

ADVANCE SALE GOOD

Seats for Amundsen Lecture, April First, Are Being Rapidly Reserved.

Taking the present Amundsen seat sale, now in progress at the Book Exchange and at Coe's Book Store, as a criterion, a record crowd will hear the discoverer of the South Pole deliver his illustrated lecture at the Christian Church, April 1.

Although the lecture is three weeks hence, many reservations are being made by the students and townspeople. Andrew Collier, treasurer of the Y. M. C. A., who is managing the lecture, has put on reserve a block of 400 seats to be sold for $1.50, and an equal number for 75 cents, the student rate. The general admission seats for the non-students are selling for $1.00.

Plans are being made by the local association of the Sons of Norway for a banquet to be given their countryman, the same evening as the lecture. This will be held in their hall, and will be open to the public.

SAINT PATRICK'S DAY IS EUTAXIAN THEME

Saint Patrick's Day will be the theme of the regular Eutaxian Club meeting Tuesday evening in the Library building.

The Life of Saint Patrick will be discussed by Ruth Beach, while the Celebration of Saint Patrick's Day in Ireland will be discussed by Gretchen Sherwood. An Irish reading by Marjorie McCowan will conclude the program.

HELP WANTED
