

ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERT

SECOND ANNUAL APPEARANCE TAKES PLACE FRIDAY NIGHT

ALBERT GILLETE WILL SING

Miss Winifred Forbes, Director of Orchestra, Promises Good Concert. New World Symphony Is Big Number.

The University orchestra, under the direction of Miss Winifred Forbes, instructor of violin in the Department of Music, will give its second annual concert in Villard Hall, on Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Since its organization last year the orchestra has been progressing rapidly, until now it is one of the strongest musical organizations in the University.

"The members are doing better work now than ever before," said Miss Forbes, yesterday, "and we hope to present to our audience on Friday night a concert better in every respect than the one given last year. The orchestra is doing more difficult music now; it has a better selection of work to offer and in fact, it is superior in every way."

The orchestra will be assisted by Prof. Ralph H. Lyman and Mr. Albert Gillette, both of whom will give several vocal numbers.

The program to be given is as follows:

1. Festival Procession.....Jensen
2. Largo from the New World Symphony.....Dvorak
3. Overture from "William Tell".....Rossini
4. Allah.....Chadwick
Du Bist Wie Eine Blume.....Chadwick
The Danza.....Chadwick
Mr. Albert Gillette
5. Norwegian Dances, Nos. 1 and 2.....Grieg
6. Legende.....Wienlawski
Miss Forbes.
7. Fantasia from "La Boheme".....Puccini
8. I Send My Heart Up to Thee.....Mrs. H. H. A. Beach
Ah, Love but a Day!.....Mrs. H. H. A. Beach
The Year's at the Spring.....Mrs. H. H. A. Beach
Mr. Ralph H. Lyman.
9. Pomp and Circumstance.....Elgar
Orchestra.

"The largo from the New World Symphony is a great favorite among music lovers everywhere," declared Miss Forbes, "and is played by the famous orchestras of the country in nearly all their large concerts. The Symphony was composed in Iowa by Dvorak, a Bohemian composer, who came to America to get the original settings for this work. It consists of negro melodies, of which the Largo is perhaps the most beautiful movement. Pomp and Circumstance and the Fantasia from 'La Boheme' are two other numbers which are also very popular."

The names of the members of the orchestra follow:

- First violins, George O'Donnell, Mrs. Nina Nicklin Sweet, Minnie Schwarzschild, Irma Vance, Melba Williams, Irene Sullivan.
- Second violins, Meta Goldsmith, Helen Kust, Leta Mast, Ralph Ash, Charles Runyon, Bertram Thompson.
- Cello, Harry Devereaux.
- Double bass, Leonard Groos.
- First cornet, C. S. Cochran.
- Second cornet, Lloyd Bellman.
- Flute, French Moore.
- Clarinet, William Livingstone.
- French Horn, Dan Marsters.
- Trombone, Bertram Jerard.
- Timpani, Bertie Ruth.
- Piano, Ruth Davis.

A. Burrell Cash, '13, recently suffered a loss of $100 on the destruction of his private library in a fire which also destroyed the new high school building at Grass Valley where he was principal.

Wallace Caulfield has been appointed as a member of the Athletic Council by President Motschenbacher of the student-body to take the place of Elmer Hall, who has left the University.

2500 UNBOUND VOLUMES OF MAGAZINES IN LIBRARY

Duplicates Distributed to Various Libraries and High Schools of State

Twenty-five hundred unbound volumes representing 90 different periodicals of all months of the year as far back as 1890 are to be found upon the book shelves in the basement of the Library.

"Owing to the lack of space no special effort has been made to enlarge the number of volumes," said Mr. Douglass. "However, with the new addition to the Library, more room will be given over to them in the future."

"These periodicals have been given to the Library by various members of the faculty and people in Eugene. A great many times duplicate copies are sent in. These are sent to other Libraries and High Schools. Last summer a number of volumes were sent to the Springfield High School and a great many were sent to the State Library to be distributed.

"Numerous requests have been sent in to the Librarian from various towns in Oregon for the use of these periodicals. A great many of these requests have been from former University students."

Some of the periodicals most in demand are the following:

The Atlantic Monthly, World's Work, Collier's, The Craftsman, Educational Review, Outlook, Review of Reviews, Manual Training Magazine, Survey and the Sunset.

SWAT THE FLY CAMPAIGN SUCCEEDS, SAYS SCHAFFER

Dr. Hodge's Bulletin on House Fly Will Soon Be Ready—To Be Used in Schools

"Swat the Fly Campaign" has proven very successful," says Dr. Joseph Schaffer, "and the Bulletin on the House Fly is now being printed and will be ready for distribution within a few days."

Dr. C. F. Hodge, assisted by Professor A. R. Sweetser, has been delivering a series of lectures in different parts of the state explaining how to get rid of the flies and have Oregon a flyless state. His theory is to kill off the breeders and it will naturally follow that no more flies will come into existence.

This bulletin that has been prepared by Dr. Hodge will be especially large edition according to Dr. Schaffer, because it is to be distributed all over the state and be used as a sort of a text book in the grade schools. The purpose of this is to educate the children in bringing about the perfection of a flyless state.

"There is a great demand from the people of Oregon," says Dr. Schaffer, "for this pamphlet. The booklet will be made up of eight pages with a few cuts showing how to catch the fly and destroy him. Detailed explanation concerning the flies is given so that every reader can easily understand."

Dr. Hodge is lecturing tonight in Lexington in connection with the Extension work, while Professor Sweetser is speaking to the Roseburg Mental Culture Club on mentalism in its relation to eugenics.

STUDENTS GO IN FOR ACTIVITIES

OVER HALF OF OREGON MEN DO EXTRA CURRICULA WORK

FOOTBALL AND TRACK LEAD

Baseball, The Emerald, Glee Club, Soccer, Dramatics and Basketball Are Next in Ranking Among Student Activities

With over 50 per cent of all men registered in the University out for some Student-Body activity, the advantages of medium-sized colleges in relation to student participation in such affairs, is exemplified at Oregon. Recent statistics compiled at Pennsylvania show only about one-third of the male students engaged in any kind of extra-curricular activities, and other large colleges show the same small proportion.

There are approximately 400 men enrolled in the University at present, 210 of whom are actively engaged in athletics, on publications, or in other forms of college work. Many of these men are taking part in two, three or even four different activities, making the total for participants in the various forms of endeavor show, according to unofficial figures, 276 names.

Athletics Popular.

Athletic teams head the list as the most popular forms of student activities, but are closely followed by publications, and the Glee Club. Football and track, with a total of 35 candidates for each team, out during the most of the season, top the list. These figures do not take into account the men who went out for a day or two, nor do they include the football men who are not in college this semester.

Baseball, with 30 candidates, leads The Emerald, with its staff, upon which there are 28 men, for third-place honors. The Glee Club, with 25 members, is next in order, closely followed by soccer, for which a total of 24 men, reported at various times during the season.

Dramatics Ranks High.

Dramatics, with approximately 23 devotees, among the male members of the Student-Body, ranks ahead of basketball, debate and oratory, tennis, Oregon and wrestling, which follow in the order named.

There are 197 men in the University who take no part in any kind of Student-Body activities, while, on the other hand, there are about 40 who take part in more than one activity, and 20 or more who take part in at least three.

The men in the University are divided among the classes as follows: Seniors, 66; Juniors, 53; Sophomores, 80; Freshmen, 40. However, the proportion of members of each class who go out for Student-Body activities is about the same for all classes, with the exception of the Seniors, who have a proportion a little larger than the others.

Queening Not Included.

Following is the complete list with number out for each of the important activities. The newer ones, such as wrestling and soccer, are naturally low this year, while the totals for basketball and football are cut down by not including class teams.

Football, 35; track, 35; baseball, 30; Emerald, 28; Soccer, 24; Glee Club, 25; Dramatics, 23; basketball, 20; debate and oratory, 17; tennis, 15; Oregon, 12, and wrestling, 12.

If fusing counted as a Student-Body activity, it would easily be first in such a ranking, as an incomplete study of the list of men gives a total of 38 steady fusers.
