ANNUAL BABY PARTY TAKES PLACE TONIGHT

Judges Will Award Prize for the Best Looking Youngster

The annual Y. W. C. A. Baby party which occurs tonight, is the first social function given by the girls in their new bungalow. It is being looked forward to with much pleasure and interest by the University girls, particularly the Freshmen.

Following the custom, the Freshmen girls will appear as "infants in arms," the Sophomores as babies from one to four, the Juniors as "little girls," while the Senior girls will have the responsibility of being nurse maids to the children. There will be a baby contest for which judges will be appointed, and a prize awarded the prettiest baby. Games will be provided for the entertainment of the "little ones" and later, refreshments, consisting of stick candy and milk, for the infants, while candy and cider for the older children will be served.

HIGH SCHOOLS REGARD UNIVERSITY AS LEADER

Many Letters Received From "Prep" Institutions Asking Information About Athletics

"That the University is becoming more and more an acknowledged leader in the state for the right sort of athletics, and a central point from which the various preparatory schools located over the state may obtain information and help regarding their problems in starting and putting on a firm foundation some sort of school athletics," was the statement made by Graduate-manager Walker yesterday.

"Both Mr. Hayward and myself receive letters almost daily from some high school or other in the state which request information regarding athletics and the systems used. These letters are becoming more and more frequent and it goes to show that the University is becoming sort of a headquarters in the state for this thing as well as others.

"At present I have a letter received today from the high school at Merrill, Oregon, requesting information regarding our annual inter-scholastic meet which we hold every spring. They want to know the rules and any information that I can give them which will help them to send representatives here. Mr. Hayward has a letter from the high school at Coquille which desires to know if it is possible to make arrangements for a series of lectures on athletics to be given to the various student bodies in that country. He also has one from the school at Woodburn. There they are laying plans for an athletic association and desire any information which we can give them which will help them get started.

"These letters simply mean that the people over the state are beginning to realize that the University stands for the right thing in athletics and as such is to be recognized as a leader and one worthy of being copied after."

Mrs. McClintock, a missionary to China, will be the speaker at the Y. W. C. A. meeting Monday afternoon. Mrs. McClintock has been in the United States for a year on a furlough, but returns to her work in China sometime during November.

Miss Guppy has received a report of the number of letters written by the Women of the University. "The report of the letters as handed in at request of Mr. Allen," said Miss Guppy, "showed an aggregate of 200 more than at the last report of 1358. The largest number reached by any one house for this last report was 160 letters written by the Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

MANY ATTEND DORM SMOKER

CLASSES REPRESENTED RECEIVE DIFFERENT STYLES OF PIPES

BOXING BOUTS OF INTEREST

Lights Replaced by Candles at 9:30. Talks Given by Dean Walker, Ralph Moores, Dr. Reed and Prof. O'Connell.

Smokes, eats, yells, songs, feats-of-arms and speeches combined at the Dorm Friday night to make the Dorm club's Smoker to the men of the University the most successful stag party in history. Nearly every man in the University took part whether he was a user of the weed or not, and everyone went home full of enthusiasm for Saturday's game, full of cider and doughnuts, and full of gratitude to the men of the Dorm for the good time shown them.

As smoking was to be the chief pleasure of the evening, a bountiful supply of smokes had been provided. Pipes were passed around—clay, "bubble" pipes were given Freshman, "cob" pipes for Sophomores, little "cob" pipes for Juniors, and Block Merchaum pipes for Seniors. Everyone took a pipe and almost every one filled them from the big bowls of tobacco that were passed around. Everyone "lit up" and the air grew blue.

Gorman Wins By Knockout.

A huge mat was then stretched out on the floor and the feats-of-arms began. What proved to be the best event was a boxing match between Ray Gorman and Fred Hardesty, in which Gorman won by a knockout. Both of the men were clever, their blows hard but clean, and Hardesty was knocked to the mat by a fierce upper cut from Gorman only after a game fight. Hardesty lost a tooth in the first ten seconds of play.

A "blind bogey" was another big hit of the evening. Two Sophs, Sommer and Kuck, and two Freshmen, Jackson and Marshall, were "blindfolded and told to go to it." In the course of events the Sophs' blinds slipped off and the two Freshmen were allowed to hammer each other with fervor, each thinking he was defending the honor of his class against the Sophs.

Lightweights Draw.

Max Sommer boxed Carlos Naylor of Panama for the lightweight championship. This ended in a draw, for although Sommers landed many more telling blows than Naylor did, a lucky upper cut sent Sommer to the mat in the second round.

Watkins and Hamstreet pulled off a two-round go and King and Patee, heavyweights, mixed both as boxers and wrestlers, King walking away with the bacon in both events.

Shaffner and Lyons contended for the lightweight wrestling honors. Shaffner won the first fall and Lyons the second and third.

Cider and doughnuts were next. Three hundred doughnuts and thirty gallons of cider disappeared by 10 o'clock.

Alumni Speak.

At 9:30 the lights went out on account of a break at the power house, but they were no longer needed, candles taking their place. The Glee Club gathered around the piano and sang every college song they knew.

Dean Walker, Ralph Moores of Salem, '12; Dr. S. B. Reed, of Eugene, and Prof. O'Connell gave short talks. Each gave their appreciation to the Dorm men for the Smoker, and spoke of the Oregon Spirit that pervaded the entertainment.

CLASS OPENED FOR TEACHING JANITORS

Ventilation, Sanitation and Use of Disinfectants to Be Taught

A school for janitors, under the auspices of the University of Oregon, but open to all persons who wish to perfect themselves in the performance of this kind of work, will open next week at the University. The classes will be held in Dean Straub's room in Villard Hall, and a regular text-book will be used, containing lessons which the janitors will study and on which they will be called to recite. About a dozen janitors, in charge of the various University buildings, are expected to form the first class.

Professors in the University will appear before the organization, and lecture upon such subjects as ventilation, sanitation, the use of disinfectants, etc. The first lecture will be given by Dr. Bertha Stuart, physical director for women.

Steward L. H. Johnson, who will be dean of this new school, announced yesterday that two degrees would be given. The more desirable, he says, is B. G., which he interprets as "be good." The other, a sort of extra-mural affair, will be G. B., and will be bestowed upon those who are about to transfer their activities elsewhere.

STEWART THINKS WELL OF OREGON'S PROSPECTS

O. A. C. Coach, However, Admits He Has Heavy and Well Balanced Team

"If comparative scores count for anything, Oregon should beat us at Albany next month," said Coach E. J. Stewart of the Oregon Agricultural College in an interview with an Emerald representative Thursday. "We have won one game, tied two and lost one while Oregon has a clear record."

Coach Stewart was then on his way to Seattle to hold a conference with Graduate-manager Horr regarding the disputes over the Washington-O. A. C. game played this afternoon. "The main bone of contention Mays," said Stewart. "Mays is perfectly eligible to play and has been accepted by all the colleges in the conference, without a protest, with the exception of Washington. The case has been passed upon by the faculty committee and Mays declared eligible to enter the game."

In discussing the personnel of his team, Stewart stated that the average line weight was around 180 pounds with no man less than 165. The average backfield weight is about 167 pounds. "At quarter, we have two promising men in Dewey and Yeator," Stewart continued. Yeator weighs 150 and Dewey 134 pounds."

Stewart further stated that the football training camp at Newport this year had proven of much benefit to the players.

THE WOMEN'S CLUB ELECTS

The Girls' Athletic Association Chooses Heads of Sport Committees

A special meeting of the Women's Athletic Association was held on Thursday afternoon for the purpose of choosing the heads of the various sports, a reporter and a custodian.

The following girls were elected to the different offices:

Florence Moffat, basketball; Bess Cowden, tennis; Elsie Gurney, canoeing; Bess Young, hockey; Grace Tiffany, archery; Ruth Sears, walking; Ada Hall, baseball; Hazel Rader, golf; Marian Reed, reporter; Mildred Broughton, custodian.

WALKER HAS BROAD POLICY

MANAGER BELIEVES IN SUPPLYING TEAMS WITH NEW UNIFORMS

GOOD OUTFITS AID EFFICIENCY

Believes Risk Involved in Expenditures Will Be Justified by Results at End of the Season.

The office of the student body manager is undergoing considerable repairs at the instigation of Manager Walker who claims that his place of business should remain in keeping with the rank of his office.

The cumbersome cupboard which has stood in the far corner for several years and in which have been kept, in more or less haphazard style, the sundry supplies to be dealt out to the participants in athletics, has been removed and in its stead a comfortable seat has been put in, extending half way around the room. The top of this seat is moveable and inside will be kept the supplies which can now be kept in order and at the same time be easy to handle.

The walls have been covered with burlap and several handsome pictures have been procured to add to the general scheme. A rug is to be placed upon the floor, and when completed the office will be a regular sanatorium.

"But in all seriousness," said Manager Walker yesterday, "I have visitors at my office very frequently who represent anything from railroads down and I think that it is only befitting that I should at least be able to make them comfortable while they are here. The office has been in a frightful shape and the equipment has not been such that would allow of keeping the supplies and records in any sort of shape or system. When the work is completed I will have an office that will not only be pleasing to the eye but will also allow me to carry on my work in a systematic and economical manner."

A meeting of the Women's League will be held Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 29, at 4 o'clock in Prof. Straut's room. The matter of the referendum will be brought up. Mr. Parsons, Eleanor McClain and Catharine Carson will speak of the recent trip to Hood River and the work done there.

OREGON GRAD CHOSEN DEAN

Prof. Ward L. Ray Given Position at William and Vashti

Prof. Ward L. Ray, a graduate of the University in the class of '03, has been chosen Dean of William and Vashti College at Aledo, Illinois.

The Verdvielte, the college publication, has the following to say regarding the selection:

"Dean Ray came to William and Vashti College two years ago to take charge of the department of chemistry and physics. His natural qualities and scholastic ability, together with his special preparation, in administrative studies and courses leading to work in professional and engineering, gives him a special fitness for advising the Junior as well as the Freshman."

After completing his course at the University Dean Ray went to the University of Wisconsin, where he was awarded his master degree. He further supplemented his education by spending a year in the University of Berlin, Germany, where he took special courses.
