HAYWARD SENDS BACK BRIBES

CHECKS FOR $10.00 AND $100.00 ARE NOT ACCEPTED

Oregon's Trainer Asked to Accept Money for Special Favors Shown Former Students—Fathers in Both Cases Offer the Bribe to Hayward.

William H. Hayward, Oregon's peerless track trainer and conditioner of athletes, has, while he has been at the University of Oregon, received two bribes through the mails. Both of these have been in the form of checks, and both have been returned to their sender by Mr. Hayward, with a curt letter of refusal.

One check was for $10, and was received last winter. The other was for $100, and was received a year or so ago. Both offers were from the fathers of former University of Oregon students, who had little track ability. The bribes were conditioned upon extra attention to be given the two students, and they also requested that he young men, neither of whom are in the University at this time, be allowed to demonstrate their ability through success in competition.

The two checks were drawn in favor of William Hayward, and both were returned to the men who offered them.

DORRIS PULLS SENIOR CO-ED OUT OF DANGER

Bess Cowden Loses Bet as to the Swimming Ability of Junior.

Ben Dorris, manager of the 1915 Oregon, came near saving the life of Miss Bess Cowden, a prominent senior in the University, last Wednesday afternoon, after he had accepted her dare to try to rescue her from the Mill race while she struggled against his efforts.

As both students are excellent swimmers, a discussion arose as to the ability of Dorris to pull a person ashore against his will. The actual test was then agreed upon. Miss Cowden dove into the race late in the afternoon at Bond's boat house, and Dorris followed her, diving from the second floor of the Shack.

Miss Cowden tried to shove Dorris under, but could not, and she was instead ducked by Ben, swallowing three large gulps of water in the immersion. This bothered her. Dorris then put his arm around her neck, and won his bet by swimming to the landing.

GILBERT THROWS MUD AT PAPERS

Newspapers, according to Professor James Henry Gilbert, are nothing but "purveyors of organized gossip." Yea, verily. The Emerald-Bulletin feels flattered to think that it has even passed under the observation of the Doctor. Although the front page is no place for editorial comment, we should like to ask the Doctor what he would substitute for these "purveyors." Possibly, Edison records.

DEAN GUPPY MAY CLOSE THE GATES TO I. O. O. F. CEMETERY

Despite the tearful protests of the University "piggers," the gates of the I. O. O. F. cemetery may be closed to the public after sundown, if the petition of M. Ruth Guppy, guardian of co-eds, is heeded by the board of managers of that burying ground.

After a quiet investigation of affairs, Miss Guppy has declared the burial park to be a public nuisance and has brought the matter before a local lodge, asking them to place the lid on evening strolling through the cemetery.

Several prominent University students have formed a committee to

WALKER MAY NOT BE A CANDIDATE

Dean Walker, present graduate manager, may not be a candidate for re-election next Wednesday, when the matter of a graduate manager comes up before the executive council.

"I am waiting until the return of President P. L. Campbell from the east," Walker said, when asked concerning his intentions for next year. "Until I can confer with him, I am not able to say definitely what I will do, although it is possible that I will not seek the position again." Dean Walker has held the graduate managership for one year, succeeding Arthur M. Geary, the first graduate manager at the University.

Four have practically announced themselves as applicants for the position. They are Grover Kestley, '08, at present a hardware salesman in Portland; Vernon Motschenbacher, former president of the University student body; Walter McClure, '13, former track captain, and champion runner, and Alva Grout, at present president of the class of 1914.

CHI OMEGA POSITION IS VERY UNCERTAIN

Acting as second boy at the Chi Omega house is some job, judging from the record made by that sorority this year in hiring and firing their domestic "help."

Records kept by Charles Koyl, of the employment bureau, show that seven students of several nationalities have been given positions at that house this year. None of them stayed very long.

The "hungry seven" are Lee Bostick, Ogasawara, Lee Hoffman, John Huston, Albert Ward, Chester Betts, and Pandit.

fight the proposed closing law and will send a delegation to attend the meeting of the board, at which time the matter will be thoroughly discussed. It is not known what action Dean Guppy will take in case the petition is not granted, but it understood, upon reliable authority, that another sweeping edict is about to be issued from the office. Several co-eds when seen yesterday announced that protests would be made against the enforcement of any rules restricting their personal liberty.

STUDENTS FORGE GAME TICKETS

Graft and corruption are rife among the certain University students. Not content with swindling the student body management through ordinary means, they have stooped to cheating their fellow students, as well as themselves.

The latest method of robbery resorted to was to print a lot of bogus "I have paid" tags on a printing press owned and operated at the Phi Delta house, and then distribute the spurious tickets to the crowd at the O. A. C.—Oregon frosh baseball game. The necessary reparation was demanded and complied with.

PHI DELTAS ASKED TO GRANT CHAPTER

Varsity Students Want "Frat" at Corvallis

Everett May, prominent O. A. C. athlete and student, visited the local Phi Delta Theta chapter last Saturday. In view of the fact that May is a member of the Kappa Sigma Nu fraternity, at the Agricultural college, which is known to be petitioning for a charter of Phi Delta Theta, a number of prominent University of Oregon students drew up the following resolutions addressed to the Oregon Phi Delta chapter, and gave them to the Emerald-Bulletin for exclusive publication.

"Resolved, Whereas it is a matter of common knowledge that a local fraternity at the Oregon Agricultural College is petitioning your fraternity for a charter, and

"Whereas, We believe that it will be conducive to the continuation of good feeling between these two institutions if a national fraternity enters O. A. C., we

"Therefore, Urge the Oregon chapter of Phi Delta Theta to act favorably upon the petition of Kappa Sigma Nu."

Chi Omega week-end guests are Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Neusbaum, Miss Holmes and Miss Terry of Portland; Miss Jones and Gertrude Jones of Salem; Janette Gray of Seattle; and Miss Withycombe of Corvallis.

Celeste Faulkes and Lexy Graham of Portland are at the Chi Omega house for over the week-end.

CONFERENCE AND JUNIOR WEEK TO BE CONSIDERED

Proposal to Unite Junior Week-End With Commonwealth Conference, Will Be Subject for Student Session Next Friday Morning in Villard Hall.

Shall the brain and brawn of the high schools of the state be co-ordinate or one subordinate to the other. Shall the Junior week end activities be combined with the Commonwealth Conference in the future? These questions will be the topics for discussion at the student session of the coming Conference next Friday morning.

The plan in brief is this. High schools of the state will be asked to send educational exhibits, especially along the lines of civic and social activities and community service work. This exhibit will be Wednesday and Thursday, with the Junior week end activities, and the brawn element of the state's preparatory schools, on exhibition Friday, together with the remainder of the week end events Saturday. The baseball games and the high school exhibits will be arranged so as not to be antagonistic, in fact ample preparation will be made to have the two sides of the school work dove tail together. The idea back of the proposal is that the intellectual and physical training of the young people of the state, shall be co-ordinate, not subordinate.

A student committee, consisting of Tom Boylen, president of the student body, Bert Lombard, vice-president, Ruth Dorris, secretary, and Norma Dobie, former secretary, is at work on the details of the student session of the Commonwealth conference next Friday morning. They will select speakers, and make the other necessary arrangements to bring out an ample discussion of this plan.

CAUGHT! With the Goods

During the last few days, quite a number of students, both "Eds and Co-eds" have been seen coming out of 58 Ninth avenue east. While whispered conversations have been overheard on the campus regarding the conduct of these students, it is not generally known that this is the location of the Obak Amusement Company which is going to equip and maintain a first class amusement place for ladies as well as gentlemen. "Our own" Jack Luckey will see that "Obak" Wallace and "Sid" Smith conduct the bowling alleys, and other amusements in a proper manner.
