

DRAMATIC CLASS WILL GIVE PLAY TOMORROW

"Servant in the House" Production Ready With Change in Final Caste.

In spite of the fact that two of the most important members of the caste have changed places within the last week, every thing is ready for the production of Kennedy's "Servant in the House," Friday evening. A. F. Reddie, who had the part of Manson, a butler, and Carlton Spencer, as Mr. Robert Smith, a gentleman of necessary occupation, have traded parts and by a great deal of extra work are ready for the production.

The play, which is being given by the Public Speaking Department, is in five acts. The setting is an English country vicarage on an early spring morning. The same scenery and costumes being used throughout the play. There will only be about a minute intermission between the acts.

A part of the proceeds will be turned over to the Student Body treasury.

The cast is as follows:
 Jamie Ponsoby, makeshyfte D. D., the Lord Bishop of Lancashire ..... Alfred Skei
 The Reverend William Smythe, vicar ..... Alexander Martin
 Auntie, the vicar's wife .....
 ..... Hilda Brant
 Mary, their niece ..... Janet Young
 Mr. Robert Smith, a gentleman of necessary occupation .....
 ..... A. F. Reddie
 Rogers, a page boy ..... Walter Dimm
 Manson, a butler ..... Carlton Spencer

GRAD RECEIVES NOTICE

Ray, '08, Becoming Prominent as Prof. of Science in Illinois College.

Ward L. Ray, graduated from the University of Oregon with the class of '08, is receiving considerable notice as Professor of Chemistry and Physics at Williams and Vashti College, located at Aledo, Illinois, where he has built up his department since he accepted the position in 1911, into one of the best organized and systematic in the college.

Ray received his training in the best universities in the United States and Germany. After graduating from Oregon in '08 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Mining and Chemistry, he did post-graduate work at the University of Wisconsin, where he received his Master's Degree. The following year he spent in further pursuit of his studies at the University of Berlin, and in 1911, accepted his present position at William and Vashti.

A native of the state of Pennsylvania, he came to the Pacific Coast in 1904, and entered the University of Oregon in 1905. In the summer following his graduation from Wisconsin, he was married to Miss Thesie E. Smith, of Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, where he had previously attended the Waynesburg Academy. Ward is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, the American Chemical Society and Acacia, a Masonic fraternity. The Verduette, the bi-weekly publication of William and Vashti College has nothing but praise for Ray's work and predicts a bright future for him in this line of work.

OREGON U. GRADUATED FIRST JOURNALISM CLASS IN 1902

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN, Madison, Wis., March 1.—The first class in journalism graduated from an American university was the class of 1902 of the University of Oregon, composed of two students, E. M. Blythe and Charles Redmond.

Since that time the rapid development of the course has been remarkable. It is now taught in twenty-nine colleges and has an enrollment well up in the hundreds. Wisconsin alone has more than a hundred students in the course.

According to Mr. Blythe, the first class received instruction in ethics and ideals of journalism and also studied various subjects from texts.—Wisconsin Daily News.

UTAH DEBATE CHANGED

Postponed Until Middle of April—Co-ed Question Changed—Geary Seeks Former Utah Resident.

On account of conflicting dates with the Pacific Coast debates, the Oregon-Utah contest has been postponed until the middle of April. Manager Geary is desirous of interviewing former Utah residents, who will assist him to ascertain the names of capable men to act as judges in this debate at Salt Lake City.

The Co-ed debate question with the University of Washington has been altered to include Italians, Finns, the Slavonic, and Hellenic races. The question now reads, "Resolved, that new immigration, as defined by the National Immigration Commission, should be excluded from the United States."

Professor Reddie Visits St. Helens.

Professor Archibald F. Reddie gave his reading from Dickens, "A Tale of Two Cities," at a reception given by the teachers at St. Helens for the townspeople, Friday evening. Later in the evening, Professor Reddie gave a reading from Drummond's "French Canadian Life."
