

SPRING DECORATIONS PLANNED FOR PROM

List of Patrons Includes Governor West and Secretary of State Olcott.

The decorations for the Junior Prom Saturday evening will be simple and in keeping with Springtime. From a net hung from the brass railing of the balcony ferns and greens will be interwoven. Spring blossoms and branches of blooming shrubs and trees will be used throughout the hall. In the handball court the walls will be covered with rugs and blankets and as many seats as possible strewn about. Punch will be served in there as well as on the lawn, to eliminate the usual rush for refreshments. If the weather permits the lawn of the Gym will have rugs scattered about and seats placed among potted shrubs and small trees. Japanese lanterns will furnish the light. If the new order of alternating dances between the upper and lower classmen is used, the lawn and halls will be used for a promenade.

The grand march will commence at 8:30 with the Junior President, Delbert Stannard and Miss Hazel Rader leading. The orchestra will be augmented by several additional pieces and promises the best music possible.

The partons and patronesses for the Prom will be: Governor and Mrs. Oswald West, President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Hon. and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Hon. and Mrs. R. S. Bean, Dr. and Mrs. James H. Gilbert, Professor and Mrs. R. H. Dearborn and Miss Guppy.

The secretarship of the Student Body, which traditionally goes to the fair sex of the University, has four candidates, Ellice Shearer, Ruth Beach, Maud Mastick, and Norma Dobbie. The nomination of the candidates, however, was left to the masculine contingent, Abe Blackman, Allie Grout, Ed Bailey, and Bob Bradshaw, respectively, acting as champions for the nominees.

Four Out For Executive Committee.
For the Executive Committee, on which there are two positions to be filled, four nominations were placed, —Wallace Caulfield, by Pat Cecil; Willard Shaver, by Otto Heider; Everett Stuller, by Ed Bailey, and Dal King, by Dean Walker.

Five candidates for the three places on the Athletic Council appeared; Chester Huggins, nominated by Burleigh Cash; Carl Fenton, by Allyn Roberts; Bob Bradshaw, by Pat Cecil; Elmer Hall, by Paul Briedwell, and Joe Jones, by Morris Terpening.

Pat Cecil proved to be champion nominator, determining by numbers, as he placed three candidates for election. Ed Bailey came second with two.

A motion by Bailey at the beginning of the meeting, to allow alumni who have met the requirements under the new provision in the constitution which allows an Indian blanket to be given to athletes having won letters in one activity for three years, and trained out for four years, the same privilege at their own expense, was passed without a dissenting vote.
