Gamma Phi Beta Leads in Num- John Black Reioins Club But ber of Letters Sent. Total Will Be Materially Increased Beyond Number Given.

That the women of the Universic are taking an active part in the canpaign against the referendum, no only in the work of sending out letters but by going to the polls and registering, is shown in a report issued by Miss Ruth Guppy, yeste The women living in the different sororities and clubs have sent out 1358 letters, and it is understood that the number will be materially that the number will be materially increased by the end of the week. Several of the house mothers have written from 10 to 20 letters each.
In speaking of the work being carried on by the women of the University, Miss Gúppy said: "The girls are working enthusiastically in this letter writing campaign and have shown a willingness to do shown a willingness to do anything that has been requested of them. All that has been requested of them. An the girls that can register have done so, and seem proud of the fact that they can vote in the coming election. most active in helping with this The list of clubs and the letters sent from each follow : Gamma Phi Beta Chi Omega
