the proper handling of these things he becomes a diplomat. It is not enough to have the minutes of a meeting, but you must be there and get the spirit. The interest of the people is proportionate to the interest evinced by the editor."

Mr. Thomison declared, "That a country paper is not a one man affair. It is not the medium for a man's own hobbies. You must act upon your own initiative, be your own boss, and write your own editorials. It is no bed of ease."

"There are three departments to the country paper," said Mr. Thomison, "the editorial, news and the advertising. When you write an editorial, know what you are talking about. Prevent your readers from getting angry with you; but if you have an opinion, don't veil it, but come out in the open. The world loves a fighter and your readers are a part of the world. Be sincere, look to the future and take a lead in civic affairs."

In the way of advice to the young journalists, Mr. Thomison warned against filling up the columns with plate matter, and against the use of hackneyed expressions. Local news breathes a spirit of optimism, he de-

DOUGHNUT BASEBALL SEASON OPENS SOON

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL
MAKES ARRANGEMENTS
FOR ALL SPRING
ATHLETICS

TRACK MEET TO BE STAGED

Baseball Will Begin Second or Third
Week of March, With Track Meet Later.

The annual inter-fraternity track meet will be staged early in April and the Doughnut League series of baseball will begin as soon as Captain Chandler has pulled off his inter-class games. Such was the action of the Inter-fraternity League in a meeting held yesterday afternoon. This means that inter-fraternity baseball will begin the second or third week of this month.

Colton Meek, Allyn Roberts, and Willard Shaver were appointed as a committee to confer with William Hayward and make all arrangements for the track meet. An early date for this event will undoubtedly be approved by Coach Hayward, as it will give him a line on his material and a possible chance of a "find" for the Varsity.

All men are eligible to enter this meet except those who have won the official "O" on track. Whether baseball men will be allowed to enter has not been decided.

Elmer Hall, Russel Calkins, and Raymond Giles form the committee

HAYWARD WILL MAKE TWO LECTURE TOURS

Eastern and Southern Oregon Are Divisions—Bill Declines Several Dates.

William Hayward will divide his state-wide High School lecture tour into two parts, according to his announcement made yesterday. He will leave for the Eastern Oregon leg of his journey sometime during the week commencing March 10.

Returning from this trip, Bill will attend to his coaching duties at the University until the April vacation, when he will again take to the lecture platform, this time making the towns in Southern Oregon. Several High Schools, especially in this district, have requested that Hayward give his lecture before their Student Body, but the lack of time and the long jumps, have forced Bill to decline many invitations.

The Eastern Oregon itinerary is as follows: Hood River, March 10; The Dalles, March 11; Pendleton, March 12; Athena, March 13; Baker, March 14; and Salem, March 17.

CHARLES FISHER, UNIVERSITY REGENT, RETIRES FROM GUARD

Charles H. Fisher, Regent of the University of Oregon, last night sold his interest in the Eugene Daily Guard, the evening paper, to his partner, E. J. Finneran. Mr. Finneran purchased a half interest in the paper two years ago, coming here from Kansas City. Mr. Fisher, who is interested in Eugene real estate, will retire from the newspaper business, for the time at least.

O.A.C. WILL SEND 125 ROOTERS TO CHEER AT BASKETBALL GAME

Yell Leader Blackman Working on Plan to Ship U. of O. Men to Corvallis Contest.

With a Zip Boom Bee, and with hopes to vanquish the Varsity five, one hundred and twenty-five O. A. C. students, approximately, will invade Eugene next Wednesday afternoon, accompanying their crack basketball team, which clashes with Hayward's five in two games.

Word to this effect was received yesterday by Manager Geary, who commenced worrying where he will put the Aggie crowd, as the present seating capacity of the Gym is taxed to its limit at each game.

Coincident with the Corvallis invasion, Abe Blackman has started a movement to emulate the efforts of the Aggies, and has announced plans, elsewhere on this page for a similar excursion with the same purpose.

EXCURSION PROBABLE FOR O.A.C. BALL GAME

BLACKMAN HOPES TO ARRANGE
SPECIAL ROOTERS' TRAIN

Crowd Can Leave Friday and Return
Any Time For One Way Fare of $1.65.

On to Corvallis next Friday evening, for the O. A. C. basketball game, is the cry of Yell Leader Abe Blackman, who has secured the promise of the Southern Pacific railroad to furnish a special train to leave Eugene Friday, in time to make connection at Albany for the Corvallis train, for the one way rate of $1.65.

In view of the fact that the Aggie aggregation will invade Eugene Wednesday and Thursday for the two tangles here, Blackman has adopted this plan to insure a respectable rooting bunch to aid the last two Conference games of the season with Coach Stewart's five.

Steps will immediately be taken to secure a crowd to make the trip. A canvass will be made Monday and Tuesday for the necessary coin to insure transportation. Blackman announces to those with the ambition to help Oregon win:

"Hand your money to me or to Dutch Young at once, and you will be saved a seat. Let's get behind this little movement, and make it a go."

As to the details of the trip, the railroad officials say that the tickets are good for a return any time before Monday, thus making it possible to see both games for the fare. Any regular return train can be taken, making it convenient for those planning to go to the Student Body dance in the Gym on Saturday evening.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

—Under the pretense of getting ads for the Washington Daily, Edward M. Keenan, a Senior, and a member of the Delta Chi fraternity, went to Tacoma yesterday and claimed as his bride Miss Nada Titus, of San Diego, Cal., heiress to a large fortune. Keenan will return to college to finish his course.

ALBANY, Ore.—J. Thorburn Ross, the convicted bank defaulter of Portland, will soon ask for a parole from the State penitentiary. The attorney who prosecuted him, has joined in the request. Ross was sentenced to five years in the state prison after the failure of the Title Trust and Guarantee Co., of Portland.

M'CLURE DEFEATED IN FAST CROSS COUNTRY

WINDNAGLE NOSES OUT VET-ERAN AT FINISH OF AN-NUAL INTERCLASS
RACE

NEW RECORD OF 15:15 MADE

Huggins Gets Third, With McConel,
Pack, and Fallen, Finishing Close Behind.

Vere Windnagle defeated Captain McClure in the annual inter-class cross country yesterday afternoon and set a new record of 15 minutes and 15 seconds for the three mile course. The former record was 15 minutes and 24 seconds. This is the second time this year that the Portland Freshman has nosed out McClure in the long run.

The Sophomores lead in points, scoring 21, to 19 for the Freshmen. The Seniors followed with 16, and the Juniors tallied 9 through their single representative, Chet Huggins. Since eleven men started the race, the first man to cross the tape earned 11 points for his class, the second ten and so on down the scale.

Yesterday McClure had Blackaby set a pace for him; says he did his best, and was defeated by two yards. The two ran side by side over the whole course, McClure leading. Windnagle stuck close at his heels until within a quarter of a mile of the finish, then in a terrific sprint passed him in a sensational finish before 200 spectators.

"I tried to lose him, but I could not," admitted McClure after the race. "I knew that he could out-sprint me, and I tried to get a lead on him. It will take a good man to beat that Windnagle. The one who does it, will have to get up early in the morning. He is one of the best men I have ever met."

Hayward was pleased with the result of the race. "Windnagle stands today one of the best distance men on the coast," declared the trainer. "The time was very good for this early in the season. It was so good, that I shall hold a second race within a month to see if they can do better."

McClure ran his race against Windnagle under a disadvantage. An injury received at the meet in San Francisco a week ago has prevented any training during the week, and he donned his spikes for this race for the first time since his return.

"I believe that I can defeat Windnagle, when I am in condition," declared McClure last evening.

Huggins finished an easy third, followed by McConel, Pack, Allen, Holt, Blackaby, Onthank, and Jaureguy.
