CHURCHES WOULD AID SUFFERERS FROM WAR

Friends and Play Santa Claus to European Victims

A movement was inaugurated in cial Club last evening, 30 representa- ing will be let. tives of the different churches and Mr. Holt, Roy Stevens and William don treasurer. zation in Eugene will send a delegate. This applies particularly to the campus organizations. At the last meeting the Women's League was represented by Lyle Steiwer.

The actual work is carried on by an executive committee, consisting of one delegate from each body represented. A committee has been selected to have issued a quantity of Christmas cards, on which is printed a Christmas greeting, and which states that the giver is sending all his funds into the Red Cross work, and suggesting that the recipient do the same. These cards will be put out in the same manner as the Red Cross stamps, and the proceeds put into the war sufferers' collection.

The Christmas trade is to be kent in the hands of the Eugene merchants. but the materials purchased will be sent abroad. The merchants are not asked to donate the goods, nor will heir Christmas receipts be dimin-

Karl H. Martzloff, '13, is a student at the Johns Hopkins Medical School. His address for the winter is 1336 N. Caroline St., Baltimore, Md. Gertrude Holmes, '11, is an instruc-or of mathematics and textiles in the Girls' Trade School at Portland. Raphael Geisler, '12, has entered Columbia University Law School. Harold Clifford, '09, is traveling for ne State Industrial Commission.

Ralph Cronise, '11, is special repsentative for the New York Life Inrance Company, with offices in Sa-

Carl D. Gabrielson, ex-'11, is now istrict manager for the Equitable life Insurance Company for the westhalf of Oregon.

Percy M. Collier, '12, former preslent of the Student Body, passed the regon bar examination at Salem

Ethan Collier, '09, is engaged in the ntracting business at Corvallis. He associated with Donald M. Steven-'07, whose headquarters are in

Homer Jamison, '12, is football oach at Jefferson High School in ortland, where he is an instructor

Ralph Cake, '10, is in the insurance ness in Portland.

Winifred Kerr, '11, is an instructor domestic science in the Lincoln gh School of Portland.

Homer Lackey, '10, has entered arvard University to take post grade work in business administration. 'It does me good to hear of the ge enrollment this year. I am also rested in what the Alumni are do--John F. Leggett, '14.

R. Charman, '13, is in the serof the Engineering Department the State of California. He is ing build the state highway at the Harvard Alumni Association des most of its support from the eeds of the Alumni Bulletin, its

Miss Lucile Watson, of the class of 6, is teaching at LaCrosse, Wash-on. She will re-enter college at Carl M. Grayson, '13, is interested the Palace Cleaning and Tailoring at Buhy, Idaho. liss Annie Bergman, '12, is spendthe fall semester in graduate stu-

at the University of Washington.

OREGANA CONTRACTS

Students Asked to Forego Gifts to Subscription List for 1915 Annual Reaches 355, But Will Probably Reach 600 Mark

The contracts will not be let upon Eugene last night toward converting the 1915 Oregana until about Christall funds and efforts usually put into mas, acording to William P. Holt, the preparation of Christmas gifts business manager of the annual. The into garments and supplies for the size and material of which the book now given credit for their newspaper European war sufferers, and the pro- will be composed have not been defimoters of the plan desire the co-ope- nitely decided upon, but when all arration of all the University students. rangements are complete the con-At a meeting held at the Commer- tracts for both engraving and print-organizations were present, and the Burgard are now planning on a trip movement was formally organized, to Portland during the Thanksgiving with Rev. H. W. Davis as president, vacation to solicit advertising. All Signs you can read on the run Miss Barker secretary, and Mr. Gor- outside ads will be canvassed first in order to make the "drain" on the Not all of the town organizations Eugene business men as light as poswere represented, but it is hoped that sible. The entire campaign for the at the next meeting, November 11, purpose of securing advertising is Eugene Floral Co. at 8:00 oclock, at the Commercial' under the direction of Mr. Holt, with Club, every church and organi- Stevens and Burgard as his assist-

Womens' Exchange

Home Cooking, Warm Bread, Buns and Cakes At meal time. Phone 105 -174 E. 9th St

Official Photographer U. of O.

606 Thirteenth Ave. East

YORAN'S Shoe Store

The present subscription list for the annual has only reached 335, but all indications show that the list will probably go as high as 500 or 600. Eight men are canvassing the students at present, and any who have not been interviewed may subscribe

at the Y. M. C. A. office on the cam-

Pansy Beebe, '12, is now Mrs. W.

H. Davidson, of Shedd. Mr. and Mrs.

Davidson have a daughter, Margue-

University of Indiana students are work. The college has established

39 7th Ave East.

If it's flowers you want,

we have them

Greenhouse Phone 321

School of Journalism.

Store Phone 726

rite, who is now seven months old.

the store that sells

646 Willamette Street

The Eugene Theater

To Have the Orpheum Players Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 10-11

Owing to the Portland house being temporarily closed, the management was able to get the big Orpheum road shows of eight acts with "The Red Heads," the musical comedy act, with James B. Carson (late of Marie Cahill Co.) as the Hebrew Cloak Manufacturer, who is on the stage continuously for 45 minutes in rapid fire order. With him are eight red-headed chorus girls, whose stunning clothes are a real feature of the act. The added attractions are:

ASHAI, the Japanese Magician, with his splendid Costumes and Sittings

TROVATO, the eccentric Comedy Magician

CORBETT, SHEPARD and DONAVON, with college Songs and Comedy

CARTMELL and HARRIS, Songs and Dancing JANE WEST and BILLIE CULLEN, in Songs and Piano Features

The management, in bringing this show to Eugene, considers the patrons very lucky, and if successful in this will be in a position to have this ever-popular show in the future. Prices: Boxes 75 cts.; Lower Floor 35 and 50; Balcony 25 and 35.

Acme - TAX - Service

GOOD SHOES Prices 25 and and 35 cents. Stand at 8th and Willamette. Phone 1190

Party rates

Popular! Well Rather

And lasting popularity is a matter of worth. You can't get by very long on any other founda tion. That's one of the fundamental "Whys" of the long continued favor given to Stein-Rioch Smart Clothes....

And their well merited friends are constantly increasing in number.

Men who know-the well but careful dressers-need but one garment acquaintance to become lifelong adherents to the Stein-Bloch standard.

Things Men and Boys Wear

COLD WEATHER CALLS FOR

MACKINAWS

AND SWEATERS

We have them

Bring your

Student Body Panorama

to us and have it framed the modern way

The Eugene Art Store

Paine Bldg.

Geo. H. Turner

10th & Willamette

Announcement

MRS. L. C. REDDING

Expert Corsetiere and assistant designer of

Modart Corsets

Front Laced will be in our Corset Section from

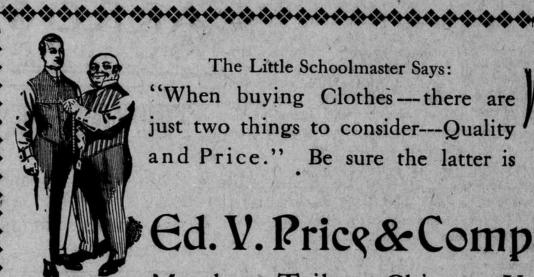

November 9th to 11th Inclusive

It means a great deal to you to confer with a Corsetiere of her experience and capabilities

LARGE'S

and Suit House Cloak

Eugene, Oregon

The Little Schoolmaster Says:

"When buying Clothes -- there are just two things to consider---Quality and Price." Be sure the latter is

Ed. V. Price & Company

Merchant Tailors, Chicago, U. S. A.

Don't let Thanksgiving Day find you wearing dull, listless clothes. Instead, let us order you a spic and span suit and overcoat made to personal measure from your selection of style and woolen.

Come in this afternoon after classes—you can afford the price

The Haberdasher

MEN'S OUTFITTERS

713 Willamette St.