

ACTORS MAKE FINAL PLANS

DRAMA LEAGUE WILL START SOUTHERN TOUR ON APRIL 13

PROF. REDDIE TRAINS TROUPE

Five Towns Will Be Played on Consecutive Nights. "The Professor's Love Story" Is Only Production to Be Given.

Final arrangements for the big tour of Southern Oregon which is to be taken during spring vacation by the University of Oregon Drama League, are being made and the players will be in readiness by April 13 when the first appearance of "The Professor's Love Story" is to be made at Junction City.

The cast is working hard and rehearsals are held several times a week in order that the players may be prepared in the best manner to put on the show. Professor A. F. Reddie is directing the play and will take the part of Professor Goodwillie.

A great deal of advertising is to be done in order that the best of houses may be secured. Bills and posters of all sorts are to be printed and sent ahead to the places of appearance where they will be scattered broadcast. The present itinerary is as follows: Junction City, April 13; Grants Pass, April 15; Gold Hill, April 16; Ashland, April 17, and Medford, April 18. J. Frederick Thorne is managing the trip for the Dramatic league.

The play, "The Professor's Love Story," is a comedy in three acts written by J. M. Barrie. The scenes are laid in London and Scotland and portray vividly the life of the common people in that country.

The characters that have been chosen to fill the cast, given in the order of their appearances on the stage, are:

- Effie, Scotch servant of the Goodwillie's.....Ellice Shearer, '14
- Lucy White, an English girl, Professor's secretary Norma Dobie, '14
- Dr. Cozens, old friend of the Professor's.....Henry Howe, '17
- Professor Goodwillie...Prof. Reddie
- Lady Mildred, (age 26), wife of Sir Geo. Gilding, Beulah Stebno, '15
- Emly, Dowager Lady Gilding (age 26), Sir George's step-mother.....Effie Rhodes, '15
- Pete, a Scotch harvester, in love with Effie...Edison Marshall, '17
- Henders, another lover of Effie's.....Earl Bronaugh, '16
- Agnes Goodwillie, Professor's sister.....Janet Young, '14
- Dr. Yellowleaves, a Modernist.....George Colton, '17

The cast will leave the city just before vacation, playing at the various towns where dates for the play have been arranged and will return following the last appearance at Medford on April 18. Special scenery is being prepared for the production and this will be carried along to aid in the presentation of the play.

APRIL 8 WILL BE DATE OF EUTAXIAN ASSEMBLY HOUR

Literary Society Will Give Musical Program and Playlet

The Eutaxian Assembly hour on April 8 will consist of two parts, according to Lucia Macklin, president of the society. The first part will be musical selections. One of these will be a duet by Eva Brock and Virginia Peterson. A playlet, "Hartville Shakespeare Club" will cover the last half hour of the program.

The amount available for needy students at the University of Washington is $3000.

HABIT PLACES HAYWARD IN DANGER OF SUICIDE

Bill Pulls Trigger and Wounds Finger During Blissful Day-Dream

Starting an imaginary sprinter on an imaginary track in an imaginary hundred-yard dash resulted in no imaginary results to track Coach Hayward yesterday afternoon when he shot himself through the fleshy part of the index finger on his left hand.

Bill had left the gymnasium and was walking out to the grounds to commence the afternoon's training. He held his pistol loaded with blanks pointed into the palm of his left hand and toyed with the trigger with his right. So completely did his thoughts become absorbed in track that they became realistic, and ere he could control his force of habit, the trigger had been pulled and thewad had cut a gash half through the finger.

"It was just force of habit," he said. "I was walking along and thinking of a track man and the gun went off. I guess I must have pulled the trigger."

SECOND MAMMOTH WILL BE BROUGHT TO EUGENE

Prof. Mitchell to Visit Farm Where It First Was Discovered

During the week Prof. G. J. Mitchell, of the Department of Geology, expects to go to the Farrington place, the farm on which the remains of the two mammoths have been found during the past two weeks, and dig out the bone of the mammoth last discovered.

Mammoth No. 2 was discovered by O. W. Lucas, who told Professor A. J. Collier, of the find Saturday afternoon while the latter was on the Farrington farm to get the tusk and tooth of the first Mammoth discovered a week ago Monday by Sammy Beer, son of Principal W. A. Beer, of the Condon school.

The bone of second mammoth shows but a few inches above the ground and, according to Professor Mitchell, it will require considerable care to remove it without injury. The bone will be brought to Eugene and placed in the University Museum.

The tusk of Mammoth No. 1 has been placed in a plaster of Paris cast in order to prevent crumbling. Only the middle section of the tusk remains, the two ends being either broken off or decomposed. The section is about 31 inches long.

BIBLE STUDY SECRETARY WILL VISIT VARSITY Y. M.

H. S. Elliott Will Confer With Cabinet and Speak in Deady Hall

Harrison S. Elliott, otherwise known as "Sunny" Elliott, general secretary of the International Committee for Bible Study, will be here all day Wednesday, April 8. At the regular meeting at 4:45 he will confer with the Y. M. C. A. cabinet on its work. He will meet the Bible Study committee and he will speak at the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at 7 o'clock in Deady Hall.

Mr. Elliott is successor of Sedgwick Cooper, former head of the Association work. Mr. Cooper visited here from New York city three years ago. Mr. Elliott has had extended travels in Asia and as Charles Koyl says, "He is well fitted to give us a good talk. He is what I call an association live wire."

Ernest Williams has returned from Independence.

Charles S. Olsen, ex '12, is visiting at the Phi Delta Theta house.

Fred Hardesty was a guest for lunch at the Sigma Nu house Tuesday.

APRIL FROLIC PLANS MADE

HOT DOGS AND STUNTS WILL FEATURE IN WOMEN'S GATHERING

PRIZES ARE TO BE GIVEN

All Men Are Barred Either as Participants or as Spectators. Triple "A" Stunt Was the Best Last Year.

The fifth annual April Frolic will be participated in by the women of the University, enlivened by hot dogs and thirteen stunts, next Saturday night in the Men's Gymnasium.

"The Frolic is a general good time for the women of the University," says Meta Goldsmith, vice-president of the Women's League, who has the affair in charge. Each sorority, the women of the Oregon Club, Mary Spiller Hall, and the women of the faculty will put on a stunt about five minutes long. A committee of judges will decide which is the best.

Hot dogs will be the repast of the evening after the staging of the stunts. Then all the women will have a manless dance, for no men are to be admitted to the Frolic. Women spectators will be charged 25 cents.

The Frolic will start with a grand march at 7:30 p. m., followed by the stunts.

Programs will be circulated tomorrow on the campus, describing in rhymed couplets each stunt.

"Each of the various houses is working hard to put on the start stunt and indications are that the Frolic will be lively from start to finish," said Miss Goldsmith.

Last year the prize stunt was that of the Triple A Society. The girls went as "red devils" in union suits dyed red.

Three other girls came disguised as cats and would not disclose their identity, for their only response to all queries was "Meow!" It was thought that they were men, perhaps, using this ruse to get into the Frolic. A number of the women begged them to tell who they were, but still the same feline answer, "Meow!" Even the women of the faculty could bring no other sound from them. When some one lifted the mask from the face of one of the "cats," it was seen that they were really girls and entitled to admission.

SOPHS FAIL TO ACT ON CAMPUS SMOKING

Editor and Manager of 1915 Oregana to Be Held Next Week

The sophomore class meeting held Wednesday was taken up largely by the address of Dr. E. S. Conklin, but some business was also considered.

Fred Hardesty, representing the student council, gave the class a short talk on the suggestion which has been made as to the smoking on the edge of the campus. He stated that the council was not trying to force this onto the students but he pointed out that since a number of complaints have been made regarding this, both from outside the University and from within that it would be wise for the class to take action on the matter in an effort to do away with at least some of it. No action was taken on the matter by the class.

The under-class mix also came up for some discussion and a report of the committee in charge was given by Joe Gilpin in which he pleaded for aid from all members of the class to make the affair a great success.

A date for the election of the editor and manager of the 1916 Oregana was set and will be held next week.

WOMAN'S WAY USUALLY WINS

HOW "THE SEX" MANAGES IT THIS TIME WILL BE SHOWN FRIDAY

JANET YOUNG LEADS CAST

Problem Play Intersperses Comedy With Efforts of Wife to Reform Her Husband. Seat Sale Will Be Big.

(By Edison Marshall)

The Dramatic Club will make its annual appearance tomorrow night in "A Woman's Way" at the Eugene Theatre. The seat sale opened at 10:30 today and according to Manager Dimm it is satisfactory. The curtain will go up at 8:30.

"A Woman's Way" is an American problem play, with much comedy interspersed. The part of Marion Stanton, as the woman who has her way, is played by Janet Young. Her husband, Howard Stanton, has taken a wild joy-ride and the newspaper men want the story. Marion knows that if her husband's orgies get into the papers she will be unable to reform him and will be forced to get a divorce. It requires all her cleverness to outwit the reporters. An old sweetheart, Oliver Whitney, appears, and Marion responds to his pretended lovemaking to make her husband jealous. She is at last successful and he reforms.

Harold Quigley plays Mr. Lynch, a persistent reporter. Bernice Cogswell plays the indulgent mother of Howard. The part played by Janet Young is one of the most difficult roles she has yet attempted, but Professor Reddie believes her interpretation of Mrs. George in "Getting Married" and Annie Roberts in "Strife" shows her fit for the part. Ralph Ash will play Howard Stanton. "A Woman's Way" has had long successful runs in New York and other cities.

The cast is as follows:
Marion Stanton.....Janet Young
Howard Stanton.....Ralph Ash
Mr. Lynch.....Harold Quigley
Sallie Livingston.....Norma Dobie
Mrs. Stanton.....Marjorie Cogswell
Mrs. Belle Morris.....Emma Wootton
Mrs. Livingston.....Margaret Pratt
Mrs. Blackmore.....Catharine Carson
Bob Livingston.....Bert Jerard
Oliver Whitney.....Cleve Simkins
Mr. Morris.....Willard Shaver
Wilson.....Milton Stoddard

BAKER PLAYS O. A. C. TODAY INSTEAD OF OREGON NINE

Walker May Schedule Practice Games With Chemawa and Mt. Angel

This week is being taken up in practice games between the first and second baseball team squads whenever the men are able to appear on the field. The games which were to have been played with Baker did not materialize as Baker men went to Corvallis today after their manager had given Walker to understand that they would play here Thursday instead of Wednesday if he desired it.

Walker is now attempting to schedule more games for the weekend and it is possible that either the team will go to Chemawa or that Mt. Angel or Dallas will come here.

It is probable that three games will be played with the Helena club in Portland on April 13, 14 and 15, on the Varsity's trip to Seattle where they meet Washington in the first conference games of the year. The trip will be taken during spring vacation.

Students of Iowa University are contemplating a mass meeting to persuade the president, Mr. Bowman, to reconsider his resignation.

16 LOST OREGANA PAGES MAKE HENDRICKS WORK

Editor Now Faces Problem of Duplicating Articles in Misplaced Copy

To add to the various and sundry difficulties that beset an editor anyway, Lee Hendricks, the present editor of the Oregana, thinks that his share has already been allotted him and he is not kicking against any shortage on the account either.

Just when everything was practically ready for first of the book which was to be set up and put on the press and which was being held up in waiting for the paper to arrive, what happens but that the first sixteen pages of the book have to disappear.

Somehow in the shuffle at the printing office, these first sixteen pages including a fine poem and dedication have come up missing and the problem which Lee now has on his hands is the duplication of the articles. This is an extremely difficult feat and it is probable that an exact duplication cannot be made.

"CRAFTSMAN" NAME OF NEW MASONIC ORGANIZATION

Masons of the University Form a Club and Elect Their Officers

"CRAFTSMEN" NAME—III—

"Craftsmen" is the name of a new Masonic society that was organized Tuesday evening by members of the faculty and students who hold membership in the order.

The object of the new club is purely social. Two regular meetings will be held each year, and others will be called from time to time. The meetings will probably be held in connection with banquets.

At present there are 17 members of the faculty and 14 students who are eligible to membership in the society.

Practically every University in the United States of any size has a Masonic club of some character. There is a possibility that the "Craftsmen" may later petition one of the national Masonic college fraternities. Several of the faculty are members of the Acacia fraternity.

The officers of the society for the remainder of the year are: A. R. Tiffany, president; Dr. K. M. Dallenbach, vice-president; Otto Helder, secretary-treasurer.

SENIORS PLAN TO WIPE OUT OREGANA DEFICIT

Ways and Means Committee Appointed by President Grout

The chief business transacted at the Senior class meeting yesterday was in regard to the Oregana deficit incurred last year. After hearing a detailed report from the manager of the book, President Alie Grout appointed a ways and means committee of fifteen members, to consider methods for relieving the class of this financial burden amounting to several hundred dollars.

The committee consists of the following members: Willard Shaver, chairman; Eleanor McClaine, Norma Graves, Catharine Carson, Florence Avery, Rose Basler, Don Rice, Earl Hughes, Charles Fowler, Alfred Collier, Hawley Bean, Alfred Davies, Colton Meek, Wallace Benson and Charles Reynolds. Immediate steps towards ridding the class of its debt will be taken and the committee will hold its first meeting in a few days to consider ways and means.

The report of Manager Bean showed that a number of large advertisers had backed out at the last moment, and this fact in connection with accounts which were uncollectable made the deficit so large.

At the next meeting of the class definite arrangements for commencement and a class memorial will probably be made.

CLUB RETURNS FROM JOURNEY

SINGERS REPORT ONLY FAIR HOUSES BUT WARM WELCOMES

CORVALLIS AUDIENCE LARGE

O. A. C. Warblers, Who Have Well-Balanced Club Will Appear in Eugene for Return Concert Next Tuesday Night.

The Oregon Agricultural College Glee Club will appear in this city Tuesday night at the Eugene Theatre in its annual return engagement for our concert given in that city Wednesday night. The college is reported to have an exceptionally well balanced club this year.

Oregon Club Returns.

The Oregon Glee Club returned this afternoon from its tour which included Portland, Albany and Corvallis. Following Sunday and Monday when the club appeared in several places in the Rose City, the men journeyed to Albany where they appeared at Albany college and in concert that night in the theatre. The members of the club report a fair house and a warm welcome. The papers treated the club well.

On Wednesday the club went to Corvallis where appearances were made at the high school, the college convocation exercises and in concert that night in one of the churches there. The best house on the trip was had at Corvallis and the audience was very enthusiastic.

Following the concert the varsity club was tendered the annual banquet by the college club at one of the hotels. Toasts were given by the director, president and manager of the O. A. C. club which were responded to by the same officers of the varsity.

The Oregon club was met at the train by automobiles furnished by O. A. C. and was treated royally all the time it was in the city, according to reports brought back by members of the club.

Manager Walker has not yet had time to compute the expenses of the entire trip yet but thinks that he will about break.

The profits of the concerts at Corvallis and Eugene are divided equally between the two institutions and so he will be unable to tell how he is to come out until after the concert here Tuesday night.

This trip to these cities ends the season of 1913-14 for the Oregon club and is the 17th annual tour for the club since its organization.

The O. A. C. club is reported to be better than ever this year and will give a fine concert, states Manager Walker. The members will arrive in this city Tuesday afternoon and will give the concert that night in the Eugene theatre. Tickets will be on sale for the concert at the usual places and will probably be put on sale the last of this week.

ALUMNI REGISTER SOON

University Publication to Be Issued Within Three Weeks.

The last of the copy for a new alumni register has been sent to the State Printer. The book will probably be ready for distribution within the next two or three weeks.

The alumni register is issued every three years and contains the name, address and occupation with date of graduation of each alumnus of the University.

The register this year will consist of 160 pages, 20 pages more than the one issued three years ago.

The late Addison Brown of New York, has left a bequest of $5000 to Amherst college to be used as a scholarship fund.
