

ORGANIZATION FORMED TO FIGHT REFERENDUM

Students Unite at Mr. Brookings' In-Stance, to Assist Educational League.

At a meeting of representatives from all the fraternities held at the Phi Gamma Delta house last Tuesday evening, an organization was formed at the instance of Eugene Brookings for the purpose of fighting the referendum on the University appropriation.

When here some time ago, Mr. Brookings, a Portland lawyer, addressed the Assembly, telling of the efforts now being made over the state to secure the legislature's appropriation and of the opposition being met with through the referendum petitions just lately filed.

For the purpose of better co-operation between the students and the friends of the University, Mr. Brookings suggested the forming of an organization on the campus to assist the outside efforts in securing the appropriation.

Carl Greyson was elected president and Henry Fowler, secretary of the organization. Membership is unlimited and may include any student. During the summer it is proposed that each student in his home town, direct, wherever possible, a publicity campaign for the University.

Also next fall, before the November election, there will be much work to be done.

Mary Spiller Hall entertained University and town women to a formal reception this afternoon. One hundred seventy-five invitations were issued. The house was decorated with pink roses and snowballs and was very attractive. In the receiving line were Mesdames P. L. Campbell, A. E. S. Stearns, Ellen Campbell, L. H. Johnson, and Misses Ruth Guppy and Minnie Holman. Lucille Marshall and Minnie Poley received the guests at the door. Jeannette Parks and Betsy Wooten, assisted by the other girls of the hall, served the ice.

Mrs. Arthur J. Collier gave a tea for the fraternity women at her home on Patterson street, Wednesday afternoon. The hall was prettily decorated with lupine, and California poppies, formed the dining room decorations. Little Grace Collier, assisted by Mrs. William Smith and Mrs. R. C. Clark, received. Mrs. N. D. Leonard served ice and Mrs. Ida A. Powell served coffee.

The woes of the society editor have begun to assert themselves. The week-end, except for picnics and canoeing parties, has been almost devoid of social affairs.

With final exams only a week away, people seem determined to get their share of fun before the last week of hard work.

Phi Gamma Delta house gave a picnic yesterday. Eighteen of the men and their friends went on a hayrack about ten miles up the Willamette river. The party started at 8:30 in the morning and returned last night. Mrs. Lenora Currier chaperoned the party.

Lloyd Christie and Floyd Dodge, of the California Chapter of Phi Delta Theta, were at the Phi Delta house here last night and left this morning for Portland. The two men left Berkeley a week ago yesterday and are touring the Northwest in a machine.

The Dormitory entertained Chi Omegas to dinner Wednesday. After dinner the party danced until 8:30.

Howard McCulloch, from Portland, is a guest at the Beta Theta Pi house over the week-end.

Kappa Alpha Theta underclassmen gave a picnic in Hendrick's Park Thursday evening.

Dr. E. S. Conklin was a dinner guest at the Beta Theta Pi house Thursday evening.

The Beth Reah girls climbed Spencer's Butte Friday, and ten of them are nursing bad cases of sun-burn and poison oak.

Alma Payton, '12, is a guest at the Beth Reah house until after Commencement.

Clark and William Burgard are spending the week-end in Portland.

Bess Lewis is spending the week-end in Cottage Grove.

hit .214 and have fielded .901. These are mighty good averages for a college team and show that to neither of these features of the team's performance can be attributed the loss of a championship.

The ranking of the Oregon players in hitting and fielding follows:

	At Bat.	Hits.	Pct.
Chandler	43	17	.398
Cornell	42	14	.333
Welch	14	4	.285
Fenton	41	11	.269
Billings	21	5	.238
L. Bigbee	28	6	.216
Motschenbacher	24	5	.209
Reed	11	2	.182
Anunsen	35	5	.143
Mount	42	6	.143
M. Bigbee	42	6	.143
Tuerch	7	0	.000

	Chances.	Errors.	Pct.
Chandler	17	1	.941
Tuerch	8	0	1.000
Fenton	110	2	.982
Motschenbacher	41	1	.976
Anunsen	23	1	.956
L. Bigbee	17	1	.941
Mount	31	2	.905
Billings	9	1	.889
M. Bigbee	46	5	.899
Reed	25	3	.885
Welch	15	2	.867
Cornell	41	14	.695

Looking forward to next year's team, there is a bright view. But two men are lost to the squad by graduation, Mount and Chandler. Of course, their loss will be keenly felt. Chandler has led the club in hitting for three years, and is acknowledged to be the fastest man on the paths that has played in the Conference during his time. His fighting pep and leadership this year have entitled him to a championship team. Mount, his side-kicker in the outfield, is a centerfielder of the first water. It's like dropping a ball into the Willamette to drive one in his direction. "Beany" has fallen down at the stick this year, but Oregon will have a hard time filling his shoes in his garden.

Infield to Be Intact.

The infield remains intact and is a "gooder." Fenton need have no worry in that direction, for with this galaxy and the pick of some prep material that has been drafted, he should be able to build up a front-yard that will be a big-leaguer. Add this to Welch and Company, if the Company can be reorganized and placed on a producing basis, and Oregon will be the aggregation that will have to be reckoned with in the struggle for the cheese-cloth.

Too much credit can not be given Mr. Ayer and Chandler for the scrappy fight that the team has put up this year. To begin with they had but a recruit collection to build around four vets, and inclement weather made this building a difficult task. They stuck by it, pounded in the fine points and worked like Trojans to counteract the rain jinx. It was remarkable the success that awarded their endeavors, for logically they should have had the championship after the running start that they got over the other colleges. One more pitcher and a break of fair luck would have done the work.

But that is past and gone and post-mortems are of no particular avail. We can but smile at the prospects for the year on deck and wish Carl Fenton a winner. Prosit!
