LARGE EASTERN UNIVERSITY PLANS FOR NEW DEPARTMENT

HARRINGTON NAMED DEAN

Well-Known Newspaper Man and Writer Who Has Been Professor in the English Department to Take Charge.

Announcement is made by President Thwing of Western Reserve University of the appointment of Harry F. Harrington, of the department of English, of Ohio State University, as dean for the School of Journalism which will be opened in the university in September. Mr. Harrington did his undergraduate work in Ohio State University, graduating in 1905 and was special university scholar in English in Columbia University, from which he received the degree of Master of Arts, in 1909. He has had reportorial, editorial and other journalistic experience, and has been a college teacher in Ohio Wesleyan University and in Ohio State University. He began the teaching of journalism in Ohio Wesleyan University. From an advanced English class of nineteen members in Ohio State University, he organized courses in journalism, now numbering 115 students. He is the author of "Essentials in Journalism," a text book now used in the School of Journalism in Columbia University. His newspaper experience has been on town and city newspapers, and on university and other magazines. He was editor of the London Ohio Times, and was on the staff of the Ohio State Journal. He is a member of the Buckeye Press Association, Ohio College Press Association, Columbus Press Club, Ohio Club, and other organizations.

To Open in September.

The School of Journalism will be opened in September, 1914. The purpose of the school will be to give professional education to those proposing to become journalists. The school will be a graduate school and the courses will cover one year, at the conclusion of which a degree will be given. Mr. Dan R. Hanna, of Cleveland, has offered $10,000 a year toward the support of the department. This annual fund will supplement the tuition fees of $125 a student.

The school will be housed in a special suite of rooms which will be fitted up for the purpose on the first floor of Adelbert Hall. These rooms will include editorial offices, a reading room where all newspapers of importance will be on file, a local room fitted out with typewriters, telephones and other equipment, and with an experienced newspaper man in charge as the "city editor." He will send out students in news collecting to "cover" actual stories throughout the city and will be as exacting as the man on the "desk" in the office of the city daily paper. Stories, when submitted, will be criticised and lectures will be given on the practical work of collecting and writing news. Emphasis will be placed upon thoroughness and actual practice. The school will receive the co-operation of the Cleveland newspapers. The mechanics of the newspaper will be demonstrated by taking students to newspaper plants where they will study the operation of linotypes, presses, electrotypes, prints and other mechanical details, where they will study circulation and other newspaper problems.

Other Courses Included.

In addition to the reportorial course, courses will be given on the history of the development of the editorial, with a discussion of great newspapers and master journalists in England and America. A course will be given on the history of the American newspaper, and other courses on advertising, the history and making of the cartoon, newspaper jurisprudence, the country newspaper, the problems of the mechanical make-up, equipment, paper, cost systems, composition, "patent insides," circulation and editorial control. An effort will be made to train men for service on both city and country journals. Much emphasis

STUDENT COUNCIL WILL PLAN JUNIOR WEEK-END

First Meeting of Newly Created Body Will Be Held Saturday.

The first meeting of the new student council will be held next Saturday morning at which time plans for Junior Week-end will be made.

This council will work with the Graduate-manager and the heads of the committees of the Junior class which have the week-end in charge and will formulate plans and make arrangements for the entertainment of the several hundred high school athletes who will be here as guests of the University at that time.

A number of new ideas have been suggested this year for a more satisfactory handling of such a large delegation and these will probably be taken up this time and something definite will be done.

This council now consists of 12 students, eight of whom were elected recently by the student body, and eight others who hold their positions as heads of prominent student-body activities. The members now are: V. T. Motschenbacher, chairman; Norma Doble, secretary; Henry Fowler, Eleanor McClaine, Wallace Caulfield, Delbert Stanard, Alfred Davies, Edith Still, Hazel Rader, Fred Hardesty, Tommy Boylen and Beulah Stebno.

VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT SECRETARY VISITS HERE

C. G. Hounshell Speaks at Y. M. Y. W. Meetings About Work

C. G. Hounshell, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement of the World, arrived Monday and spent that day on the campus visiting the students and speaking at a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. at four o'clock in the Y. W. Bungalow. He left Monday evening for the University of California where he will make a short stay and while in California will visit most of the colleges in that state. The University concludes a visit he has made of all the colleges and universities of the Willamette Valley. From California he will go eastward stopping at the Pacific Grove Student Conference to be held March 28 to April 5.

Speaking about his work, Mr. Hounshell said, "The Kansas City convention recently closed was the rallying of the forces of the Student Volunteer Movement in North America. Seven hundred and fifty-five of the larger institutions of the continent were represented. It was the largest student conference ever held in the world.

"I have calls from the various fields for 700 college graduates. It is hoped that some of these positions will be filled. You have a student volunteer band here, 'The New Era in Asia,' written by Sherwood Eddy, who has spent years in Asia and is a leading student of the world, is discussed in the meetings of the volunteer band now."

The men of the Dormitory entertained Sunday at dinner the following guests: Miss Nellie Newland, Miss Mary Baker, Miss Vera Moffat, Miss Ferris Drill, Miss Carry Koyle, Miss Beulah Stebno, Miss Edna Holman, Miss Calla Beck, Miss Lucile Fenton, Miss Echo Zahl, Miss Marie Allen, Miss Hays, Miss Sparkman and Mrs. W. K. Livingston.

As a result of the "clean up" movement started by "The Daily Illini," 700 students of the University of Illinois wielded shovels, picks, hoes, etc., cleaning the streets of Champaign and Urbana of slush and mud.

will be placed upon training newspaper men for filling a large place in towns where they may wield power and influence.

The dean will have the assistance of an instructor who will handle the introductory courses in news collecting and writing, and of special men for special courses. Cleveland newspaper men and others from a distance will lecture before the students of the school. In accepting the appointment as dean of the new department, Professor Harrington declared Cleveland to be unexcelled as a working field for the training which the new department may be expected to give.

HANDBALL GAMES ARE ONE SIDED

LAST YEAR'S CHAMPION BEAT ALPHA TAU OMEGA

FINALS WILL BE CLOSE

Sigma Chi Defeats Dorm Club; Kappa Sigma vs. Delta Tau Delta, Phi Gamma Delta vs. Sigma Nu Today.

The doughnut handball tournament started in full swing Monday afternoon, when four of the matches were played.

All the games were extremely one sided, but a few of the handball enthusiasts look with anxious calculations to the semi-finals, Thursday, March 19. With Early and Watson, representing the Sigma Chi fraternity, receiving a place in the semi-finals, by defeating Hardesty and Arthur Runquist of the Dorm, two straight games with scores of 21 to 3 and 21 to 4; and with Casebeer and Kuck, the Oregon Club representatives and present holders of the Hayward cup, receiving a place in the semi-finals by beating Pobst and Sweek, representatives of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, two games, with scores of 21 to 0 and 21 to 8, the semi-finals promise to present some of the most interesting games ever staged on the local court.

The schedule for Tuesday is as follows:

Kappa Sigma vs. Delta Tau Delta.
Phi Gamma Delta vs. Sigma Nu.

DR. STUART RECIPIENT OF A LOAF OF BREAD

Pure Food Offering Comes Through Mail to Physiological Director.

Dr. Bertha Stuart received through the mail yesterday morning a rather unusual communication in the form of a miniature loaf of French bread. That it was sent from some one in this city is evident from the 1-cent postage stamp perched upon a fragment of the hardened crust.

Upon the side opposite the address was written, "Pure Food for Girls," and in another place, "Submitted for Analysis."

Prof. Sweetser denies that he has had anything to do with the sending of it.

A Texas university has a secret society composed entirely of preachers' sons. An educational institution of Indiana boasts of a fraternal society composed of red-headed men. A college in New Jersey has an organization devoted to the amelioration of the life and condition of the fat man of the college. Now if some genius would only come along and organize a national fraternity of red-headed fat men who are sons of preachers, the cause of righteousness, liberty and the like ought to receive a big boost.
