ice cream cones, candy and dancing were enjoyed.

A committee of faculty women judged the stunts for originality, cleverness and presentation, and presented the cup to Kappa Alpha Theta, besides making honorable mention of several others who were adjudged close seconds.

O. A. C. Has Good Staff.
His pitching staff looks as big and formidable as Spencer's Butte, with the veteran Culver as a mainstay and McMillan and Moreland for support. McMillan is a left-hander and has been going like a run-away this Spring, having to his credit several nice games pitched against the professional team from Regina in the Canadian Twilight League. He or Culver will no doubt be Garrett's first call to face Oregon Friday, while Bigbee will take up the burden in opposition. Welch, who proved so effective against the O. A. C. last Spring, will no doubt work in the second game.

A big crowd is expected to turn out for these games, Manager Geary planning to stir up the towns-people by some sort of a new advertising stunt, for which he and "Oski-Kink" Blackwell are scheming. The price of admission will be thirty-five cents, four bits being assessed for reserved seats in the grandstand. The game on Friday will be called at 3:45, while that on Saturday has been set ahead to 3:00 o'clock. "Bud Anderson or "Jack" Johnson will officiate.

President Van Hise, of Wisconsin, has issued a warning to Wisconsin Sophomores that no hazing will be tolerated. He says, "There has been no suspension of the law against hazing and any Sophomore or Upper-classman who participates in it, does so at his own risk. The action of the faculty and regents for violations will probably be more drastic than ever."

Whitman College is predicting a jolt in Oregon's chances in the distances at the coming conference meet on May 31st. Barrett, one of their distance men, recently ran the three-mile handicap on the Ankeny track in 17:04.
