MASS MEETING COMES MONDAY

STUDENTS TO AID CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE BY BIG RALLY

CITIZENS MEET AT THEATRE

Songs by Glee Club and Speeches by Prominent Men of Eugene Will Help Arouse Interest in Tuesday's Election.

000000000000000000

"It's Monday night or never for the greatest display of spirit, by the men of the University, that Eugene has ever seen. Every man in college will be there, and 'there' means in a front seat in the Eugene theatre, when time is called. The business men of Eugene believe in us, and our institution or they would never have taken this means to boost for us.

"Everybody out Monday evening at 7 o'clock sharp on the campus, thence we shall serpentine our way to the Eugene theatre for this boost for the University."

000000000000000000

The above is a summons by Yell Leader Dutch Young to all men of o the University to turn out to a monster rally, given under the auspices o of the University Campaign Committee of Eugene for the purpose of o secured an old burned house. stirring up enthusiasm for the appropriations at the coming election o committee for assignemnt of on November 4.

After arriving on the downtown o streets yells will be given and the band will play. Thus the procession will continue until the theatre is reached when the men will march in and occupy the front seats which will be reserved for them.

The Glee club is going to give several special selections and some special yells are going to be sprung by the rooters.

After this, there will be short, snappy talks by L. Bean, Judge L. T. Harris, S. H. Friendly and other good speakers. Those who have the affair in charge say that "every min- the voters registered in that precinct, ute will be full of ginger and a good rollicking time is assured to all who attend." The purpose of this rally is to stir up enthusiasm and interest before the election and to get all the voters out possible.

L. Bean, J. S. Magladry, Frank Jenkins compose the executive committee which has the rally in charge.

NEW INSTRUCTOR ARRIVES

D. C. Sowers, Professor of Municipalities, Takes Up Work Here.

Professor D. C. Sowers arrived in Eugene Thursday from New York places which will concern most of City to take up his work, as profes- the students: sor of municipalities and public accounting, in the extension department of the University.

The new professor, who has been an intimate associate of W. H. Allen, the New York municipal expert, for a number of years, was chosen for the extension field at the meeting of the Board of Regents last summer. He will enter upon his new duties immediately.

Professor Sowers had expected to University avenue. Committeearrive in Eugene several weeks ago, Dal King and Glen Wheeler. but he was delayed by his duties on the Bureau of Municipal Research Columbia avenue. in New York City.

Grace MacKenzie has gone to dance Saturday evening.

TRIANGULAR DEBATE QUESTION IS CHOSEN

Oregon's Choice, "Responsibility for National Budget," Accepted

After much corresponding and patient waiting the Washington-Stanford-Oregon Triangular debate question has finally been chosen. Oregon's choice, "Responsibility for National Budget" being accepted by the league. The final wording has not yet been decided upon.

This means that all debate candidates will have to start in and work for the first tryout will be held Saturday, November 22. The question for the tryouts will be worded:

"Resolved, That some administrative officer should be made responsible for our national budget. "

At the first preliminary tryout 10 men will be chosen. Each man will be given five minutes for his constructive speech and two minutes for rebuttal. The contestants may choose any side they prefer. After the squad has been cut down to 10 men a tryout will be held one week later at which time the squad will be cut down to six or eight men. Then two two alternates.

to him as soon as they can.

NOTICE TO FRESHMEN.

The bonfire committee has o All men report at once to o o work.

STUDENTS WILL ASSIST IN TUESDAY ELECTION

Committees Appointed Will Provide Witnesses and Remind Late Voters

The University students will take an active part in the election Tuesday. The County Clerk has placed at each voting polling place a list of and a committee has been appointed licity as that of the University durto see that every voter casts his ballot. Members of this committee will on end, the stories regarding the apvoting that his vote is needed for issue would extend across the camcommittee has been appointed by licity has been 99 per cent favorable Vernon Motschenbacher to be sta- to the University. "If the appropriationed in the six precincts where the tions are not upheld I shall lose my majority of the student vote will be faith in the power of the press,"

The student committees will be responsible for suitable witnesses which will enable every student of the legal age to vote.

Following is a list of the voting street, Willamette to High. Commtitee-Don Rice and Fred Dunbar. Precinct 13-10th street to 15th street, High to Patterson. Committee-Hawley Bean and Maurice Hill. Precinct 14-10th to 15th, Patterson to University avenue. Committee-Lamar Tooze and Fred Hard-

Precinct 15-15th south, Mill to Precinct 16-University avenue to Committee-

Marsh Goodwin and Charles Fowler. In the six University Precincts vote be cast.

LONG FIGHT ALMOST OVER

BUT NOT EXPENSIVE, SAYS DYMENT

John C. Veatch Optimistic as to Outcome Because of Decided Stand Taken by Oregon Press During the Campaign.

(By C. V. Dyment)

every corner of Oregon by friends of practical experience, in assisting the the University to have the two Uni- local papers to cover the election reversity building appropriations upheld at the special referendum election of November 4. It has been a hard fight; it has not been an expensive one. Campaign funds were small; what has been done has been mostly a tribute of love.

Few votes will be made or unor three other tryouts will be held at made between now and Tuesday and intervals of a week, at the last the a majority of those interested are final teams will be picked. There settling down to await the result. will be two teams, an affirmative and What that result will be is about the negative, of two members each and sole topic on the campus, among faculty and students alike. Some work Coach Prescott urges all men who will of course be done tomorrow and intend to try out to hand their names Monday, that is letters will be writ- blanks will have printed places for ten Sunday by way of reminder, and the "ayes" and "nays;" and are so this important issue. While I do not reaching their destinations just be- arranged that they can be pasted to- insist upon your adopting my views fore election, should do considerable gether in a convenient manner for on this question or wish to interfere good. Those in charge of the cam- adding the total. o paign, in both Portland and Eugene, are urging that as many as possible offices at the end of each hour, I do not hesitate to ask you, if you o of such letters be written; they may where the more experienced college agree with me that the University 20-yard line. No return. End of o actually turn the election.

Result Still Uncertain.

That a few letters, written in the lintotypes. o closing hours of a campaign, may The local papers expect to be able friends to the same course. o mean victory instead of defeat at- to announce the obvious trend of the o o o o o o o o o o o o o o o o o o tests how close the campaign com-election by ten o'clock, and the final mittees fear the result will be. result a few hours later. Last year Rarely has an election been so close the college students trudged through with the result so uncertain. If the a steady rain, and mud, from remote SEATING ARRANGEMENTS University is defeated, it is expected precincts to the newspaper offices to be by only a small margin; if it with the hourly returns from the prewins, there is a chance it may win cincts, until two p. m. in the mornoverwhelmingly, for people are said ing. to be getting really tired of persecution of a higher educational institu- OREGON MAN AT CORNELL tion and of abuse of the referendum for furtherance of personal ends.

> Since the days of the initiative and I referendum campaign in Oregon, few causes have received so much pubsaid John C. Veatch, secretary of the Oregon Citizens' Educational league, who was at the University yesterday. Other features of the favorable side of the campaign have been: gatherings throughout the state by Portland speakers, alumni of the dif- 4:29 in the mile. Precinct 12-10th street to 15th ferent localities and other persons favorable to the University.

cards distributed by the Eugene campaign committee. Daily meetings of the Eugene campaign committee at the Hotel members will be given Saturday ev-Osburn ,and most efficient work by it. This work has had the backing, Commercial Club. Voter-to-voter work by dozens of the year.

woman's clubs. alone there are 1774 registered vot- cause they have been connected with be here for the week-end and Miss Portland to attend the Omega Nu ers and it is important that every the University but most because they Elizabeth Fox has been chosen toastbelieve the cause is just.

GET RETURNS

STRUGGLE HARD FOUGHT, CLASSES IN JOURNALISM WILL ASSIST PAPERS DURING ELECTION

PROPHESIES CLOSE BALLOTING EMBRYO REPORTERS TO WORK

One Set Distributed Among Precincts to Bring Count to Office Where Others Will Compile and Announce Results.

In accordance with the plan start-Seventy-two hours from tonir t ed last year, the Journalism classes will end the struggle carried into will again have the opportunity for turns, Tuesday night.

Members of the advanced classes will assist in the offices, helping to handle the returns from all over the state as well as from Eugene. Automobiles will make the rounds of the precincts each hour, where one of the embryo journalists will have the totals of votes polled tallied on blanks provided for the purpose. The journalism students will be responsible for the returns from all the precincts, and a certain number of them will be assigned to one or two apiece. The journalistic lights will compute the should be supported, to vote "Yes" totals, and prepare the copy for the upon numbers 300 and 302 on the Windnagle Looks Good to Easterners But Can't Run This Year.

Windnagle, former University of Oregon middle-distance runner, who ing the past six weeks. Pieced end entered Cornell this fall, is being boosted as one of the most promisremind every voter who is tardy in propriations and the comment on the ing of the younger runners at the Ithaca institution. Windnagle was the life of the University. A similar pus. This amazing amount of pub- a wonder in the northwest and was considered to be one of the top-notchers in intercollegiate company.

> Although Windnagle will not be eligible for the Cornell team this year, on account of the one-year-residence rule, he is turning out with the squad and is getting the benefit of the high-class training. He is a little fellow, standing only 5 feet 6 Speeches at hundreds of small inches tall, but has wonderful speed and has marks of 1:56 in the half and

Y. W. BANQUET TONIGHT

The annual recognition banquet given by the Y. W. C. A. for new ening, November first. Services preceding the banquet, will be held at moral and financial of the Eugene five o'clock in the bungalow, then Daily meetings at luncheon at the tist church for the banquet. This there from the two schools as well as Portland Commercial club by the is one of the biggest events held from Salem and Portland. The root-Oregon Citizen's Educational league. under Y. W. C. A. auspices during ers will be allowed special sections.

Miss Matthews, Y. W. C. A. mis-Voter-to-voter work by thousands sionary to Japan and Miss Elizabeth tion occupied last year. of friendly individuals, some be- Fox, secretary of the Northwest will mistress for Saturday.

RAILWAY BACKS UNIVER-SITY APPRORIATIONS

Bends Letter to Each Officer and Employe of Roads

The following letter was sent to every employee and officer of the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Company, which includes the Oregon Trunk Ry., Oregon Electric Ry. Co., Pacific and Eastern Railway, United Ry. Co., Dalles, Port- Normandin Responsible for Oreland and Astoria Nav. Co. Mr. Magladry of the local O. E. office, brought the letter to the attention of the Emerald.

To All Officers and Employes: This circular letter is not intended as an official communication but as a personal letter to each of you. I am deeply impressed with the importance to the state of Oregon of the issue raised by the referendum on the Oregon University appropriations, to be voted on at the state election, Tuesday, November 4, 1913. Believing as I do that nothing is more essential to the welfare of the state than the proper support of its schools and that the settlement and development of the Willamette Valley by a desirable class of people will be promoted by the firm establishment of this institution of higher education, I take this means of asking your personal study of the questions at issue in this election.

I will therefore ask you to take the time to go to the polls on Tuesday next and to take an interest in in any way with your own freedom in The blanks will be taken to the exericsing your privilege as a voter, official ballot, and to urge your

Yours truly, J. H. YOUNG,

President.

AT ALBANY IMPROVED

Walker and Boylen Return From the Football Capital

Graduate-manager Dean Walker returned yesterday from Albany where he met Dr. E. J. Stewart of Corvallis to make the final arrangements for the handling of the large crowd which is expected in Albany November 8 to witness the Oregon-O. A. C. football game. Assistant manager of football, Tom Boylen, accompanied Walker.

"The seats have been so numbered and blocked off that there will be no trouble in handling the crowds as there was last year," said Walker. "The seats have been measured and will be numbered so that when one purchases his ticket he can tell exactly where he will sit. This will blocked off into sections for the varmany.

Portland, Salem, Eugene, and Corvallis before the game and every op- line. portunity will be given the spectators to make preliminary plans.

"Sections have been set aside for the women will adjourn to the Bap- the several delegations which will be Oregon will be seated on the opposite side of the field from the posi-

> Leland and Paul Hendricks, John Elliott and Howard Bull are at Salem this week-end.

BY ONE POINT

AGGIE SECOND TEAM BEAT-7-6 IN HARDEST GAME OF SEASON

BEZDEK'S MEN IN GOOD SHAPE

gon's Only Touchdown. Bigbee Kicks Goal But Fails in Attempted Drop Kicks.

(By Raeman Fleming)

In one of the hardest fought games of the season, the Oregon second team won from the O. A. C. substitutes yesterday by a score of 7-6, overcoming the touchdown lead annexed by the Aggies early in the first quarter. According to the showing made by Bezdek's pupils, the University players have it all over the Corvallis contingent as far as physical condition is concerned, for during the entire contest it was found unnecessary to replace a single man, while almost the entire O. A. C. lineup was changed.

First Quarter.

O. A. C. kickoff received by Cossman who was nailed on the 45-yard line. Bigbee punted 20 yards to Billy who ran back 25. O. A. C. made yardage in two line bucks. The ball was shoved over for a touchdown. No goal. Score 6-0. In the remainder of the quarter, no tallies were made. O. A. C. failed on a place kick from the 30-yard line. Bigbee kicked out 30 yards from the Second Quarter.

O. A. C. punts 40. Bigbee returns 25 and fails to drop kick goal. In a punting duel which ensued, Lutz had the edge on Bigbee. The ball worked back and forth in O. A. C.'s territory and the quarter ended with the pigskin in the Aggies' possession on their own 12-yard line.

Second Half. O. A. C. 45-yard kickoff returned 25 by Normandin. Oregon makes yardage. Forward pass, Bigbee to Garrett gains 20 yards. Oregon fumbles, Lutz punts 40 and Bigbee runs ball back 10 yards. Forward pass, Bigbee to Tuerck gains 15 yards. Oregon fumbles but recovers ball. Normandin goes through left tackle for 5 yards, stopping on O. A. C. 2yard line. Normandin sent through for touchdown. Bigbee kicks goal.

O. A. C. kicks off 45 yards. Bigbeen runs back 20. Bigbee punts 25 yards and Garrett recovers ball. The quarter ended after an exchange of punts with O. A. C.'s ball on their own 38-yard line.

Fourth Quarter.

Score: Oregon 7, O. A. C. 6.

In the last quarter no scoring was done. O. A. C. took a fresh lease of life. Bigbee lost a chance for inavoid the endless confusion which has creasing the Oregon score by failure occurred when the seats were simply to drop kick. In the last four minutes of play Lutz failed to place kick ious delegations with some of the from 40-yard line. Bigbee ran back sections having too few seats for the kick 5 yards. O. A. C. got the ball tickets sold, and others having too on a fumble, and Lutz failed on another place kick. Bigbee carried the "Special seat sales will be held in ball for 20 yards. Game ended with Oregon's ball on their own 30-yard

The Lineup.

Oregon.	U. A. C.
Ensley
Easterwood RGL
GarrettRTL
McCornackRE
BrownLGR
CossmanLGR
HendricksLER
BigbeeQ.
Normandin LHI	R Allworth
SpellmanF.	Billy
TuerckRHL	Lutz
Referee—Johnson	