

FIVE HUNDRED GUESTS
COMING TO UNIVERSITY

worried Senior, yesterday. The High Schools guests are expected to arrive Thursday evening and Friday. As the one and a third round trip fare, based upon the certificate plan, lasts only through Sunday, there will be an ebbing of the tide that afternoon.

The tennis team and track teams of the University of Washington will be co-incident guests at the University Friday afternoon, and Saturday morning. The tennis matches will be played on the cement court beside the Library. A charge of ten cents will be made to onlookers to provide balls for the players.

Superior in importance to all events of the week will be the dual combat with Dr. Hall's team from Seattle on Kincaid field, Friday afternoon, starting at 2:30 p. m. Many of the stores and business houses have already signified their intention of closing shop for a couple of hours and giving way to the meet. Last year, at the dual meet with O. A. C., held during Junior Week-End, over $800 was taken in by the management. This is considered a fair criterion of what may be expected in the way of a crowd next Friday.

Canvass to Close Stores.

Under the chairmanship of Alfred Collier, a careful canvass is being made of the University and town in search of rooms in which to house the High School visitors. An appeal is being made to the townsmen to aid in this regard and is being met with a response equal to that of last year. Fendal Waite and a committee are visiting all the business men of the town, asking their co-operation in the festal week and leaving little red and white signs behind hanging to the doors, reading, "This place will be closed, from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, Friday, on account of the Washington Track Meet."

Ed Bailey, chairman of the work committee, is enquiring carefully into the records of the students with the view of placing them on the job, Friday morning, for which they are especially adapted. "White hands will be blistered," he said, "if I have my way. We have a large amount of work outlined that will keep us hustling to finish in time for 'eats' at noon. Anne McMicken, chairman of the 'Eats' committee, promises a full dinner pail for each of the toilers and guests.

Committee to Meet Trains.

Ernest Lamb, as chairman of the Reception Committee, has charge of meeting all trains and seeing that the visitors are properly escorted to their lodging places and made to feel at home while here.

Saturday night, at the same time that the Junior Prom is going on, a rally will be held in Villard Hall in honor of the visitors who do not care to dance. All students of the University and of the Eugene High School as well, are invited to attend. There will be cider to drink and speeches by Bill Hayward, Carleton Spencer, Andrew Collier, and other notable characters. A couple of boxing and wrestling bouts will also be scheduled.

Student Body tickets will admit to all of the athletic activities but the Inter-scholastic track meet. Tickets for the general public will be on sale, beginning Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, at Linn's drug store, the Y. M. C. A. book exchange, and Obak's cigar store. There will be individual tickets to the track meet, general admission 75 cents, and with grandstand accommodations, one dollar, and week-end tickets, which will sell at two dollars apiece and will include the baseball games and the tennis matches. Student Body tickets will be honored by reservations in the grandstand at the Y. M. C. A. book exchange, and there only. Week-end tickets will admit to the grandstand and can be marked with reservation numbers at any of the places where tickets are on sale.

An interesting innovation at the week-end exercises will be the state championship debate between North Bend and Springfield High Schools, Thursday night in Villard Hall.

Emerson Merrick has been appointed acting student manager of track, supplanting Walter Kimmel, who was forced to resign because of the pressure of his thesis research work.

Tom Word, '12, is deputy sheriff of Multnomah county.

GOLF TOURNAMENTS TO BEGIN TOMORROW

cap of two holes, the third class will receive a three-hole handicap, while the last class will have an advantage of four holes over the man playing at scratch. When players in class two, three or four, meet, they will subtract the difference between their handicap. Class three receiving one hole over class two, and class four two holes over class two, and an advantage of one hole over the player in the third division. The play will be for 18 holes, twice around the course.

Rule to be Followed Closely.

Strict golf rules will be followed in all the matches. Moving the ball when on the putting green, lifting out of ruts, and the other numerous offenses of the amateur golfer, will not be tolerated in the tournaments. It is also the plan of the club to follow the schedule, and those not playing their matches and recording the results on the bulletin board in the library, before the time limit for the preliminary round has expired, will forfeit their right to continue in the tournaments.

The drawings for the preliminary round of the handicap tournament, as announced by Kenneth Frazer, chairman of the ranking committee, are: Ayer and Wilhelm, Prescott and Waite, DeCou and Rolf, Terpening and Cecil, Dearborn and Holbrook, Still and McCormack, Kay and Tiffany, Smith and Strang, Frazer and Thatcher, Staggs and Bingham. Cellars drew a bye and will not play in the preliminary round.

Winner to Challenge Prescott.

The open tournament drawings are: Smith and Tiffany, Frazer and Dearborn, Staggs and Cellars, Ayer and Wilhelm, Terpening and Waite. De Cou drew the bye. The winner of this tournament will challenge Bert Prescott for the cup.

The handicaps as made up from the scores presented by the entries, follow: Class one, Wilhelm, Cellars, Tiffany, Dearborn, and Prescott; class two, Frazer, Ayer, DeCou, Smith, Rolf; class three, Waite, Still, Cecil, McCormack, Kay; class four, Bingham, Strang, Holbrook, Thatcher.

Lists will be posted in the library for the convenience of the players. All matches of the preliminary round must be played before Thursday, May 15.
