UNIVERSITY JUNIORS MARRIED WEDNESDAY

Donald Pague and Hazel Barta,
End a College
Romance

Donald Pague and Hazel Barta, both of the Class of '15 were married at the St. Mary's Episcopal church, at Seventh and Olive streets, by Rev. P. K. Hammond last Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, in the presence of a few friends.

This is the culmination of a college romance which began early in the Freshman year of both parties. The couple had been determined for several months upon marriage at the end of the last semester, but did not make public their intention until its realization.

Mrs. Pague comes from near Albany, where her parents reside, and Eugene Pague is the son of B. S. Pague of Portland. The newly-weds are now living with the groom's father, at 758 Pettygrove street.

Those present at the wedding ceremony were Mildred Lawrence, Lucile Cogswell, Helen Werlein, Morris Bigbee, Leroy Halbrook, who gave the bride away, Wallace Eakin and Robert Brady.

Donald Pague is a member of the Avava fraternity, and his wife is a member of the Delta Gamma sorority.

WASHINGTON STUDENTS WANT HUERTA FOR PREXY

Vacancy in High Office Leads to Proposals of Possible Candidates

University of Wash., Feb. 10.—President Victoriano Huerta of the University of Washington! Such may soon be the official title of the Tyrant of the South, if the suggestion made by Acting President Henry Landes to the guests at the Lewis Hall upper-class smoker Saturday be followed out by the regents.

"Washington has the most fearless student body in the United States, without a doubt," declared President Landes. "Other universities have student-bodies, naturally enough, and other universities are looking for president, but never before has a bunch of university students had the temerity to seriously approach an ex-president of the United States and offer him the job of running their university."

"The local choice for president of Washington would seem to be President Huerta of Mexico, for he is running that country with neither friends nor money."

Musical Comedy Is Good.

Manager Smith of the Eugene theater seems to have a surfeit of musical comedy, but he is fortunate in securing the Basco Company for a two nights' engagement, Monday and Tuesday, February 9 and 10. The company has just closed a record-breaking engagement at Medford, and the Tribune of that city speaks of the show as follows:

"The A. B. Basco Mutual Comedy Co.'s initial performances at the Page theater yesterday fulfilled all the promises made by their enterprising advance man, Mr. Onken. The show was a delightful mixture of pure, laughable nonsense and good singing. Their tenor singer is a feature par excellence, and their chorus leaders are certainly vocalists."

"The chorus itself—well, pretty girls who can sing, in pretty costumes, are always a drawing card. Mr. Basco himself is a positive genius. As a comedian, with a part that permits full play of his eccentric and original ideas, his every word, gargoyle-like facial expressions and physical contortions are rib-stretchers, following each entrance on the stage. The company fully deserved the capacity houses that greeted them yesterday and during their stay in Astoria the public knows where to effectively shake off the Gloomy Glooms—they simply cannot exist in the atmosphere now at the Page." Adv.

Charles G. Lathrop, for 22 years treasurer and business manager of Stanford University, has resigned his office.

THESE NEW SPRING SUITS
AT $30.00, $32.50 AND $35.00

Developed in the newest materials and with the charm of the latest and most pleasing fashions. These suits will appeal to all women who appreciate stylish attire. The vogue for tunic and peg top skirts has made the short coat essential with many variations however, some take the short cutaway style, others hang straight and loose from the shoulders, some have yokes, and some are loosely belted or finished with a sash and all are trimmed with fancy buttons of quaint design and shape, the skirts are made to effect the new silhouette, characterized by width at the hips and narrowness at the ankles. The fancy cut skirt, oddly cut jacket and the use of novelty materials, give the new suit a demi-tailored or dressy appearance and in the group of smart new suits at these prices you'll find a vastly comprehensive choice of all that is new in the world of fashion.
