work with the University squad during his three years in college.

The judges for the Washington debate have not been chosen yet, but several good men are being considered.

Dance Given Up.

The plan of Manager Geary, to have a debate dance, has been discarded, partly because of the lateness of the hour of beginning the dance, but mainly because of the Student Body dance to be held the week following.

Some very good music is promised before and during the debate.

Following is the record of the past thirteen Oregon-Washington debates:

- 1900—Won by Washington.
- 1901—Won by Oregon.
- 1902—Won by Washington.
- 1903—Won by Washington.
- 1904—Won by Washington.
- 1905—Won by Oregon.
- 1906—Won by Oregon.
- 1907—Won by Washington.
- 1908—Won by Oregon.
- 1909—Won by Washington.
- 1910—Won by Oregon.
- 1911—Won by Oregon.
- 1912—Won by Washington.

This gives Washington a total of seven and Oregon six out of the thirteen contests.

JUNIOR CIVILS PLAN SUMMER CAMP LAB.

with afternoon laboratory periods the men will be able to register in many classes of which they are at present deprived. This training would come at the end of the Junior year, which also means that the students would be better fitted for it.

The question of finances declared Professor McClain is the only handicap at present, but he hopes that this may be properly arranged soon.

The Junior Civil Engineering Class this year numbers twenty-four. As yet no place of camping has been definitely decided on.

scalps. While this is the first time that they have gone on the warpath against Oregon, yet an Indian team, once given the start in a game are hard to head off. The lineups of the two tribes has not been given out as yet. The dope-sheet, however, reads that either Welch or Tuerck will be on the firing line for Oregon, while Motschenbacher will no doubt be first called on to do the receiving. It is intended that every one will be given an opportunity to battle with the redskins, so the fans will get a chance to get a line on the whole squad.

Infield Stations Are Filled.

The infield question has nearly been settled, with either Fenton or Billings at first, "Buck" Bigbee and Cornell around the middle station, and "Dutch" Anunsen guarding the key-stone sack. These men are all fast.

and give promise of showing up in the hitting end of the game. The outer gardens will be cared for by Captain Chandler and Mount, with possibly Kirk as an assistant. Substitutes for all the positions will be pushed into the game often enough to require a moving-picture man for a score-keeper. The battle will be called at 3 o'clock.

league of Oregon municipalities is contemplated as one of the outcomes of this conference.

Plan Aid for Oregon Women.

Another session of the Conference will be given to papers and discussions bearing upon the means through which the University may aid in the preparation of Oregon women for the best service in civic betterment.

Delegations from the different civic leagues for Women throughout the state will be present. The leading spirits of the Federation of Women's Clubs and other organizations have already recognized the possibilities for service in its aid to women, and they have shown their appreciation. Special attention will be given to the phases connected with departments of public safety for women and children in Oregon cities; and the institutional development for the activities connected with efforts for race improvement.

An evening session of the Conference will be devoted to lectures on "Home Planning" and "City Planning."

RUMOR OF HAYWARD'S RESIGNATION DENIED

terday, "nor I do not intend to, so far as I know now. Of course, I do not intend to stay here all my life, but I will not leave Oregon until I find something much better. These reports are mere rumors, just like that newspaper story a few days ago that I was considering a place at the University of Washington. That was all untrue."

Hayward has been athletic trainer here for eight years, coming here from the University of California, where he was assistant trainer.
