Social activity for the past week has been of a scattered, varied nature, and as a whole very informal. The debate between Oregon and Washington, which occurred Friday evening, cut that evening from the social calendar, while Saturday evening was set aside for the Girls' Annual Indoor Track Meet which has been postponed until April 10.

The Dormitory Association, with Thad. Wentworth presiding, were hosts to the heads of the various houses of the University at a formal dinner at the Dormitory. College songs were sung and among other speeches, President Campbell spoke of the Cornell central plan of Accounting and Bookkeeping for fraternities in practice there. A committee was appointed to look into the advisability of this plan to meet the needs of conditions here at Oregon. After the dinner the guests danced in the Assembly room. Those present were, President and Mrs. Campbell, Professor and Mrs. John Straub, Mrs. A. E. FROLIC STUNTS FIXED

Committees Are Appointed to Supervise Annual April Co-ed Affair.

The president of the Women's Council, Miss Mae Norton, has announced her committee for the April Frolic to be held in the Gymnasium April 26. She says that the new stunts to be inaugurated at this time will be the best yet seen at the annual event.

Each sorority will put on an entertainment, none of which is to exceed five minutes.

The Frolic will be open to all women, but to make sure that all girls will be there, invitations are to be sent.

In search of new features the plan was suggested and enthusiastically carried that the Faculty women and House Mothers should provide stunts and places for them have been reserved on the program.

The committees on events are: Stunts, Eleanor McClain; refreshments, Zella Soultz; programs, Grace Hartley; and Faculty and House Mothers' stunts, Pearl Horner and Elizabeth Busch.

Those in charge of the events from the sororities and clubs are: Lois Parks, Delta Delta Delta; Hazel Barta and Minnie Poley, Lambda Rho; Bess Bach, Mu Phi Epsilon; Georgia Prather, Beth Rea; Lyle Steiwer, Gamma Phi Beta; Hazel Tooze, Chi Omega; Vera Moffat and Darrel Zimmerman, Oregon Club; and Amy Rothschild, Eutaxian Literary Society.

INDOOR MEET CANCELED

Hayward Feared Hard Gym Floor Might Hurt Men For Columbia Meet

The indoor track meet scheduled to take place in the Gymnasium this evening was called off by Bill Hayward after conferring with the men. He said, "The men are sore and stiff on account of the rain and cold weather, and I am afraid that if they run on the hard gymnasium floor tonight it would put them in bad shape for the Columbia meet. I asked the men what they thought about it, and they all seem to be afraid of running inside at this time."

On account of the weather, no date has been set for the tryouts before April 12th, but Bill will try the men out individually from time to time.

MRS. FLETCHER TO ENTERTAIN Y. M. AND Y. W. WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Fletcher, Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will entertain the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. cabinets at her home, 32 West Thirteenth street, Wednesday evening.

No definite plan of entertainment has been arranged, other than that it will be a lively little gathering for a good time.

DILL WRITES ABOUT JOURNALISM DEPT. FOR EASTERN PAPER

The March issue of The Publishers' Guide magazine contains an article by W. A. Dill, night editor of the Morning Register, on the Journalism Department of the University. It is a resume of the work done by the three classes in Journalism during the current school year, and the practical applications made by Professor E. W. Allen of the principles of the subject in his instruction. He also gives an account of the former demand for such a department and the beginning of the School of Journalism here.

The article gives special credit to the students in this department for their successful work in publishing the New Year's edition of the Morning Register; and speaks also of the Eugene Guard inviting the classes to duplicate this task with that paper.

At the close he summarizes the work taken up by each of the three divisions of the department, and gives a prospectus of the possibility of this branch of instruction and its value to the University.

"He's doing coarse work—work in my course, I mean." Bulreigh Cash in "A Strenuous Life."
