MORE GENERAL PARTICIPATION

The best inter-fraternity track meet ever held took place this morning. The finest of spirit prevailed; the events were closely contested, and in short, it was again demonstrated that the Inter-fraternity Athletic League is one of the most valuable institutions ever established at the University of Oregon.

However, there is an opportunity for improvement, and now is the time to begin planning ways and means of making next year's meet of even greater benefit to the students and the school. The principal aim in the organization of the league and in Hayward's offer of the cup was to provide athletic training to men below Varsity standard, who would not otherwise participate in athletics. So far the fraternities and clubs have relied to too great an extent upon men of Varsity calibre to make up their teams, and there has not been the number of undeveloped men out training that there should be. Much undiscovered material would be brought to light if greater numbers would turn out.

If the rule limiting teams to five members were repealed, conditions could be remedied somewhat. In addition to this, a greater interest and enthusiasm must be generated, which will cause the men to turn out in greater numbers.

Let us begin early to add to the good work the league is already doing and make it the greatest possible value to the greatest number of men.

THE GYM EXHIBITION

One of the most valuable additions to the University of recent years is the Women's Physical Education Department. During the past three years, under the skilled direction of Dr. Bertha Stuart, it has improved until it can now be said that the physical welfare of the women is as well looked after as is their mental welfare.

As an example of the work that is being done, last evening's gymnasium exhibition ranks as one of the most delightful entertainments that could be given. As a demonstration of art, skill and thorough preparation, it reflects the greatest of credit upon both instructors and participants.

Last night's was the first event of the kind to which men were ever admitted; and then only by special invitation. Many who opposed having men students among the spectators at all, now concede that exclusion has been unjustifiable. Oregon men are gentlemen always and there seems to be no reason for drawing a distinction not recognized in other Universities.

Considering the success of the Gym Exhibition last evening, it is to be hoped that next year the women of the University will see fit to make all such events open to the public.

SOCIETY

By Bess Lewis.

University Society is awakening once more to its former state of wide awake strenuousness after its Spring vacation nap. Several weddings of prominent Varsity graduates and former students have occurred during the past week, while engagements of others are being announced almost daily.

Gamma Nu entertained Saturday evening at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house with an elaborate dancing party. The house was beautifully decorated with lavender and pink flowers, following out the society's colors. The programs, which are done in water colors, also carry out this color scheme with their spray of lavender wisteria shading into pink. After the dancing, a dainty supper was served.

The guest list included the Misses Genevieve Cooper, Fairy Leach, Lois Parks, Cosby Gilstrap, Edith Clemens, Ruth Doris, Hazel Tooze, Lyle Steiwer, Florence Kendall, Helen Hamilton; Chester Huggins, Harry Miller, Robert Bradshaw, Claude Still, Vernon Motschenbacher, Howard Gray, Don Rice, Aaron Gould, Jessup Strang, Carl Grayson, Alva Grout, Hawley Bean, Dale Chessman, Lyman Rice, James Cellars, Paul Briedwell, Delbert Stanard, Wallace Caufield, Fen Waite. The Gamma Nu girls present were Misses Norma Dobie, Norma Graves, Flora Dunham, Catharine Carson, Florence Avery, Olga Poulson, Agnes McLaughlin, Ethel Tooze, Edith Still, Margaret Rankin, Bess Cowden.

Mrs. Roger Cuyler and Miss Pearl B. Bonisteel were patronesses.

Mrs. Charles A. Gray gave a party in the drawing room of the Osburn Hotel for the Chi Omega Seniors Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in serving and guessing games. Prizes for the games were awarded to Misses Nell Hemenway, Florence Bonnell, Lenora Hansen and Elizabeth Busch. A delightful luncheon was served in the tea room, with clever, little and-painted suitcases for place cards.

Those present were Misses Cecil Miller, Nell Hemenway, Lenora Hansen, Nell Murphy, Florence Bonnell, Lucille Davis, Esther Maegley, Sibyl Brown, Elizabeth Busch, Julia Burgess, Messrs. Frank Jenkins, T. E. Snodgrass, Robert Benham, Dean Hayes, S. Dunn, S. H. Friendly, S. Jessup, C. A. Gray, R. H. Dearborn, and Mrs. Benham, Sr., Mrs. Hardy, and Mrs. W. F. Osburn.

"SAP" LATOURETTE, '12

Who Was Married Wednesday to Miss Ruth Steiwer.

Mrs. A. R. Sweetser and Mrs. J. F. Bovard entertained Saturday afternoon and evening at the Shack. In the afternoon about thirty University girls and town ladies were entertained at an informal needle work party. The decorations, hand-painted programs and selection of music, all carried out the Springtime effect. The program rendered was: "Spring Has Come," Miss Cleone Carrol. Carissima, Miss Leola Ball. Love Song (violin), Miss Mary De Bar.

Spring Song, Marie Churchill. Suite Pink Rose, Miss Myrtle Gram.

A wedding of interest to University people took place, Wednesday evening, in Oregon City, when Earl C. "Sap" Latourette was married to Miss Ruth Elizabeth Steiwer of that city. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Steiwer, and four bridesmaids, Miss Sue Steiwer, Miss Helen Krausse, Miss Edith Sheehy, and Miss Jess Beckwith. John Latourette was best man, the ushers were Jack Hickson, Fen Waite, William Heusner, and Chester Moores.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Latourette will reside in Oregon City, where the bridegroom is practicing law.

The engagement of Miss Susan Steiwer to William Lester Reinhart was announced at the wedding-supper following the Steiwer-Latourette wedding. Mr. Reinhart is a former University student and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, and while in college, was prominent in athletics.

The many friends of "Fatima" will doubtless be delighted to hear of his safe return home after a few days sojourn in the city pound.

Another wedding of interest occurred in Salem, Wednesday, when Joe Rothchild, ex-'13, and Marguerite Eager, ex-'13, were married at Miss Eager's home.

Mrs. Charles S. Early, of Hood River, was a dinner guest of Eva Brock at the Gamma Phi Beta house last Sunday.

Miss Madge Barry, of Marshfield is a guest at the Kappa Alpha Theta house for over Junior Week-End.

Mrs. Kenneth Norris, of Portland, is a guest of Esther Maegley at the Chi Omega house this week-end.
