BOVARD WILL GO ON WEEK'S LECTURE TOUR

Will Address Seven Schools Under Auspices of Game Commission on Birds.

During the Easter vacation Prof. J. F. Bovard will leave Eugene for a week's trip through Eastern Oregon, where he will deliver a series of lectures at seven different high schools on the "Value of Song Birds." The schools he intends to visit are Pendleton, Huntington, Baker City, Union, La Grande, Enterprise, and Joseph. This trip is under the auspices of the Oregon Fish and Game Commission, which will pay his expenses. Master Game Warden Finley, of Portland, has outlined an educational plan whereby he seeks to interest the people of the state in song and game birds.

Prof. Bovard will lecture mainly to the children this trip. "My idea," he said, "is to arouse their interest in the song birds,—by doing this they may help in a great many ways. It will mean less destruction of nests and eggs. If a child can be educated to see the value of birds, he will leave them alone and become able to appreciate them." Some time later in the year, Prof. Bovard intends to make another visit over the same route with another series of lectures on "Game Birds of Oregon." All of his talks are illustrated with lantern slides which he has prepared.

This winter Prof. Bovard made numerous short week-end trips through the Willamette Valley to interest the people in the birds of the state and their commercial value to the commonwealth.

"A Strenuous Life."

PROF. JOHNSON PASSES THROUGH ON SHASTA

J. LeRoy Johnson, instructor in public speaking, and debate coach at the University last year, passed through Eugene recently on the Shasta Limited, on his way from Berkeley, California, to Seattle. Mr. Johnson is attending the University of California Law School this year. He came to Eugene last year from the University of Wisconsin, where he was graduated in 1911.

Dr. Koehler and Mr. Kempthorn were at the depot to exchange greetings with Mr. Johnson, during the few minutes the train stopped in Eugene.

LUCILE ABRAMS

Playing Ruth Thornton, a college girl, in "A Strenuous Life."

Melvin Morton, '15, is ill with an attack of the mumps.

DECIMAL GRADES GIVEN IN CONTEMPORARY LITERATURE

Grades ranging from 79.2 to 14.52 were meted out by Professor H. C. Howe to his Contemporary Literature class of 67 members Thursday morning, as the average standing for the book, "Peer Gynt," just finished.

Young ladies of the class stood both at the top and bottom of the list. The five grades above 75 went to them, and also the lowest, 14.5, went to a young lady.

However, Professor Howe cheered some of them up by saying that the department was grading a great deal stricter than last year, and that an addition of ten or fifteen points would show the grade they would have received last year.

Decimal grading has been a feature of the department's system this year, and nearly every grade given out has attached the decimal, ranging from one to nine tenths.

RUMOR SAYS "PAT" McARTHUR MAY RUN FOR CONGRESS

It is rumored about Portland that Clifton N. McArthur, '01, now a prominent Portland lawyer, will run against Representative Lafferty at the next Congressional election for Representative from Oregon. Mr. McArthur has been prominent in politics since he left the University, being elected to the House in the State Legislature in 1910, and Secretary to Governor Benson in 1911. He was speaker of the House in the Legislature just adjourned. He has also been boosted for Governor to succeed Governor Oswald West.

"Pat" McArthur, as he was known while here, was prominent in student activities at the University, and there are still many references to the good old days "of Pat McArthur," when he was leader among the students.

O. A. C. JUNIOR WEEK-END IS NOW BEING CELEBRATED

Elaborate plans were made by the Junior class at the Oregon Agricultural College for the Junior Week-End event celebrated here Friday and Saturday.

Friday night the class gave an informal dance to the Freshman class in the college gymnasium. Saturday morning the inter-class track meet took place on the athletic field and the afternoon was given over to the Alumni baseball game. This evening the Junior Prom is being held.

During the past two weeks many invitations to attend the festivities have been received by Oregon students.

JUNIOR WEEK-END PLAY IS DRAMATIC CLUB'S PROBLEM

A meeting of the play committee of the Dramatic Club was held in Deady Hall Tuesday afternoon. The choosing of a play for Junior week-end was under consideration, but nothing was definitely decided, though a number of plays were discussed.

It is the committee's aim, if possible, to select a production dealing with college life and characters as we know them.

Tuesday Lectures by Professor Dunn.

The following is the list of subjects of illustrated lectures, Tuesday afternoons, by Professor Dunn, in Deady Hall. The talks are open to all: Ovid's Metamorphoses Illustrated, Alexander of Macedon, Hera the Proud, The Pyramids, The Art of the Vatican, The Temples of the Nile, The Julian-Claudian Royal Family, The Four Virgin Martyrs, The Myth of Demeter, The Seven Wonders of the World, The Resurrection of Pompeii, Amazons and Centaurs.

What Studies are to You Students Our Footwear is to Your Appearance and we have a colored gentleman who guarantees to give you a regulation "shine"

Just as you are students in the different courses the college offers—

We are students that have graduated into "Post-Graduates" of Footwear.

We recognize what your fellows want—and we have it here waiting for you. You know that unless your footwear looks RIGHT, everything else is out of kilter. So we have put ourselves in the position to supply you with the latest in style in footwear—the kind of shoes you know you want and the kind you ultimately demand.

Incidentally—we have installed a shining parlor with a colored gentleman in charge, who knows just the exact shine that goes at the college.

We suggest you come here and get the "College Shine."
