WORDING OF DEBATE QUESTION IS DECIDED

Tri-State League Will Talk Up
Subject of "Budget Responsibility"

"Resolved, That the executive department should be made responsible for our national budget, is the question which has been chosen by the Pacific Coast Debating League for the subject of this year's Tri-State debate between University of Washington, Stanford and University of Oregon. The annual event will be held on Friday, March 13. On that evening Stanford will meet Washington in Palo Alto and Oregon in Eugene, while Oregon and Washington will meet in Seattle for their contest.

The above question was submitted by Oregon at the start and was finally accepted, when the secretary of the debating league received the acquiescence of Washington to this particular form of the general subject of "Cabinet Responsibility" which was decided on some time ago.

The men who have been chosen for the Oregon teams are having workouts, and will be prepared by the end of February to begin practice debating.

OREGANA HAS A JOKE-BOX

Installed in Library and Contributions Are Solicited.

A joke box has been installed in the Library building by the Oregana Feature department. The box will be found on the seat just inside the main reading room of the building, and anyone who has a feature or knows of a "sell" on some student is requested to drop the article into the receptacle provided.

The feature part of the Junior annual is always one that is supposed to portray student life and its features. By getting material in this way the source of information is kept quiet, while the student body will get to read something that otherwise might be unknown. Of course, care will be exercised by the feature editor, Bert Jerard, in choosing material, but he has to take what can be collected, and if the supply is scarce things might be run that would otherwise be "killed," so he says it is to the advantage of all the students that he should receive a great deal of material.

WELLESLEY HEAD MAY TALK

Attempt to Secure Dr. Fitz Pendleton for Tomorrow's Assembly.

Because of the inability of Dr. O. S. Sisson, commissioner of education of Idaho, to make Wednesday's assembly address as an attempt is being made by the administration officers to secure Dr. Ellen Fitz Pendleton, president of Wellesley College, who is now in Portland, for an address.

Dr. Pendleton is on a tour through the western states, making visits at various universities and colleges.

Should Dr. Pendleton not be available for an address, it is probable that some member of the faculty of Reed College, perhaps Dr. Colburn, will be secured.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION TO

Smith, head of the religious work department of student associations for the United States. He spoke in Villard Hall last year at a special meeting. The convention will be taken up with reports, addresses and a banquet.

The annual inter-state Y. M. C. A. convention will be held at Vancouver, Wash., February 6 to 8. Oregon, Washington and Idaho will participate. It is expected to have six representatives go from the University.

More than 1200 other songs were submitted.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION

Dues Paid Before November or linquent

The Women's Athletic Association held a meeting in the gymnasium January 8, at 5 p. m., for the purpose of adopting the amendment to Section II, Article VII, of the constitution.

The amendment states that the annual dues shall be paid on or before the November meeting of the association and a fine of ten cents shall be imposed upon each delinquent for every regular meeting following until the dues are paid. If such dues, including fines, are not paid before the February meeting of the association the delinquent shall be dropped from the roll.

The next meeting is to be held on the second Tuesday in February and the association urges every member to be present.

AFTER FRONTIER, WHAT?

Dr. Schafer Reports Good Attendance in Portland.

Dr. Schafer addressed a meeting of seventy-five people last Friday evening in the Central Library in Portland. His subject was, "After the Frontier, What?"

"It was one of the best crowds we have had out for some time," said Dr. Schafer. "Heretofore the newspapers have not given notice of our meetings the proper publicity and the result has been poor attendance. Friday, however, all the Portland papers gave mention of our meeting in their columns and we had a good turnout."

Ernest Williams, of Independence, was a guest at the Alpha Tau Omega house Sunday. Mr. Williams is working for the Booth-Kelly Lumber company at Wendling, but will enter the University the second semester.

BASKET-BALL TICKETS RESERVED AT EXCHANGE

Section on Lower Floor For Rooters. Band Will Aid

Reserved seats for the first conference basketball game of the season will be on sale at the Y. M. C. A. book exchange at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. Student body tickets are good for reserved seats if presented at the exchange.

"Student body tickets must be presented at the door for admission for the games," said Dean Walker, "unless seats have been reserved.

"A section of seats on the lower floor will be reserved for rooters exclusively. The University band will be on hand and will aid in the rooting. It is desired that every man attending the game will go to the rooters' section and help in the rooting as this is to be made more of a feature at this year's games than it has heretofore. If the students take advantage of this opportunity and fill the seats reserved for the roters we will make this a regular thing, but if they do not fill them we will have to throw them open to the general public."

EIGHT MEN WILL TRY OUT

One of These Will Represent Oregon at Oratorical Contests.

Among the men who have signified their intention of trying out for the Intercollegiate Oratorical and the International Peace contests are Leslie Tooze, Lamar Tooze, James Donald, Victor Morris, Percy Brown, Peter Crockett, Allen O'Connell and Vernon Motschenbacher. The International Peace tryout will be held January 22, at which time the contestants will probably be eliminated to six men. Then on the following day, January 23, a preliminary tryout will be held for the purpose of eliminating the squad to six men, from among which one will be chosen January 30 to represent the University at the Intercollegiate Oratorical contest. All the tryouts will take place in Villard Hall at 4 o'clock. Coach Prescott urges that every man who intends to take part shall turn in his name immediately.

CORVALLIS AND PORTLAND ON GLEE CLUB ITINERARY

Hirsute Adorned Seniors of Organization to Remove Appendages

The Senior men on the Glee Club will have to remove their mustaches if the trips planned to Corvallis and Portland materialize before the date set for their removal.

This was the verdict propounded by Director Ralph Lyman yesterday afternoon when interviewed concerning the matter. Some of the boys when asked their opinion said, "We are all sorry of the trip because we love our mustaches."

The Corvallis concert probably will occur within the next two weeks and preparations are being made to give even a better concert there than any of the previous ones, by the means of more training.

The Portland trip will be taken Thursday of Examination week providing arrangements can be made with the faculty so that the journey will not conflict with examinations.

LIFE OF MRS. SUNDERLAND REVIEWED BY FRIEND

Mrs. Parsons Speaks on the Life of Noted Woman Worker

The life of Mrs. Liza Reed Sunderland was reviewed by Mrs. E. S. Parsons, who was a close friend of Mrs. Sunderland, at Y. W. C. A. meeting in the Bungalow, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Sunderland was an exceptionally intellectual woman and was the woman who received such notice as speaking at the convention of Parliament of Religion, held at Chicago in 1893. Her address was given without notes and required one hour and a half for delivery.

Tributes from several prominent men were written at the time of her death.

The Y. W. C. A. has planned series of lectures to be delivered every week by prominent people from all over the state, and urge every girl in the University to attend these meetings which are held each Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A ban has been placed on smoking on the campus at Kansas.

On thousand of the students at the University of Kansas are self-supporting.

The Kansas University library numbers 77,640 volumes and 42,000 pamphlets.
