FICKLE SENIORS WILL RETURN TO SOMBRERO

COMMITTEE FAILS TO FIND FITTING SUBSTITUTE FOR TIME HONORED HEADGEAR

LOTTERY DANCE TO BE GIVEN

Ben Dorris Says Students Will be Canvassed for Remaining 1915 Oreganas

The Senior class of 1914 will continue the custom of wearing the sombrero as the official hat. This decision was reached by the "would-be graduates" after deliberation at the class meeting held in Dr. Schafer's room Tuesday night. The committee appointed by Prexy Dorris to investigate the matter of obtaining a substitute for the traditional sombrero reported their inability to unearth a hat which would be fitting and proper for all occasions and still meet the aesthetic requirements of the Senior men. Several styles were presented, but the sombrero was finally retained as the most suitable.

President Ben Dorris made his report as manager of the 1915 Oregana. There is at present some $400.00 in outstanding bills, and 300 books yet to be sold. Committees from the class will canvass the Student Body and sell the remaining Oreganas at reduced rates. The two committees appointed were: Anthony Jaureguy, chairman; Millar McGilchrist and Earl Blackaby; Lois Parks, chairman; Velma Sexton and Rose Sieler.

It was also decided to hold a lottery dance, and a committee of Bert Jerard, Hazel Ralston and Henry Heidenreich, was appointed to make arrangements for the affair.

FACULTY WRITE BOOKS

Some Are Used As Texts. Two Copies of Each Placed in the Library

During the past few years there have been about 180 books and magazine articles, covering almost every line of work in the University and many lines of world activity, such as theories of government, the making of good roads, etc., written by 30 members of the faculty, past and present. Some of the books, among which are Professor Sweetser's "Key and Flora," and a trigonometry text by Professor Frink, a former Professor of Mathematics at the University of Oregon, are used as text-books at Oregon and at other schools.

Mr. Douglas, the University of Oregon Librarian, states that most of the books and articles are in the University of Oregon Library. He says that the Literary Department desires two copies of each book published by students and faculty members, one copy for the general circulation and one for the collection of books about Oregon life and activities of and books written by Oregon people.

WORK PROGRESSES ON NEW ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Both Mr. Boyajohn and Mr. Arnold, the contractors of the new Administration Building, were down from Portland Wednesday, and stated that they were well satisfied with the progress made.

All the concrete fills for the foundation will be in soon, and then work will be commenced immediately on the first floor of the building. All the plumbing in the foundation has been completed. About 35 men are now working on the fills.

"DEUTSCHLAND UBER ALLES" MISLEADS MANY, HE SAYS

Dr. Schmidt Declares Americans Do Germany Grave Injustice by Mis-translating Song

"Deutschland, Deutschland, uber alles." The average American, according to Dr. Schmidt, does a great injustice to the German people when he interprets this national German song as expressing Teutonic supremacy over all the world. "It only expresses," says Dr. Schmidt, "that patriotic fervor is the biggest thing in the heart of the German."

STUDENTS WILL CRAWL TO AID VARSITY BAND

NOVEMBER 14 DATE PICKED, BUT SHIFT MAY BE MADE FOR SEATTLE TRIP

Jerard, Vosper and Hyde are Promoters; Hungry Seven Will Furnish Own Music

"The date has been set and the committee appointed for the biggest and best dance of the year," said Bert Jerard today in speaking of the Band dance. Jerard himself, together with Ernest Vosper and Maurice Hyde, who constitute the general committee, have decided on Saturday evening, November 14, as the time for this event. It is to be informal and is to be held in the Men's Gymnasium.

The committee on features, with Merlin Batley as chairman, and with Wallace Eakin, Bert Peacock, Glen Shaver, Katherine Stanfield, Ruth Dorris and Hazel Ralston as co-members, have plans, they say, which will astound even those who are expecting original features. At present, however, they refuse to divulge them.

The music is to be furnished entirely by the band, and the entire band. The committee on this important phase of a real dance is made up of Maurice Hyde, Vern Apperson, Henry Heidenreich, Elton Loucks, Arvilla Beckwith, Joe Moorhead and Virginia Peterson. Maurice Hyde, who has long ago shown Oregon that his middle name is music, is acting chairman of this committee.

Clark Burgard, Bert Lombard, Walter Church, Larry Mann, Madge Barry, Laura Jerard and Helen Johns will see that there will be present plenty and desirable patronesses.

Real decoration is assured by the large committee for that purpose. This includes Earl Blackaby, chairman; Charlie Fenton, Helen Wiegand, Kenneth Robinson, George Colton, Mildred Riddle, Merle McCloskey, Irwin Potter, Frank Scaife, Frances Heath, Tom Donaca, Herb Normandin, Claire Raley, Franklin Staiger, Frank Johnson, George Winship, Frank Wray and Harold Tragilerist.

Jim Donald, Lois Parks, Velma Sexton, Echo June Zahl, Gavin Dyott, Harold Fitzgibbon and Howard Hall will have charge of the punch booth.

Programs are to be provided for by Jessup Strang, Sam Michael, Riita Fraley, Marjorie McGuire, Joe Sheehan, Fred Hardesty and Kate Schaffer and Marsh Goodwin.

Many will recognize the date, November 14, as being the day of the Oregon-Washington game in Seattle. With this fact in mind, those who are in charge of the dance are prepared to postpone its date in case such action should be made necessary by a large exodus of students to Seattle. Otherwise the big affair may be expected on the fourteenth.

It is planned to make the band dance an annual affair.

GETTING A CO-EDUCATION

PROF. E.W. HULM SPEAKS MATINEE DANCE FRIDAY

Professor of History at Idaho Addresses Assembly on Art

Edward M. Hulm, Professor of History at the University of Idaho, delivered the assembly address yesterday morning in Villard Hall, on the subject, "Relations of Art to Life."

"Art comes out of life. Life is the subject matter of art," said Professor Hulm in his opening remarks. "And life is seen through visions of different angles and so interpreted. This interpretation or vision comes through three forces."

The actions of these forces were then discussed by Professor Hulm. The first taken up was the Force of the Age in which the artist lives. How this force affects the artist was shown by the division of the centuries into the periods of the prevailing tendency, as for example the Greek Age and ages of painting, drama and essay.

The next in order was the Force of the Nation. That nations are not different in blood because of cosmopolitanism, but separated from each other through the inheritance of memories, a cherished past and an inspiration of the future, was the point made by the speaker; and according to him this difference in nations causes a force on the artist that results in a definite differentiation in the realms of art. Or specifically, French music is differentiated from German music through the force of the nation.

"But thirdly and by far the most important," concluded Prof. Hulm, "is the force of the individual. Individually is the most precious thing in the world. Three men, as for example El-

Sophomores Will Manage Affair for Benefit of the University Band

The matinee dance which is to be given Friday by the Sophomore class is for the benefit of the University Band.

The affair is in charge of the following committee: Roland Geary, chairman; Echo Zahl, Lela Cushman, Margaret Spangler, Louise Allen, Wallace Martin, Russell Ralston and Walter Ampoker.

There will be no decorations, and the music will be furnished by members of the band. An admission of 25 cents will be charged, and the entire proceeds will go that organization. The patronesses will be Miss Ruth Guppy and Miss Mary Perkins.

SUBMERSION IN LAKE CAUSES STUDENT WAR

Mistaking a town boy for a University student, 300 members of the University of Wisconsin threw the boy into Lake Mendota in a factional fracas. Hearing of the event, about 300 townspeople assembled and started a pitched battle with the offenders.

Four of the ringleaders among the students were arrested, but were later bailed out on security offered by President C. R. VanHise, of the University.

ELEVEN "O" MEN TO PLAY

Eleven "O" Men to Play. Team Will Leave at 1:30 This Afternoon, After Light Practice at 11.

By Harry Kuck.
Coach Bezdek, Trainer Hayward and seventeen aspirants for Northwest football honors departed this afternoon for Moscow Idaho. Besides the regular eleven, Coach Bezdek is taking three substitutes for the lineup: Lyle Bigbee, Powrie and Cossman; and three ackfield alternates: Huntington, Monteith and Cornwall. This is an able list of substitutes, and in case of injuries, the strength of the team will not be noticeably weakened. Cossman's position is at center, Bigbee is an end, and Powrie is general utility man. Huntington will ably fill Cornell's shoes in case of injury to the doughty little quarterback, while Monteith and Cornwall are halfbacks of no mean ability.

DOPE EVEN ON IDAHO-- OREGON ENGAGEMENT

WEIGHTS OF TWO TEAMS EQUAL --GEM STATES HAVE FAST BACKFIELD

Only Four Old Men Missing From Griffiths' Squad, and Letter Men are in Evidence

By E. R. Kay.
Coach Griffiths, of Idaho, will meet Oregon in Saturday's game with an old and experienced crew. There are eleven letter men on the squad, only four old men being missing: Knudson, half; Johnson, end; Lockart, half; and Favre, guard. To make up for the loss of these vets, Coach Griffiths has Johnston, who was not eligible to play last year, and also subs of last year along with the new recruits from the Freshman class.

The odds are against Oregon as they stand, as counted in scores of this year's games, but the conditions under which these were played discount all score dope. In the Idaho-Montana game, Coach Griffiths made a general shift of the lineup, because of the fact that the field was in such condition that machine work counted for little. All stress was laid on making the line fast and defensive playing was emphasized. The value of this form was shown in that Purdy, of Idaho, seldom punted over ten yards on account of the heavy mud.

In the backfield, Griffiths will play Burns and Ross as halves. Burns is fast, is playing his fourth year, and weighs about 160 pounds. Ross was a sub last year, but is reported fast. Ross weighs about 170. Brown is an old timer, this being his third year at fullback. It is certain that Griffiths will shift his backfield as he did in the Montana game and use Hamilton and Williams, who are heavy and fast, in some part of the game. This is Purdy's second year at quarter. Jardine is working as second quarter to Purdy. Both weigh about 155.

Idaho boasts that her backfield is exceptionally fast this year. Several sporting editors have given Coach Griffiths credit for having the fastest set in conference. The average weight of the backfield, "subs and all, is about 175.

On the line Griffiths has Hays at center, with Jackson, a Freshman, to divide time with him. Both weigh close to the 190 mark. Groniger and Captain Phillips are tackles straight through. Groniger weighs 200 and is

When asked how the team was going, "Bez" said, "Just fair; nothing startling lately. They seem to be going at an even pace and I look for a low score game Saturday. Idaho is a hard bunch to lick this year, and I will be satisfied with a 3 to 0 victory."

"I am told that the field at Moscow will be very heavy, and this will prove quite a handicap to our own boys."

The coach would have liked to leave this morning at 7:30, but delayed until 1:30 to allow the members of the squad to go to their 8, 9 and 10 o'clock classes.

Light signal practice was indulged in from 11:00 to 12:00, thus keeping the boys away from only one class.

When the whistle announces the beginning of the game Saturday, 11 "O" men will charge down the field. "Dobbie" Garrett won his emblem in the W. S. C. game; Risley, Philbin and Snyder a week previous against Whitman. Thus with the seven veterans, there is a full team of letter men to battle for the Lemon Yellow.

RALLY BEFORE OREGON-O. A. C. GAME WILL BE NOVEL

The rally before the Oregon-O. A. C. game will be something different. And something in which everyone may take a part.

Early in the evening the bonfire will be fired on Kincaid Field. The entertainment will then shift to Villard Hall, where a little "stunt" or act will be given by representatives from the different fraternity houses. These stunts are not confined to the fraternities alone, but will be accepted from any source. Some of the houses have already begun practice, for a prize is to be given for the best stunt.

"This form of entertainment will be a change from the regular style of rally, and will be a great success if everyone does his part," says Vosper. "We can't afford to waste our voices that night, because we will need all the noise we can get at the game."

The students' welfare committee at the University of California has taken steps toward the using of sanitary drinking cups at the college dances. Oregon is cited as an example.
