

SPOKANE PLANNING ON OLYMPIC GAMES MEET

"Oregon Will Likely Send Team," Says Geary to Spokane Representative.

In an effort to vie with other Northwest cities, the Chamber of Commerce of Spokane, has proposed a plan to hold a Pacific Northwest Olympic Games Meet in Spokane from June 16 to 21. The business men of that city will soon decide on the feasibility of such a plan, and in all probability it will be accepted as a counter-attraction to the Rose Festival of Portland, the Monta Mare, of Tacoma, and the Golden Potlatch, of Seattle.

H. G. Smith, of the Traveler's Protective Association of Spokane, was in the city yesterday conferring with Manager Arthur M. Geary about sending a team from the University. Geary says, "College will be out in time for the meet and Oregon will likely send a number of its point winners to participate."

Ray Williams, who has been confined to his room during the last week, with mumps, is improving rapidly.

Will T. Neill spent Sunday and Monday visiting in Yoncolla, returning this morning.

Vassar authorities have put a ban on its girls attending moving picture shows. They consider the practice undignified and a waste of time.

FRATERNITY RACE ON FOR DOUGHNUT CUP

games is played, a new schedule will be drawn up for the semi-finals, for which series each team will be eligible that has won at least one game. Ed Shockley will officiate with the indicator at all of the games. The baseball committee of the Inter-Fraternity League will appoint an official scorekeeper.

Should either Sigma Nu, Kappa Sigma, or Phi Gamma Delta win the cup this year, the silver trophy will be their permanent possession, as each of these fraternities has been winner of the race in the past.

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA SCORES BIG SUCCESS

In her two solo numbers, "The Lass with the Delicate Air," and "Stolen Wings," Miss Cleveland displayed to the full her sweet and thrilling voice. Miss Cleveland is rapidly making a place in the hearts of Eugene music lovers by her faultless singing and charming address.

Mr. Gillette, while a stranger to a large number of his hearers, received an ovation at the conclusion of his rendition of four lyrics, "Of Thee I'm Thinking," "Come Into the Garden, Love," "Als die alte Mutter," and Verdi's "La Donna e Mobile," from "Rigoletto." He responded to an encore with "A Bowl of Roses."

Perhaps the most enthusiastic reception was that accorded Mr. South, violinist, for his interpretation of Vieuxtemps' "Ballads et Polonaise," for which he received repeated encores.

Much credit is accorded the University School of Music, the orchestra, and Miss Winifred Forbes, Director and Leader, for the success of the concert.

The personnel of the orchestra follows:

First Violins—Miss Lucile Abrams, Miss Marie Depew, Miss Mary DeBar, Miss Agnes Campbell, Miss Minnie Schwartzschild, Miss Irmalee Campbell.

Second Violins—Miss Meta Goldsmith, Miss Melba Williams, Mr. Charles Runyon, Mr. Charles Croner, Miss Florence Foster.

Cello—Mr. Harry Devereaux.
Double-bass—Mr. Leonard Gross.
Cornets—Mr. Chas. Cochran, Mr. Lloyd Bellman.
Clarinet—Mr. Frank Hamos.
Oboe—Mr. Milo Roach.
Piano—Miss Ruth Davis.
Flute—Mr. French Moore.
Timpam—Mr. Bert Ruth.
