

"AGGIE" FIVE HERE TONIGHT

O. A. C. SENDS DELEGATION OF 150 ROOTERS WITH TEAM

MAY IS REPORTED INJURED

If He Does Not Play, Christman Will Probably Substitute. Seiberts Will Go in at Forward During Series.

(By Fred Dunbar)

One hundred and fifty strong, accompanied by a 35-piece band, the Oregon Agricultural College will invade Oregon territory tonight to try to capture their initial basketball game in this year's series.

The rooters will arrive in the city at 7 o'clock, will form in parade at the depot and headed by the cadet band will march to the gym.

Reservations in the gym were asked for 150 footers and these Manager Dean Walker will hold out.

Referee Peter W. Lee of the Portland Y. M. C. A., has been engaged to officiate and will call the game promptly at 7:30.

The outcome is problematical, to say the least. Neither team has tried out the other and the only way of determining their relative strength is by comparative scores with the Washington team.

Teams About Equal.

Up to date the two teams are considered to be about equal though "dope" gives Oregon a little the better of it on passing and covering the floor. The Varsity has played in streaks this year on basket shooting but if a reasonable number of baskets attempted score, O. A. C. may be defeated tonight.

In the Washington-Oregon series, their inability to locate the basket lost her the games. Otherwise Washington would not now have the championship of the western division so neatly tucked under her arm. But that is history.

Coach Bezdek has been working the men on basket shooting and with fair luck, Oregon should win. "The men put up a very poor exhibition Friday night," said the coach yesterday. "I do not know what to expect from them but I think our chances are at least even."

Walker Is Optimistic.

"If Oregon finds that basket, it is good-night for the Aggies," said Graduate-Manager Walker yesterday in speaking of the coming game.

Coach Bezdek has been playing his men according to the opposing team's lineup and as yet is unable to say just how the Varsity will line up tonight.

O. A. C.'s lineup is not known, but it most probably will be Dewey, Blakeley, forwards; Mix, center; King and May, guards.

It has been reported that May is out of the game for the rest of the year but this is thought to be mere rumor. It is a usual occurrence for the man of Albany fame to be injured during most of the seasons in which he is interested and it is thought that he will be on the floor tonight. If it should be that he is injured, Christman would probably take his place. Seiberts for forward will also more than likely put in an appearance before the series are over.

SENIORS.

Important meeting of the Senior class Wednesday 4 p. m., in Dr. Schmidt's room, Deady Hall. Preliminary discussion of commencement arrangements for caps and gowns and for programs. Reports of committees.

CO-ED SINGERS PUT OFF COTTAGE GROVE PROGRAM

Trip to Be Made One Week Later. Better Accommodations Promised for March 4

The Women's Glee Club has postponed its concert tour to Cottage Grove until Wednesday, March 4. "We can have better accommodations if we wait a week," said Catherine Carson, Manager of the Glee Club. "The people of Cottage Grove are giving a large entertainment that same night as we had planned for our concert. We heard yesterday that they would rather we would wait another week to go. And as some of the girls in the club would be better prepared for the concert we have decided to wait."

PLANS FOR PAN-HELLENIC DANCE BEING DISCUSSED

Will Try Out New Ideas at Affair Scheduled for March 28

"Tell every woman in college to come to the dance and invite a man for herself. We want everybody," said Ruth Beach, president of the Pan-Hellenic which is giving its second annual dance March 28 at the Men's gymnasium.

"We are planning to try several ideas which have not been carried out at previous University dances," declared Miss Beach. "Decorated booths with certain letters of the alphabet over each may be made for the girls to stand in. A girl will stand under the initial letter of her surname. Another plan will be the use of one program for a couple—the man keeping the program and filling it before he returns it to the girl."

"We may have one cotillion dance, but none of the plans are definite until the committees meet next Tuesday," continued Miss Beach.

The chairmen of the committees are: Music, Meta Goldsmith; Decorations, Marguerite Rankin; Programs, Norma Graves; Patronesses, Maude Mastick; Floor, Wilma Young; and Punch, Agnes Elliot.

CUP WILL BE AWARDED IN INTER-FRAT BASEBALL

Plans Now Being Made for Spring Sports by League of Clubs

A cup will be awarded to the winning team in the Inter-Fraternity Baseball League, according to Allie Grout, president of the league. "The team making second place may also receive a cup if a Eugene merchant feels inclined to make a donation," he further said. Last year the cup for second place was given by Obak's cigar store.

Baseball will not begin until the handball tournament is played, which will be in a week or two. A definite date for the tournament will be decided upon next Thursday when the Fraternity Athletic Council meets. Plans and a schedule for baseball will also be made.

ASSISTANT MANAGER ASKED

No Pay For Job but Sweater—Walker Says Experience Valuable.

Graduate-Manager Dean Walker announces that he will receive applications for assistant-manager of track or baseball for the coming seasons.

"There is no remuneration attached to these positions," said Walker, "but there is a lot of good experience there that is well worth the time of any student."

For each branch of sports the assistant managers are awarded sweaters at the end of the season. Boylen will receive one Wednesday morning for his work in connection with football season.

STUDENT LAWS MAY CHANGE

AMENDMENT WILL BE READ BEFORE STUDENT BODY Tomorrow

STUDENT COUNCIL PROVIDED

Special Committee of Seniors Draws up Articles Which Will Abolish Executive Committee if Adopted.

If the amendment to the Constitution, which was drafted at the meeting held on Sunday, February 22, by the special committee recently appointed by President of the Student Body, Motschenbacher, is accepted at the Wednesday Student Body meeting, there will be incorporated along with other student body organizations a Student Council. This is to be composed of the President and the Secretary of the Student Body, the President of the Women's League, the Editor of the "Emerald," three men and two women from the Senior, and two men and one woman from the Junior classes of the following year. On the event of the formation of this body being favored by the students, it will take over several of the powers now vested in the Executive Committee.

Purpose Is Stated.

"The main purpose of this council," said Willard Shaver, chairman of the committee, last evening, "will be to act as an intermediary between the students and the faculty. It will be a board of appeal, to which any undergraduate may present his case and have it referred to the faculty."

An amendment cast in an acceptable form and embodying the provisions which have been mentioned, will be read at tomorrow's assembly. Then, as the Constitution provides, it will be laid upon the table for a week and voted upon at the following assembly, Wednesday, March 4.

May Have Special Election.

The members, of which the Council will be composed, will be elected at the regular Student Body election after this year. However, if the amendment is adopted at this time, another amendment providing for the holding of a special election, for the purpose of choosing members for the Council to serve the remainder of the present school year will be proposed.

The amendment in its final form will be published in Thursday's "Emerald."

The members on the committee which drafted the amendment are Willard Shaver, chairman; Alva Grout, Eleanor McClaine, Bertha Dorris and Al Davies.

Y. M. WILL EDIT EMERALD

Saturday's Paper to Be Issued by Special Staff.

With forty reporters bustling around the campus in search of news, active work in the way of filling the news space of the Y. M. C. A. edition of the Emerald for Saturday has commenced. More than enough advertising space has been sold to pay for the issue.

"There will be a departure" this year from the style of preceding years—in that there will not be so much Y. M. C. A. reading matter as formerly," said Editor Lamar Tooze yesterday. "There will be much more University news. We intend to have part of the issue run off a day or two early so there will be no great rush at the last. By this means it is hoped to have the papers ready for delivery by half past seven or eight o'clock. Extra carriers will be put on to carry the papers."

Fred Dunbar will be sporting editor with Blair Holcomb as assistant, Leslie Tooze is the business manager and Max Sommers city editor.

PLAY FOLLOWS BALL CONTEST

STREET CARS WILL BE WAITING AT CLOSE OF GAME FRIDAY

"STRIFE" WILL BEGIN AT 8:45

O. A. C.-U. of O. Basketball Game Will Be Called at 7:15 So Students Can Attend Drama League Play.

Street cars will be waiting at the door of the gymnasium after the Oregon-Corvallis basketball game Friday night to carry the crowd at once to the Eugene theatre where the curtain will rise for "Strife" at 8:45. The basketball game will commence at 7:15 and will be over in time for the play.

Two boxes have been reserved for the two basketball teams, and they have been decorated in the colors of the respective schools.

Tickets for "Strife" are now on sale. Seat reservations can be obtained Thursday.

Third Time in America.

This is the third time that "Strife" has been played in America, although in Europe it is well-known. One performance was given in New York, and the first two-thirds of the play given in Philadelphia, when the police interfered. This was during a strike in Philadelphia and the police were afraid of violence as a result of the effect of the play on the strikers.

Hunger Dance Feature.

The hunger dance of the "Wants," or the "Dance of the Starving Women," is expected to be one of the most novel and dramatic features ever attempted in Eugene. The theme of the play is brought out in as striking a manner as in the play itself. Alberta Campbell will play Plenty in the dance, and Lucile Watson, Martha Beer, Norma Doble, Kate Schaefer, Merle McCloskey, Lucia Macklin, Effie Rhodes, Edith Still, Hazel Rader, Flora Simons, Mildred Lucas will be the starving women.

TWENTY DATES GRANTED

Student Affairs Committee Holds Regular Meeting.

The Student Affairs Committee, composed of the faculty members, Miss Guppy, Dr. Straub, Dr. Smith and Prof. Bovard, and student members, Bess Cowden, Edith Still, Robert McCormack and Charles Fowler, at the last meeting, February 18, granted the following dates:

February 27—Dramatic League play.

February, 28—Avava, Beth Reah, Alpha Tau Omega and Mary Spiller dances.

March 6—Junior masquerade.

March 14—Delta Gamma, Chi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta and To-Ko-Lo dances.

March 20—Phi Delta Theta, Kappa Sigma and Sigma Chi dances.

March 21—Women's Glee Club concert.

March 27—Orchestra concert.

March 27—Y. M. C. A. dinner, 6-8.

March 28—Pan-Hellenic dance.

April 3—Freshman and Sophomore debate and dance.

April 4—April frolic.

April 25—Beta Theta Pi dance.

The subscriptions for the Oregon will be closed Friday evening and every one who wishes to take advantage of the two dollar and a half rate must subscribe before that time as the price will be three dollars from Saturday on to the publication of the book.

FIVE FEATURES PLANNED FOR JUNIOR MASQUERADE

Dancers Remove Masks at 10:30. Prizes Offered for Best Costumes

"With five feature dances and offering five prizes for best costumes the Junior Mask will be one of the best informal dances ever pulled off on the campus," declared "Buck" Bigbee, chairman of the dance committee.

The dance will be strictly informal; all are invited to come and either dance or look on. No one will be allowed to dance without a mask, either before or after the masks are taken off at 10:30.

Admission will be 50 cents for dancers and 25 cents for spectators.

STUDENT BODY WILL MEET AT REGULAR ASSEMBLY

Constitutional Amendment of Senior Committee to Be Presented Tomorrow

An amendment to the Student-Body constitution, providing for the establishment of a student council, will be presented at the regular meeting of the associated students, to be held in Villard Hall at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The meeting will take the place of the regular assembly, and will occupy the entire hour. The first half hour will be devoted to the presentation of sweaters to the football men who made their "O's" last season. It is planned to accompany the presentation with a short ceremony. The men who will be awarded sweaters are: Wallace Canfield, William Holden, Carl Fenton, Sam Cook, Elmer Hall, Robert Bradshaw, John Beckett, Oscar Weist, Anson Cornell, Ray Bryant, John Parsons and Leo Malarkey.

It is also announced that the Women's Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Ralph Lyman, will sing the new alma mater song for the first time. This was the song written by Leland Hendricks, '15, during the recent alma mater song contest.

The last half hour will be given up to regular student-body business. The first business to be considered will be the student council amendment, which will be introduced by Willard Shaver.

SOCCER TEAM MAY PLAY JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL

If Date With Columbia Cannot Be Arranged, Team Will Meet Jefferson

The soccer situation at the University is still in the air as far as games with outside teams are concerned, according to Manager Dean Walker.

"Columbia wanted a date in early March," said the manager, "but we could not give it to them. Since then we have offered other dates but have heard nothing. Unless an answer is received soon we will make arrangements with Jefferson High of Portland, which wants a game. It is desirous of playing us and it is likely we can play at least two games, one here and one in Portland."

COACH BEZDEK WILL SPEAK

First of Y. M. C. A. New Series of Lectures Tomorrow Night.

Coach Hugo Bezdek will be the first speaker of the "First Aid to the Injured" series which begins tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in Deady Hall. His subject will be "The Physical Efficiency of the Individual." This series of lectures should appeal to all the students, as there are times when knowledge of what to do in an emergency is highly essential. It is to put such knowledge within the reach of the students of the University that the Y. M. C. A. has arranged for the series.

WOMEN'S GLEE ON FIRST TRIP

CLUB WILL GIVE CONCERT AT COTTAGE GROVE MARCH 4

SAME PROGRAM FOR EUGENE

Graduate Manager Predicts a Successful Year. Expenses of First Trip Guaranteed. Other Trips Will Pay.

The Women's Glee Club will leave Eugene for Cottage Grove next Wednesday afternoon, March, on its first regular concert tour. Miss Mary Perkins will accompany the club as chaperon. The Glee Club will return to Eugene Wednesday night immediately after the concert at the High School.

"The High School is a very hard place in which to give the concert," said Prof. Ralph Lyman yesterday. "There will be no scenery at all for the special features, and that will make it hard for the girls."

"The program will carry 15 numbers. Some of the features which we shall give in our Eugene concert will be left out Wednesday, although in the main the program will be the same as the one here on March 21.

"The whole club will take part in the 'stunts,' and there will be no individual ones, as there were last year.

Special Numbers Planned.

"We are planning a quartette. Eva Brock, Marie Churchill, Leah Perkins, Zella Knox and Virginia Peterson will each have a solo. Mona Dougherty will give an instrumental solo, and I shall probably give a few numbers, too."

"I am expecting a successful year," said Graduate-Manager Walker, yesterday. "Our expenses to Cottage Grove are guaranteed, and I believe we will make expenses on the other trips. The Glee Club will probably go to Monmouth, Corvallis, Independence and Roseburg sometime this spring."

Daily Practices Held.

The Glee Club practices daily in Villard Hall, and a dress rehearsal will be held Tuesday, when the last instructions will be given for the Cottage Grove trip.

"We are all ready and anxious to go on this trip," said Catharine Carson, the manager, yesterday. "I feel sure the concert will prove a success, because all the girls are doing their best to make it so."

The personnel of the Women's Glee Club is: First sopranos, Eva Brock, Margaret Spangler, Virginia Peterson, Wilma Young, Mae Norton; second sopranos, Mabel Withers, Kate Schaefer, Lois Parks, Marie Churchill, Katherine Kirkpatrick, Helen Kust, first altos, Rita Fraley, Catharine Carson, Emma Wootton, Burree McConnahy, Miriam Tinker, Lucile Yorlan; second altos, Myrtle Toby, Irene Rugh, Leah Perkins, Zella Knox, Florence Johnson, Charlie Fenton; Mona Dougherty, pianist.

WOMEN'S MEETING.

Three important questions to be discussed by the Women's League immediately after Assembly Wednesday morning are, the adoption of the Point System, Shall the League join the Federation of Women's clubs in Oregon and shall the League incorporate.

Every woman in the University is urged to attend the meeting and cast a vote.
