THEY NEED THE MONEY, TOO

Although we are hostile to book agents in general, we should like to bespeak a friendly reception for a young man named Holt, who is taking subscriptions for a compendium of useful information, known as the Oregonana.

In spite of the war in Europe, the imminence of a prohibition wave, the recent upset of the "dope" by the Boston Braves, and other events which have tended to increase the H. C. of L., no raise over last year's price has been made by the magnanimous management of this year's book.

We urge the students to alienate themselves from the first payment of one dollar, or, still better, from the entire fare of $2.50, as soon as Mr. Holt or his henchmen call around. Our reasons are these: we all want the Oregonana, and will use one sooner or later anyway, so why not have the cruel parting over with? Also, it is imperative that the management collect a working capital before they begin to contract for the printing, engraving and other details of publication.

TALKS TO REPORTERS

Abbreviations

Say "Professor Brown" and "Prof. J. T. Brown," but omit the initials after the first mention of the name in the story.
 Initials or first name must be given unless the person mentioned is very well known to all readers.
 Do not use "Miss" or "Mr." in referring to students the first time they are mentioned in the story.
 Use "Varsity" as an adjective, but not as a noun, except when referring to University athletic teams. Say "Soph" and "Frosh" only in feature stories. At other times always say Freshmen and Sophomores. Never abbreviate Christian names. Say "Edward Jones," not "Ed. Jones." Spell out numbers when they form the names of streets: "Twelfth Street." Avoid the abbreviation "U. of O." Say "Dormitory," not "Dorm."

PROFESSOR REDDIE'S CLASS TO GIVE THREE PERFORMANCES

The class in Dramatic Interpretation, under Professor Reddie, will give three evening performances this season. The first of these is the dramatized version of Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn," which is a broad farce comedy. The second is John Galsworthy's comedy, "Joy." The third is a series of four one-act plays. These are "Nance Oldfield," by Charles Reade, "The Goal," by Henry Arthur Jones, "The Forced Marriage," a French playlet by Moliere, and "The Twisting of the Rope," a clever little play of the modern Irish School.

MANAGER OF WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB PLANS SEVERAL TRIPS

Reta Fraley, manager of the Girls' Glee Club, announces the date of the home concert to be January 8. Plans are being made for several trips to be taken by the Glee Club, but as yet are not ready for publication.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. Prescott wants all men who are interested in debating to report to him Friday, at 4:00 o'clock, in Villard Hall. This includes the old members of the debating team.

SPORTING SQUIBS

By Rex Kay.

Sam Cook is from Idaho. What kind of a welcome will Sam get from "the hum folks?"

Tom Cornwall, who replaces "Tick" Malarkey at half, hit a W. S. C. man so hard the first play after he went into the game, that the "Aggie" asked him, "Who are you?" Bezdek must have heard it.

Johnston, of Idaho, made the University of Kansas team for two years and was a scout for Griffiths last year during his ineligibility.

Leader, Dobie's fast end, is out of the game for the rest of the year with a broken wrist.

O. A. C. is looked upon as the strongest contender for Dobie's scalp by many Portland people and by Roscoe Fawcett.

Oregon is considered a late season team—yes, just a trifle late for the last few years.

Cornell: "If the boys fight the way they did against W. S. C. last Saturday, we will have a walk-away."

Purdy, Idaho quarterback, entered Oregon two years ago, but completed his course here in about two weeks.

JUDGE WILLIAM GALLOWAY

Justice of the Circuit Court of the Third District

CANDIDATE FOR JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OREGON

TYPICAL STATEMENTS OF THOSE WHO KNOW HIM

Many strong letters and editorials commendatory of Judge Galloway can be submitted, but space here permits the reproduction of only a few.

The late Ex-Governor William P. Lord, himself for many years an able member of the Oregon Supreme Court, wrote to Judge Galloway at the time of his candidacy for the Circuit Judgeship:

"I have no hesitancy in saying that years of acquaintance with you has given me some knowledge of your strong common sense, sound judgment and fidelity to public duty, and that your high regard for official duty and justice is an assurance that if you are elected to the Circuit Judgeship, you will regard it as a post of honor and cautiously and safely guard the rights and interests of litigants, and conserve to the best of your ability the public interest."

Judge A. S. Bennett, the well known lawyer of The Dalles, has recently written:

"I have known Judge Galloway intimately for more than forty years and have never found a better man. In both private and public life he is above suspicion or reproach. In his home, as a husband and father he is ideal. Truthfully has it been said of Judge Galloway, 'He has in more than one instance in the past shown that he has the courage of his convictions in difficult positions,' and that he has 'made a record for honesty and courage.' He always does his duty as he sees it, regardless of the consequences, and is absolutely invulnerable to 'pressure' or 'influence.' He has a fine legal education and is very familiar with the legal principles and the administration of justice generally. His courtesy and kindly disposition are well known. He would make an ideal Supreme Judge."

Judge Henry E. McGinn, of Portland, one of the ablest Circuit Judges of Oregon, in a letter September 31, 1914, writes:

"I have known Hon. William Galloway for a great many years. In fact, I cannot say when I did not know him. He has always been a man of highest integrity and courtesy. He is a candidate for the high office of Supreme Judge of the State of Oregon. If elected to this office, the state will be served in the best possible way. Judge Galloway has all the qualifications for a good judge. Anyone who may take him for what I have here said will never regret it." (Paid adv., by Wm. Galloway.)
