

CO-ED ATHLETES ELECT

Agnes McLaughlin, Vera Moffat, Agnes Stevenson, Agnes Ryder and Fay Ball are Captains

The Women's Athletic Association met Wednesday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, in the Women's Gymnasium, to elect the heads of the different sports in which the organization is interested. The following girls were chosen: Tennis, Agnes McLaughlin; Baseball, Vera Moffat; Canoeing, Agnes Stevenson; Golf, Agnes Ryder; Archery, Fay Ball.

President Fay Ball wishes to announce that the constitution is at the Women's Gymnasium, where it may be signed by those who have attended former meetings and have not yet affixed their names to the constitution, or by women who have not attended any meetings so far but wish to become members of the organization. One week is the time allotted for this, and after that members will be received only after having made a certain number of points in the different sports.

situations in the way she has done in similar parts before.

Lucile Abrams, as Ruth Thornton, presents the typical college girl in a way which will satisfy any of them.

Burleigh Cash, as Professor Magee, Abe Blackman, as Dawby, and Ann McMicken, as Mrs. MacGuire, add a great deal to the success of the play in their minor roles.

Complete rehearsals will be given Thursday and Friday night. Seats will be on sale Friday morning at ten o'clock.

settled, with Kirk, Billings and Gorman all showing up as possibilities. Fenton at first, Anunsen married to the last station, with Cornell and "Buck" Bigbee caring for the central sack make up, what looks to be, a sure bet on the final lineup of the infield. The practice which these boys put up following the game last night must have brought a Grape-nut smile to their coach's face, for it was fast and full of the "pep" that wins games. Of course, Captain Chandler and Mount have their jobs in the outfield spiked to the mast, for their fielding and hitting make them the class of the Conference league.

Pitchers Having Close Race.

The pitching question is not so easily doped out, for five men, Tuerck, Welch, Street, Fleming, and Bigbee, are having a battle-royal to land as regulars. Hot weather and close games are necessary to give Mr. Ayer an opportunity to test out the respective worth of these hurlers. One thing we can be sure of. The three men whom it will probably be necessary to take on as regulars, should be able to give a good account of themselves, for all five of the recruits are of unusually big caliber for one college to claim. Friday's game with the Indians will give these boys a show to try out their slants and shoots, for it is intended to work them all. The game will be called at 3:30 and will be played on the campus diamond.

ORATORY CONTESTS MAY BE OUSTED THIS YEAR

Washington Won Last Year. The three-year contract comprising Montana, Washington, and Oregon, expired last year and probably will not be renewed. Two years ago Charles Robinson won this contest for Oregon, while Washington won last year. So far, Washington has held out from joining the proposed coalition with them for extemporaneous oratory.

One nice day about this time of the year would be worth a whole week of almanac clear weather predictions.

The guy that asked why the hen crossed the road, ought to ask why a young fellow in society pastes his hair down as if it had been licked by a cow and the young ladies wear theirs done up like a tangled skein of yarn.
