

ADVERTISING ALONE HOLDS UP OREGANA

416 Page Book to be Published Soon—
Will Have Numerous Good Features.

The 1914 Oregana has been partially printed and according to Editor Rice, will be out as soon as sufficient advertising has been secured to finish the advertisement section.

The new book is dedicated to Professor John F. Bovard, whose picture appears in a photograph, the first such page to appear in an Oregana.

There are 416 pages in the book, many of which are taken up entirely with snap shots of college life. The three color plates, of which there are ten, are devoted to the four classes, athletics, and the Law Department. Another feature is a two page section devoted to individual pictures of the football men done in two colors.

Except for the advertising section, all the pages are lined with a light green border, which harmonizes artistically with the brown print of the paper.

In the athletic section one page is made up of snap shots of Oregon's representatives, McClure and Hawkins at the 1912 Olympic meet in Sweden last summer.

The feature department contains some startling revelations, and is made up in the form of a fake Emerald.

Two books have already been bound and are now being used in securing the additional advertising, which is needed.

REED WINS DORM GAME

Strikes out 16 Sigma Chi Batters and Allowed but One Hit.

In a game which was all "Reed" from gun to tape, the Dorm bested the Sigma Chi team last night, 6-5. Ken Reed was on the mound for the Dorm and, in addition to striking out 16 men, only allowed the boys of Captain Sims' club one little measly hit, that being the proud trophy of Daniel Boone. "Gin" Roberts, Sims, and Bryant, all took a crack at the pitching game during the seven innings. The feature was furnished the supperless fans when three Sigma Chis stole home in the seventh.

PROF. AXSON VOTED MOST POPULAR PRINCETON MAN

Prof. Stockton Axson, who will lecture in the University of Oregon Summer School on English Literature, was recently voted the most popular man at Princeton in a contest in which all the students voted. Prof. Axson is a brother-in-law of President Wilson.

Among other results of the voting by the students, the Bible was given the preference as the best book and Mary Pickford received the most votes as the best actress, winning over Maude Adams by a margin of two votes.

After Princeton, Yale was judged the most popular college. In a vote on the best show, the "movies" won by a large majority.

UNIVERSITY TO ENTER EIGHT MEN IN SPOKANE MEET

If Oregon enters a team, there promises to be some spirited contests, as O. A. C. has already entered several men, including John Baker, who negotiated the century in 10 seconds flat in the four cornered meet in Corvallis, Saturday.

FIVE MEN PICKED FOR VARSITY TENNIS SQUAD

Tournaments With Washington Come
Friday Afternoon and Saturday Morning.

On account of the bad weather conditions which have prevailed during the last few weeks, the tennis try-outs to pick a varsity team, to represent Oregon in the coming Junior Week-End tournaments with the University of Washington, have been indefinitely postponed. In order that there may be a team for the coming games, Bert Prescott and Captain Irwin Brooks have chosen five men, whom they consider the most likely candidates, to compose the varsity tennis squad. These men will play a round robin tournament to pick the three players for the team. Robert Fariss, Louis Bond, Howard Gray, Herman Oberteuffer, and Irwin Brooks are the five men given places on the squad. Thus far but three matches have been played. Gray defeated Bond, 6-3, 6-2; Oberteuffer defeated Bond, 3-6, 8-6, 6-2; and Oberteuffer defeated Gray, 6-4, 6-3.

The tournaments with the University of Washington will be held on the cement tennis court, Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. It is planned to play five matches; three sets of singles and two sets of doubles. Each member of the team will play a set of singles, while the best man will play in both sets of doubles, with the other two players alternating.

WASHINGTON TEAM TO ARRIVE THIS EVENING

Patten is Out of Game.
Washington will appear here minus the services of her star slugger, Jack Patten, he of football fame, who successfully occupies the role of cleanup hitter on this year's team. Patten, in addition to being a participant in these two branches of sport, is enrolled in the ranks of the track-team where he juggles the weights, and as every available piece of track material at Washington is grabbed onto with a vengeance, Patten has had to give up baseball for the other sport. His absence from the lineup will considerably weaken Washington's chances.

Oregon will present the same front in this series as before, unless Mr. Ayer makes Reed's substitution for Motschenbacher at the receiving end a permanent one. "Motsey" showed a fatal tendency in the games last week to allow passed balls, this being the reason for the change. Both will probably get a chance to work.

The choice of pitchers has not been given out, each team keeping this a coaching secret. Johnson will probably work for Washington, however, and Welch or Bigbee for Oregon for the first game.

The time set for both games is 3:45. The lineups:
Oregon—Cornell, ss.; Chandler, lf.; Fenton, 1b.; Bigbee, 2b.; Anunsen, 3b.; Billings, rf.; Mount, cf.; Bigbee or Welch, p.; Reed or Motschenbacher, c.

Washington—Fitzgerald, 2b.; Graham, ss.; Wells, cf.; Wegener, 1b.; Durham, 3b.; Ziller, rf.; Thompson, lf.; Johnson or Boatman, p.; Kerry or Byler, c.

ALUMNAE URGED TO SUPPORT ASSOCIATION

Scholarship Fund is Needing the Attention of Graduate Women.

In June, 1907, during Commencement Week at the University of Oregon, there was called a meeting of the graduate women of that institution, to talk over the advisability of forming an association for furthering the cause of education among the women of Oregon. After discussion, a committee on constitution and by-laws was appointed. Their report was made one year later, and, upon its adoption, the State Association of Oregon Alumnae was organized.

"The object of this organization," as stated in the constitution, "shall be to unite the Alumnae of the University of Oregon for the good of their Alma Mater, throughout the state; and for practical educational work." This was afterward amended to read thus: (a) "The ultimate object of this Association is for membership in the National Association. (b) The special object of this Association is for establishing the Mary Spiller Scholarship."

We can not attain the ultimate object, only indirectly as we work for our University, so that it may meet the requirements to place it on the eligible list.

The establishment of the Mary Spiller Scholarship has been the particular purpose toward which the energy of the Association has been directed since its organization. This scholarship was named in honor of the first woman to become a member of the faculty of the Oregon State University. It consists in the payment of board and room rent at Mary Spiller Hall for one year; and any girl who is a graduate of an accredited High School of Oregon, is eligible to it. However, in making the award, due consideration of the applicants, both as to scholarship and character, is taken.

It was not until June, 1912, that there were funds sufficient for the scholarship, in the Association treasury. It was decided to grant it for the following year, for the first time, and it was awarded to a young woman who has made a most satisfactory record for excellent and conscientious work. The members of the organization are very desirous that the award may be made every year. The fund is raised by the payment of dues which, for each member, are one dollar annually. Numerous personal letters have been sent out, during this year, to graduate women outside of Eugene, who are not members, explaining the work of the Association and asking them to join and help make it possible to give the scholarship next year. Some have responded most heartily by remitting their dues and assuring us of their interest. But from others there has been no reply (we think it can not be from lack of interest in so worthy a cause, but they have just neglected the matter). We make this appeal to them again, and also ask every Alumnae who has not received a personal letter, to please consider this a personal appeal, and send in their name and dues and become members with us. We need the help and influence of every graduate woman of the University, though we may not have reached you by letter because of changed, or incorrect addresses. Send your name and dues to the Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Mary McCornack, 715 Lincoln street, Eugene, Oregon, and your receipt will be duly forwarded to you.

If our alumnae could read the earnest letters that have been received from bright young women who are anxious to come to college and are inquiring about the scholarship which we are giving, we believe that they would realize how important it is and would consider it a privilege to help with it. Perhaps few of our number are able to give the whole amount of a scholarship, but on the other hand, there are few, perhaps not any graduate women of Oregon, but that can afford to pay their dues into the Association each year and so make it possible for some worthy young women to pursue her education at the University.

We say again, that we hope every alumnae will consider this a personal matter and, if not already a member, or if a member, but your dues are not paid, please send in your name as directed without delay, for the fund should be raised by June, so that the award may be made for next year.

We wish to thank the management of the Emerald for so kindly giving us space for this communication.

Myra Norris Johnson,
President of the State Alumnae Association.
