

STATE EDITORS FAVOR 'VARSITY

RESOLUTIONS ARE PASSED
AT MEETING IN
PORTLAND

TO BOOST APPROPRIATION

Attempts to Cripple University by Means of Referendums Severely Criticized by Editorial Association.

The Oregon State Editorial Association, while in convention assembled October 17 and 18, at Portland, passed a resolution favoring the two University appropriations, which are now before the people of the state. The following resolution was adopted:

"The State Editorial Association wishes to go on record as heartily supporting the cause of higher education in every form. We believe that it is the duty of the press to support the campaign for the State University appropriations and we urge our members to repress any effort that may be made now or in the future to cripple the resources given by the state for the support of any institution for the higher education of youth."

University Filling Great Position.
"Our state institution is filling a great position in the state and we should give it our hearty support in the fight which is now being made to cripple it," said Dr. Henry Waldo Coe, and this expression voiced the sentiment of all.

Again Saturday evening at the close of the "Made in Oregon" banquet given by the Oregon Manufacturers' Association in honor of the Press Association, a motion was passed putting the Press Association and those present on record as in favor of the appropriations. The motion was introduced by Ex-Senator Miller, who spoke enthusiastically for it. "Much has been said about boosting manufacturing enterprises, the Interstate Bridge, the Panama anal and the San Francisco Exposition. Is not the educational advantages in Oregon just as important?
What display at the coming fair would be of more advantage than the fact that Oregon has good educational facilities? If the appropriation is turned down it would be heralded across the continent and prospective settlers would refrain from coming to Oregon."

Y. W. C. A. HEARS TALK

Mrs. H. S. Wilkins Speaks to Women at Bungalow Meeting.

"In a true mother's heart there is love, where there is love is God also and with God we have Jesus Christ who loved little children," said Mrs. H. S. Wilkins in her talk on the Mothers' Hearts to the Y. W.
C. A. girls yesterday afternoon at the Bungalow. Lucile Cogswell led the services. Marie Churchill sang
"God Remembers when the World Forgets."

OBAK INSTIGATES A CUSTOM

Obak is trying to start a custom among Oregon students, which is common at other colleges; at moderate cost to the students. For the retail price he will send in orders for briar pipes, on the bowl of which is the student's class numeral inside a black "O;" and will have the pipes on hand in three weeks from the date of sending in the order.

The first order will be mailed Thursday, October 23, and he states that all those wishing the pipes should turn in their names before that date, that they may be included in the first order.
