

STUDENT TICKETS SELL TILL FRIDAY

SPECIAL 75 CENT ROOTERS' SEATS MUST BE BOUGHT AT Y. M. AT ONCE

BIG ATTENDANCE ASSURED

Manager Walker Says That Oregon Team Will Spring a Surprise on Fans at Albany Game on Next Saturday.

Student tickets are now on sale at the Book Exchange for the Oregon-O. A. C. game at Albany next Saturday, and must be purchased before Friday night if the students want to sit with the rooters on student tickets.

"We have put the seats on sale at the Book Exchange early so that all of the students wishing tickets for the game will have plenty of time to purchase them," said Manager Walker yesterday. "But they must be purchased before Friday night if the students want to sit with the rooters on student tickets at the reduced student rate. Otherwise they will have to purchase the regular tickets which will cost $1.50. The regular seats are on sale at Obak's and Eaton's Book store and may be purchased any time.

"Since we have the management of the game it will be necessary to close the sale Friday night in order that we may handle the large crowd which is coming from all over the state.

"From all reports the attendance at the game this year is going to surpass anything of the kind ever held in the state. I have had petitions from many towns in the northern part of the state asking that special seat sales be held in their towns. Among them are Oregon City, Independence, Lebanon, Dallas and Monmouth. Besides these towns sales are being held in Portland, Salem, Albany and Corvallis.

"We are furnishing the ushers and any students who desire to usher at the game Saturday may see Tommy Boylen who has this in charge. Several more ushers are needed.

"Excursions to Albany will be held on both the Southern Pacific and the Oregon Electric. On the excursion tickets the student can leave here any time after 9:30 a. m., and go down on any of the trains during the day. After the game any of the trains will carry the excursionists back.

"The officials of the game will be George Varnell, Spokane, referee; Roscoe Fawcett of the Oregonian, umpire; and Dr. Sweetland of Willamette, head lineman.

"The team now has a bad game, as the one with Willamette was, out of its system and every member is going to Albany to fight to the last notch. Many of the men have bucked O. A. C. before and know what they are going up against. I think the Willamette game has cleaned them out now and they will make a showing that will be a surprise.

"The ghost ball has been in use for some time and a large arc lamp with a reflector has been installed on the field. Coach Bezdek is working the old Oregon spirit up that knows no defeat and from now on 'down to business' is the one axiom that goes on Kincaid field."

TIP FOR THE POOR GUY.

Some piggers, hold, with lots of dough,
Can make the poor guy look slow
By taking co-eds to the show
And occupy bald headed row.
Or else he rubs it in with speed
And tries the Osburn's Sunday feed.
Such sporting life a "stude" resents
When pockets hold but twenty cents.
So think real hard for just a pause.
Ah, here's a plan to help the cause.
Just phone your girl to dress up neat
Then wander down Willamette street.
Proceed to go to Obak's shack
And ask with nerve for handsome Jack.
He'll greet you with a winsome smile

As he is paid for such beguile.
Then put your money on the dish
And tell him plain your heart felt wish
A "heated dog" before your part
Will surely win your lady's heart.

A man's practical experience in purchasing Footwear produces certain well defined results.

Once you acquire, through wearing experience, a knowledge of the value, comfort, hold-their-shape elegance, and economy in Burden & Graham shoes, those of less careful construction will not interest you.

Carefully study your next Shoe Purchase, as you would study the play of your favorite game.

The first cost of a Shoe is small when compared with the large returns in comfort, good appearance and wearing qualities, which the purchase of a well-made shoe insures. For the men who want the best we recommend the Thompson Bros. and Nettleton makes. We are exclusive agents for both lines.
