

VOSPERS IS DEBUTANT AT FIRST PRACTICE

Newly Chosen Yell Leader Says He Wants More Men Next Time

Yell Chief Vosper, with the assistance of Don Orput and Jack Dolph, assembled the masculine side of the Student Body for the first yell practice last Thursday. The only lacking feature seemed to be the Frosh, who were corraled at the class meeting in Dr. Straub's room and who marched over to the field later 150 strong.

"I want more men to come out here and yell," says the chief. "They must yell. It is not only for the games, but to liven up the Student Body and to create some spirit. We want to bury all the old stuff and get some new pep and ginger into the rooting this fall.

"If possible, I want to have one meeting a week, probably Tuesday evening, of both men and women, in Villard, to practice both yells and songs. This will help to get the Student Body together and instill pep as nothing else can" up two Freshmen, as against one Sophomore.

The sandbag contest was won by the Sophomores after a stubborn carried 15 bags over their goal line, while the total number secured by the Frosh was 13.

The flag rush, which followed next, proved the most exciting of any event. It ended with the Sophomore colors hauled to the ground by the Frosh.

The water fight was declared a draw, while the tug-of-war was called off because of the parting of the rope.

One of the special features of the mix was the automobile race between the Benz, Botts Avison driver, and Gwynn Watson mechanic; and a Fiat, Gave Dyott driver, and Kenneth Robinson mechanic. The race was won by the Benz.

The program was in charge of the Junior Class. Merlin Batley was in general charge. Emmett Rathbun was chairman of the Sophomore committee and Kent Wilson chairman of the Freshman committee.
