BOATMAN WINS FIRST GAME FOR VISITORS

hibition of some real pitching from then on. He had everything, strik- ing out eight men, allowing but one hit and keeping all of his pink passes for first sewed up in his pockets. Big Bill surely won for himself a place in the heart of the fans by his master- ful work.

Washington scored first in the initial round, when with two down and Welts on second, through a fielder's choice and a clean steal, Zilka tallied him with a single. Again in the second, Graham, first up, tripled and scored when Billings made a mess of Thompson's fly on the foul line. The other three runs came in in the fourth frame, Graham walking, Wegener hit- ting and Thompson drew a pass, fill- ing the bases. Bigbee struck out Boatman, but Byler stuck up a high one to Mount, Graham scoring on the throw in. Then Pete Durham singled to center, scoring both Wegener and Thompson. Zilka ended the agony by rolling to M. Bigbee, and Tuerck came to the rescue in the next inning with his air-tight pitching.

Lone Tally in Fifth.

Oregon's lone tally broke into the score-book in the fifth. With two down, Billings knocked a wee small pop-up over second, with which Fitz- gerald did the Anttee Kellerman act. Reed followed and drove one up for which Fitz fuddled horribly. With Tuerck up, Byler attempted to nip Reed too far from first, the throw go- ing into right field, Billings spiking the pan before the return.

Aside from the class shown by Tuerck and Boatman, the features of the game were contributed by Chand- ler and Welts in spearing running catches that were hard chances.

The game by innings:

First inning—Byler drew a pass on four straight balls, but was forced at second when Durham rolled to M. Bigbee. Welts flew to Cornell, who fumbled, but Chandler recovered the ball and forced Durham at second. Wells stole second. Jelka singled to centre, Welts scoring when Mount juggled. Jelka on second. Fitzgerald out, Fenton, unassisted. One hit, one run.

Cornell flew out to Fitzgerald. Mount struck out. Chandler succumbed to three wide ones. No hits, no runs.

Second inning—Graham tripled to left. Bigbee hit Wegmer, who immediately went to second, Graham scoring on the throw. Thompson hit to right, Wegmer going to third and Thompson to second. Bostrum struck out. Byler flew to Mount, who threw out Wegmer attempt- ing to score. One hit, one run.

Fenton struck out. Bigbee flew out to Fitzgerald. Annunen rolled out, Fitz- gerald to Zelka. No hits, no runs.

Third inning—Durham flew out to Mount. Welts out, Cornell to Fenton. Zelka walked. Fitzgerald out, Annunen to Fenton. Nice throw. No hits, no runs.

Billings out, Boatman to Zelka. Reed struck out, Byler dropping the ball and throwing him out to Zelka. L. Bigbee hit through second for one base. Cornell out, Durham to Zelka. One hit, no runs.

Fourth inning—Graham walked. Weg- mer hit to centre, advancing Graham to third and taking second when the ball bounced over Mount's head. Thompson walked, filling the bases. Boatman took the third strike. Byler flew to Mount, Graham scoring on throw, and Duam singled, scoring Wegmer and Thompson.

Welts out, M. Bigbee to Fenton. Two hits, three runs.

Mount drove a liner to Fitzgerald for the first out. Chandler struck out. Fen- ton fanned. No hits, no runs.

Fifth inning—Tuerck replaces Bigbee on the mound. Zelka whiffed. Fitzger- ald flew out to Chandler, who made a swell running catch. Graham flew to Annunen. No hits, no runs.

Bigbee out, Fitzgerald to Zelka. An- nunen out by strike-out route. Billings hit, Fitzgerald falling over the bag. Reed skied to Fitzgerald, who muffed. Byler threw wild to Zelka, Billings scoring and placing Reed on third. Tuerck out to Fitzgerald. One hit, one run.

Sixth inning—Wegmer whiffed. Thompson followed suit. Boatman made the third one in the inning for Tuerck's strike-out record. No hits, no runs.

Cornell skied to Durham. Mount out, Graham to Zelka. Chandler got an infield hit. Welts made a shoestring catch Seventh inning—Byler out, Fenton to Tuerck. Durham aviated to Fenton. Welts out, Cornell to Fenton.

Bigbee flied out to Thompson. An- nunen duplicated to Graham. Billings out to Welts.

Eighth inning—Zelka singled to left centre. Fitzgerald sacrificed Zelka to second. Graham struck out, Wegmer do- ing the same. One hit, no runs.

Reed fanned. Tuerck out, Boatman to Zelka. Cornell whiffed. No hits, no runs.

Ninth inning—Thompson flied out to Bigbee. Boatman took his fourth strike- out. Byler also fanned. No hits, no runs.

Mount flied out to Thompson. Chand- ler hit to centre for a single, and swiped second. Fenton sacrificed him to third, Graham getting the assist. Bigbee out, Graham to Zelka. One hit, no runs.

MISS THOMPSON TO TEACH WOMEN CANOE PADDLING

At the last meeting of the Women's Athletic Council the chairmen of the dif- ferent sports committees outlined their plans for the spring.

Miss Agnes Stevenson, who has charge of canoeing, has made arrangements with Paul Bond so that canoes may be rented by members of the council at 20 cents an hour. The canoes may be gotten on Monday and Wednesday from one to three, and on Tuesday and Thursday mornings any hour. Miss Thompson is willing to coach any member of the club during these hours in the correct way to paddle.

The list of members placed at Bond's boathouse includes only those who have paid their dues.
