

SAMPLES OF SONGS.

Executive Committee Suggests That Eastern Songs Be Models.

The following are samples of songs of some of the larger eastern schools which have been furnished by the executive committee as possible models for Oregon bards who intend to enter in the contest for composing an Oregon Alma Mater song:

Fair Harvard.
Fair Harvard, thy sons to thy jubilee throng,
And with blessings surrender the air.
By these festival rites, from the age

that is past,
To the age that is waiting before.
A relic and type of our ancestors' worth
That has long kept her memory warm;
First flow'r of their wilderness, star of their night,
Calm rising thru change and thru storm.

Alma Mater—Cornell.
Far above Cayuga's waters, with its waves of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater, glorious to view.

CHORUS—
Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
Loud her praises tell;
Hail to thee! our Alma Mater,
All hail, Cornell!

Sons of Georgetown.
Sons of Georgetown, Alma Mater,
Swift Potomac's lovely daughter;
Ever watching by the water,
Smiles on us today;
Now her children gather round her,
So, with garlands they have crowned her,
Rev'rent hands and fond enwound her

With the Blue and Gray.
CHORUS—
Wave her colors ever, furl her standard never;
Raise it high and proudly cry,
"We're Georgetown's sons forever."
Where Potomac's tide is streaming
From her spires and steeples beaming ever.
See the grand old banner gleaming
Georgetown's Blue and Gray.

Alma Mater—Lehigh.
Where the Lehigh's rocky rapids rush from out the West,
'Mid a grove of spreading chestnut walls in ivy dressed.
On the breast of Old South Mountain, reared against the sky,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Stands our dear Lehigh.

Hail, Stanford, Hail.
Where the rolling foothills rise
Up t'ward mountains higher,
When at eve the Coast Range lies,
In the sunset fire,
Flushing deep and paling;
Here we raise our voices hailing
Thee, our Alma Mater.
CHORUS—
From the foothills to the bay,
It shall ring, as we sing,
It shall ring and flit away;
Hail, Stanford, hail!
Hail, Stanford, hail!

O. A. C. CONTEST ALSO IN AIR

Oregon Speakers, However, Are Beginning Active Work on the General Question of a National Budget System.

The final wording of the Washington-Stanford-Oregon debate question has not yet been definitely decided upon. Several weeks ago the three Universities agreed upon the general question of "Executive Responsibility for the National Budget" and in accordance with the terms of the contract, between them each submitted a proposition upon this general subject. Oregon submitted the following proposition: Resolved, that our executive department should be made responsible for a National Budget.

A few days ago Graduate Manager Walker received a letter from the Secretary of the League, stating "that Stanford has agreed to Oregon's question;" and stating further "that he would write to Washington asking them to concur and in the absence of an objection Oregon's question would be chosen. But in case Washington objects, a vote would have to be taken, each University expressing their first and second choice.

No definite arrangements have yet been made in regard to the debate with O. A. C. other than that the same question used for the Intercollegiate contest will be the one used in this contest. In a short time the date, size of teams, number of teams and other details will be arranged. Probably each school will have both an affirmative and negative team and two debates will be held the same night between the teams of each school, one at Corvallis and the other here at Eugene.

Those in charge state that they think "Oregon is up against a hard proposition this year. Our teams will be made up of all new men, excepting Dal King. Oregon has been able to carry off the honors in past years, but this year, with teams composed largely of men inexperienced at college debating, it seems doubtful whether we can repeat the performance."

Curtis Guild, formerly Governor of Massachusetts and ambassador to Russia, advocates the establishment of a course in diplomacy in all of the American universities.
