

MISS GUPPY IS Y. W. SPEAKER

TELLS OF "ASILOMAR," ESTATE OWNED BY THREE STATE ASSOCIATIONS

BUILDING TO COST $30,000

Women's Dean Suggests Exchange of Delegates Between Georhart and Asilomar for Next Summer.

"Asilomar" is the name of the new estate of 30 acres which the Y. W. C. A. of California, Nevada and Arizona now possess for a conference place," said Miss Guppy, Monday afternoon, in a talk before the Y. W. C. A. meeting. Miss Guppy was in California this summer and was present at the opening of "Asilomar" by the Y. W. C. A. conference on August 7.

"Asilomar," which is Spanish for "Retreat for Rest," is near Pacific Grove and not far from old Monterey. The 30 acres of land was given by the Pacific Land Co. of Pacific Grove, California. Mrs. Hearst, a regent of the University of California and a very good friend of the Y. W. C. A. there, has helped to raise $30,000 to use for buildings.

"In the center one sees a beautiful building of the mission type. This is the administration building. To the left of it is another quite large building in which meetings, other than those of the administration building, are held. To the right of the central building, on the way to the sea which lies in front of 'Asilomar,' are many tents. These serve as resting places for those people who need rest and recuperation and who find 'Asilomar' delightful.

Would Send Delegates. "The opening really lasted three days," continued Miss Guppy, "but there was one big day. The Pageant and noted speakers made that day important. The Pageant was written by Helen Thoburn, a former Stanford student and daughter of Prof. Thoburn there. She is now interested in Y. W. C. A. work in New York. This pageant represented Y. W. C. A. work in all parts of the world.

"It has occurred to me," concluded Miss Guppy, "what a nice thing it would be to send delegates from 'Asilomar' to 'Gearhart' and from 'Gearhart' to 'Asilomar' each year for the interchange of ideas would be so helpful. The Y. W. C. A. means spirit as well as doing, for if we have the spirit we will surely have the doing."

WERLEIN TAKES THE STUMP

University Buildings Declared to Be Crying Need After Investigation.

Following an investigation of building conditions at the University of Oregon, J. E. Werlein, of Portland, returned to the city yesterday with the announcement that he plans to take the stump in support of measures providing new buildings for the University, which are to be voted upon by the people at the special state election, November.

"I found," said Mr. Werlein yesterday, "that conditions are worse than portrayed. As the guest of students of the school I looked over the campus and found that the school is overcrowded. There has not been any new construction at the institution in six years and many needed repairs have been sadly overlooked. No more meritorious measures could be presented to the public than those providing for new buildings for the institution."

Mr. Werlein made the investigation at the suggestion of several clubs and fraternal orders which he represents.

In speaking of the Glee Club, Ralph L. Lyman, director, said: "The parts are all strong and if the girls continue to be as enthusiastic as they have been so far, I see no reason why this year's concert should not be a very strong one."

GRADY ENTERS VAUDEVILLE

Will Go on 16 Weeks' Tour of the Southern States.

Harold Grady, of La Grande, a junior at the University and a member of the Glee Club, has announced that he expects to leave for New York some time this week to enter the Keith & Proctor vaudeville circuit through the southern states for a 16 weeks' tour. At the end of this contract Mr. Grady will transfer to the Sullivan and Considine circuit for an additional 28 weeks' tour of the Pacific coast. This will consume 10 months' time, at the end of which Mr. Grady expects to enter the University of Michigan to take a course in law. Last winter two students of the University of Washington, Pete Burns and Armstrong visited Eugene, appearing at the Rex, with two other students of the school as a quartet. Grady will join these two and the trio will make the trip.

TOOZE GETS CABINET BERTH

Will Succeed Paul Davis as Head of Y. M. C. A. Extension Department

Lamar Tooze was elected to succeed Paul Davis as head of the Extension Department of the University Y. M. C. A., the fore part of the week. This is a cabinet position, and the new member assumed his duties at once, meeting with the cabinet in their weekly meeting this afternoon.

Professor A. E. Munier of the French department of Lake Forest College, resigned his position to buy a peanut wagon. The professor says that he can make more money selling peanuts than he can by teaching French.

NEW BUILDING READY FOR OCCUPANCY SOON

Parkison Hall Is Rebuilt After Fire of Two Weeks Ago

Like unto the Phoenix of old rising from its own ashes, Parkison Hall lifts its kingly dome from the ruin of its own conflagration, but surpassing in its architectural beauty, even the symmetrical grandeur of the structure originally planned by the builders.

Interior work on the new home of the extension department is almost finished according to the workmen who are at present putting on the final touches, and it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy by the end of next week.

The outside of the building has been so completed as to avoid any suspicion of ostentation, leaning rather to the severe Doric style. But within no pains have been spared to impress the students and professors who will frequent Parkison Hall after its completion.

Furniture has not yet arrived for the two office rooms and four class rooms which the building will contain, but it is stated that it will be entirely in harmony with the woodwork, which is being finished up so as to show off to advantage the native ligneous growths of the state.
