

STUDENTS ARE ENTERTAINED

PORTLAND ORGANIZATIONS SHOW DELEGATES FROM OREGON GOOD TIME

UNIVERSITY IS ENDORSED

Newspaper Men, Manufacturers and Members of Portland Commercial Club Welcome Young Journalists.

Fourteen students from the Journalism classes with Professor Allen and Professor Dymont, made the trip to Portland to the Oregon State Editorial Association last Friday. While there they enjoyed the hospitality of the Portland Press Club, the Manufacturers Association and the Portland Commercial Club.

Arriving in Portland late Friday morning, the members of the Oregon party were taken to the Press Club dining hall where, with the other delegates they were served a luncheon of sea foods. The convention opened at 1:30 and talks by leading newspaper men of the state filled the afternoon. Friday evening the Editorial Association and the press club met for the purpose of stimulating interest in the erection of a monument for Homer Davenport. Here the widely known Silverton Band entertained the delegates.

Saturday at 8:30 a. m. a special train left the Union Depot for the various manufacturing points of interest down on the Peninsula. Tours of inspection were through the plants of the Portland Flouring Mills, the Portland Woolen Mills, the Union Meat Company and the Portland Union Stock Yards. Saturday noon found the delegates at the Portland Commercial Club for luncheon after which the last regular session of the convention was held. At 6:30 the Manufacturers Association entertained the delegates in the Green room with a "Made in Oregon" banquet.

Professor Allen said, in referring to the trip, "We had a 'corking' good time. Had I known how enjoyable a time would be tendered us, I would have urged more students to make the trip. The Association adopted resolutions endorsing heartily the University of Oregon and several spirited talks were made by the members expressing the success of the appropriation in the coming election."

PROF. REDDIE GIVES READING AT SALEM

Large Crowd Attends Recital of "Tale of Two Cities"

Prof. A. F. Reddie gave a reading from the "Tale of Two Cities" Friday at the new library auditorium at Salem. The management expected about fifty to attend but instead of this number, nearly two hundred, including many Willamette University students, attended and packed the building. All available seats were filled and many had to stand. Tuesday night he will give readings from "The Joy of Living," by Suderman in room 33, Deady Hall. He will lecture at the Library Auditorium at Portland on the 28th, 29th and 30th of October, where he will talk on the "Children of Shakespeare's Fancy," the Drama as a factor in education, and will give readings from Dickens.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lemon of Pratt, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clark, of Portland were guests at the Kappa Sigma house during the week-end.

MEDICAL ALUMNI ARE PLANNING CAMPAIGN

Will Co-Operate With Educational League to Uphold Appropriation

Portland, Ore., Oct. 17.—Alumni of the University of Oregon organized last night at a meeting in the Commercial Club to co-operate with the Oregon Citizens' Educational League in a campaign over Multnomah county to uphold the appropriation of the State University in the coming election.

A committee was appointed, empowered to appoint others to its membership, to make a systematic campaign of Portland enlisting the support of the voters for the university bills. Members of the alumni pledged themselves to work among the clubs and commercial and educational organizations of the city and county.

Efforts will be made to increase registration before the books close Saturday. The chief work will be among the women voters.

Headquarters of the alumni organization will be in the office of Rafferty & Veatch, 416 Fenton Building.

Members of the committee appointed last night by John C. Veatch, who presided, are: Harry Rafferty, Merwin Rankin, Lyle Brown, Martin Hawkins, Dean Goodman, Terry Beck, C. N. McArthur and Dr. Horace B. Fenton.

Allen Eaton, of Eugene, was present and addressed the alumni.

DEXTER CLUB WORKS HARD

Mary Spiller Girls Helping Out in University Campaign.

The Dexter Club of Mary Spiller Hall has worked enthusiastically for the University in the coming election. Miss Neufeldt has interested her friends in large business concerns in Portland. They have promised her their aid. Ethelyn Boydell has sent letters to friends in Eastern Oregon and has received satisfactory letters in return. Mrs. Bancroft, the House Mother at Mary Spiller, has sent 50 letters to Portland and her friend, Miss Kathryn Polifka of Wisconsin, is also working for University by distributing literature in the interest of the University.

Mr. Finch, director of the Educational department of the Y. M. C. A. in Portland, and President Campbell, were dinner guests on Sunday, at the Mens' Dormitory.

Mr. Geo. Shafer, passenger freight agent on the Wabash R. R. was a dinner guest on Sunday, at the Beta Theta Pi house.

ALLEN EATON OPTIMISTIC

ALUMNI AND STUDENT WORK BEING FRAUGHT WITH RESULTS

CONFUSION MUST BE AVOIDED

Friends of University Are Working Hard to Carry Marion County. Press of State Supports Appropriation.

"The interest in favor of the University Appropriations is gradually increasing at Salem and Portland," says Allen Eaton who has spent the last week at these two places, speaking on "Direct Legislation" and working for the appropriations. "At Salem the old graduates are very active, especially Chester Moores and Earl Kilpatrick. Ex-Mayor Rogers who represented the Governor on pledge day, and Senator Hal Patton are also hard at it. Various organizations are doing excellent work in stirring up interest and informing the people of the situation. The Commercial Club and the Cherrians are very active. In 1908 Marion county went 9000 against the appropriation but it is the hope of these men and organizations to split even the vote, if not return a majority favorable to the University. It is worthy to note that the registration in Marion county is the strongest in the state, so far."

Much Interest in Portland.
In Portland the interest is increasing even more rapidly, due largely to the letters which have been sent out by the students. The Oregon Educational League of which Eugene Brookings is President, and John Veatch is Secretary are working like Trojans in the matter of Publicity. Last week the members of the Alumni formed an organization for an intensive campaign in Portland. Harvey Rafferty was appointed at the head of a committee consisting of nine members. It is the ambition of this committee to secure 100 persons to agree to get 100 men apiece.

Fight Not Won.
In regard to the outlook Mr. Eaton says, "The fight is by no means won as any one who knows the real situation must admit, and it is not unlikely that the work done by the students and the people of Eugene may be responsible for the result. Many people say, 'the press is with us.' This is quite true, there being only four papers positively opposed to us. But it must be remembered that in 1908 only three papers were against us, yet the election was lost outside of Multnomah county by over 6000. Multnomah returned a majority of 9000 which we can hardly expect in this election, for the vote will be very light there. Hundreds if not thousands of votes will go against us by those who intend to support but who on account of the confusing wording of the ballot will vote 'No,' thinking that the vote is on the referendum, but the vote is on the measure and those who intend to support the University must vote 'Yes.' This fact cannot be over-emphasized."

Gaven Dyott and William Henner went to Portland Friday for a week-end visit.

John Bull and Jack Elliott of the Kappa Sigma house, are experiencing a slight sick spell.

Wallace Mount has returned to Olympia after a short visit at the Beta house.

OLCOTT IS FOR APPROPRIATION

SAYS OPPOSITION SHOWS INTEREST IN CAMPAIGN

MANY VOTERS ARE CONFUSED

Secretary Explains System of Voting as Identical With That of Legislature in Passing on a Vetoeed Measure.

In an interview with an Emerald reporter Saturday afternoon in Salem, Secretary of State Ben. W. Olcott expressed the desire that the University of Oregon would win in the election on November 4 and stated that he had no doubt but that the bills would carry. In speaking of the University referendum Mr. Olcott said:

"I have heard practically no comment for or against the University. This to my mind bodes well for the University as it shows lack of interest on the part of the opponents of the bill. I earnestly desire that the measure pass and that the University get what it deserves. If we attempt to have a state University I do not believe in stinting the school in the matter of appropriations."

"After being informed by Allen Eaton that the voters were confused as to whether they were voting on the measure or the referendum I have decided to give out a statement to the newspapers in an effort to render every possible assistance in my power to the University."

Voters Confuse Issues.
The statement issued by the Secretary of State's office is as follows:
Salem, Ore., Oct. 18, 1913

It has come to the notice of this office that a number of the voters of the state are not correctly advised as to the manner of voting upon the measures to be submitted to the people under referendum petitions at the ensuing special election, November 4, 1913. In order to correct any misunderstanding that may exist in the minds of any of the voters of the state when voting upon any measure, whether it be submitted by the Legislature, by referendum petition or under an initiative petition, if they are in favor of the same and wish to vote for it becoming a law they mark an "X" between the ballot number for such measure and the word "yes," as appears on the official ballot, and if they are opposed to such measure and wish to signify their disapproval thereof they mark an "X" between the ballot number of the measure and the word "no." To better illustrate the matter it might be added that the voter is voting directly upon the measure before him for his consideration and not on the question of sustaining the referendum petition. Voters must bear in mind solely that if they are in favor of any measure they vote "yes" and if opposed to it they vote "no." This same question has arisen prior to other elections and it is not unlikely that many have voted contrary to their desires by reason of their not knowing how to properly mark their ballots.

Same as Vetoeed Bills.
To further illustrate, when a vetoed measure is returned to the Legislature for its further consideration as to whether that body will pass the measure notwithstanding the veto of the Governor the question is so put and if the required number of members of each body vote affirmatively on such measure it becomes a law of the state. They do not vote "no" when opposed to sustaining the Governor's veto but they vote "yes" notwithstanding the Governor's veto, and so it is when the people vote upon laws which the referendum has been invoked.

14 ARE SUCCESSFUL IN DRAMATIC TRYOUTS

Eight Women and Sixteen Men Selected From Forty-Two Candidates for Club

Fourteen new members were elected to membership in the Dramatic Club from forty-two candidates. The choice was made yesterday by the judges after competitive tryouts.

Following are the new members: Martha Beer, Emma Wootton, Catharine Carson, Katherine Cogswell, Margaret Pratt, Myrl McCloskey, Constance Cartwright, Merle Sterns, C. A. Naylor, Martin Nelson, Harold Singley, Cleveland Simpkins, Ralph Ash, Milton Stoddard.

The judges were: Alfred Skel, president; Prof. A. F. Reddie, coach; Miss Mary Perkins, faculty representative; Francis Curtis, honorary member.

When interviewed in regards to the tryout Manager Walter Dimm said: "This is the best and largest tryout the Dramatic Club has ever had. The material was so exceptionally good this year that the judges had difficulty in selecting the names."

At the next meeting of the Club plans for a play will be discussed.

DEAN OF LAW SCHOOL TO ADDRESS ASSEMBLY

Judge Gantenbein Will Discuss Election Measures Before Students

Judge C. W. Gantenbein, Dean of the Oregon Law School, will be the Assembly speaker Wednesday. In his address, Judge Gantenbein will discuss all the bills which are to be voted upon next month, but he will more specifically explain the "Workman's Compensation Act" as a matter of particular interest to the greatest number of voters.

The Glee Club Quartet will assist on the program as will the University Choir, accompanied by the orchestra. The latter organization will be composed of the men's and women's glee clubs combined, and will soon become a regular assembly feature.

WOMEN TRY ATHLETICS

Much Interest Being Shown in Tennis, Golf and Archery

Much interest is being shown by the girls in their outdoor games. Although the rainy weather has interfered with their work somewhat, they are rapidly becoming proficient in the various activities. Tennis and archery seem to be the favorite sports, although canoeing, golf and hockey also have their devotees. Teams are being formed in each sport, and if the weather permits, contests will be held soon. Each member of the team is to be awarded her class numeral and the initial letter of the sport in which they were won. For the present these numerals will be awarded by the Women's Athletic Association, but it is hoped that it can soon be made a Student Body affair.

The application blanks for admission into the Women's Athletic Association are now ready and can be obtained at any time from Miss Thomson in the Women's Gymnasium, or from Miss Georgia Prather, president of the association.

Approved scholastic standing is necessary for freshmen girls to become members of the association.

Probably the best guide for the voter would be by asking himself the question "Am I in favor of this bill becoming a law?" If so he votes "yes." If he is not in favor of its becoming a law he should vote "no."

OREGON PLAYS IDAHO OCT. 25

GRIFFITH'S MEN RECKONED AS SERIOUS CONTENDERS FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

VARSIY'S POSITION CRITICAL

Parsons Out of Game With Bad Knee. Hayward Questions Eligibility of Johnson. Patton and May in Conference.

Next Saturday Oregon's football team meets that from the University of Idaho on Kincaid field, in Oregon's first conference game of the season. The Idaho team comes for its second big game, with a victory over W. S. C. already chalked in its favor. They beat the husky Washington "Aggies" in spite of their choice by many as Northwest champions, and without Johnson, Idaho's star end, who will possibly play against Oregon next Saturday.

Oregon has not yet played a team of anything like corresponding calibre, and, according to Northwest experts, is between one and two weeks behind in preparation. Though Idaho has never beaten an Oregon football team, Oregon had to be contented with a bare victory of 3-0 last year; and Oregon was also beaten by 19-2 by a W. S. C. team of less class than that trained by Bender and defeated by Idaho this year.

Parsons Out of Game.
Oregon's star halfback, Johnny Parsons, has been troubled for two weeks with a wrenched knee, and will probably be out of the game. If so, the team will have to depend a great deal on Carl Fenton's punting, at which game the big tackle promises to champion all Northwest conference contenders this year.

The Oregon-Idaho game comes simultaneously with that between the Oregon Agricultural College and the University of Washington at Seattle. In the event of another victory for Idaho, Oregon's position as Northwest champion contender will at once become critical. Games with O. A. C. and Washington, Nov. 8 and 15, respectively, finish Oregon's Conference schedule for 1913-14.

Players' Eligibility Questioned.
Oregon's athletic head, "Bill" Hayward, has now entered the Conference eligibility fight and will contest three men, Patton, of Washington; Johnson, of Idaho, and May, of O. A. C. Patton's offense will be late registration, as he has not yet returned from his trip to Japan with the U. of W. baseball team, and cannot, therefore, register within the 21-day limit after the opening of college.

Johnson is to be a target for all the colleges because he has played four years of intercollegiate football; three at Lawrence College and one at Idaho.

The same charge is laid to May of O. A. C., who played two years with Willamette before becoming a member of the "Aggie" team. His two years' service there fills out the four-year limit imposed by Conference ruling.

ALUMNA LIVES IN ALASKA

Mrs. Frank S. Barnes (Doris M. Plummer) arrived at Portland last Saturday night from Lake Bay, Alaska, 40 miles from Wrangel, where Mr. Barnes has charge of a string of canneries. Mrs. Barnes was accompanied by Frank Plummer Barnes, her young son. She was a member of the class of 1914 in the University of Oregon and was a member of the Chi Omega fraternity.
