

SIX GAMES SCHEDULED ON NORTHERN CIRCUIT

Twelve Ball Players to Leave Saturday With Chandler Acting as Coach.

A squad of twelve men, making up the Varsity baseball team, will leave on their Easter vacation trip Saturday morning. Captain Ben Chandler will have charge of the trip, as Mr. Ayer will be unable to go with them. The first game will be that with the Willamette University at Salem, Saturday afternoon, after which the squad will go on into Portland, where they will spend the Sunday. The next jump is to Pullman to play the Washington Aggies, on Monday and Tuesday. There is a hole in the schedule for Wednesday, but Thursday and Friday's battle with the University of Washington will be hard enough that the rest will be a welcome one. Leaving Seattle Friday night, the team will appear next day on Multnomah field, where they will contest the club team, the last game of the trip.

The composition of the squad has not as yet been given out, Mr. Ayer wishing the practice of these last two days to decide a couple of close contests for positions. It is probable that three pitchers and two catchers will be taken along, one of the pitchers to be used as a utility man. There will be only two games played that will count in the final reckoning for the championship of the Conference, those being the games with U. of W., as the sectional system has been adopted for this season. By this plan Oregon, Washington, and O. A. C. play for the supremacy in this division, W. S. C., Whitman, and Idaho scrapping it out for the Eastern section, the winners to meet in a series to be later arranged for.

HAYWARD PICKS TEAM FOR COLUMBIA MEET

this afternoon, Hayward announced his tentative team as follows: 50 yard dash, Kay, Kaiser, Boylen; 220 yard dash, same trio; quarter, two from Boylen, Hall, Windnagle, or Barbour; half mile, Windnagle, McClure, probably McConnell; mile, Huggins, McClure and probably Pack; broad jump, Parsons and one other to be chosen; pole vault, either Miller, McCornack or Watson; shot, Cook, Foster; high jump, Stuller; hurdles, not chosen; relay team, four from Kay, Ross, Burris, Fenton, Boylen and Kaiser.

Hayward said that he had no faith in the story that Philbrook and Johns would appear under the M. A. A. C. colors, and in regard to O. A. C., Bill said, "If they can't win that meet, there is something wrong."

PESTIFEROUS PARKISON

By a decisive ballot the electorate of Oregon voted against a union of the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural College. The legislature appropriated funds for erecting new buildings for both the University and the Agricultural College. With the decision of the people registered in favor of such appropriations, H. J. Parkison has invoked the referendum against the appropriation of $170,000 for new buildings for the University of Oregon, but will not to referend the larger appropriation for the Agricultural College.

It is said of Parkison that a few years ago he went to Eugene for the purpose of establishing unions in every branch of manufacture in the town. His reception was not a popular one, and he left the town in bitter anger, and announced that he would "get even" with Eugene and her citizens. He has resorted to admitted fraud and a prostitution of the referendum laws to accomplish his purpose.—Portland Spectator.
