

STUDENTS SANCTION
THREE RESOLUTIONS

attention of the students and was passed. It was introduced by Elton Loucks, and was:

"Whereas, during the past few weeks, student action has been taken recommending that certain cities of the state be designated as the places where approaching football games shall be played, which action was without the previous knowledge and approval of those directing Student Body finances;

"And whereas, the action taken has been a source of embarrassment to those concerned in directing Student Body finances, and if repeated might involve serious pecuniary loss to the Student Body;

"Therefore, be it resolved, that it is the earnest desire of the Student Body of the University of Oregon that henceforth any action affecting Student Body finances shall be taken only after the matter at hand has been presented to the Student Council, the Athletic Council, or to the Graduate Manager of the Associated Students, for their consideration;

"And it is further resolved, that these resolutions be read at the next meeting of the Student Body."

The amendment to the constitution, which was to be introduced to the Student Body by Bert Jerard, was ruled out of order by President Tom Boylen, on the grounds that this meeting was a special meeting.

The band furnished the music of the morning, encores each time being demanded.

Whereas, The Emerald and the Organa are the two official Student Body publications, and

Whereas, It is of vital importance to the Student Body that they be maintained on a sound financial basis, and

Whereas, Minor publications, such as programs, handbooks, and editions of the Emerald not controlled by the regular management, operate to the detriment of the Emerald and Organa, and are an unnecessary burden to the Associated Students and the advertising public; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the Associated Students of the University of Oregon, do hereby repudiate all solicitations for student enterprises excepting the Emerald and Organa, and we submit to the public these two publications as legitimate mediums for reaching the student trade, worthy of the support as such; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Associated Students and published in the Emerald, and that they be embodied in a circular letter to be sent to the better ends than Weist and Cornwall. Still, neither of the Washington extremists showed anything in the O. A. C. game.

In the backfield, Oregon is light, but fully as fast as Dobie's quartet. Huntington is expected to show up to better advantage than Smith at quarter.

Parsons is the best halfback in the conference, and Bryant is fully as good a man as Captain Shiel. Our other halfbacks have never been tried in a real game, and their worth is not to be estimated yet.

Moreover, the team is drilled to beat Washington, and it is prepared for all emergencies. If Cook and Beckett are strong as ever, there may be much rejoicing in Eugene about 5:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The team received its few last instructions in a light signal practice this afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 o'clock.

There were 4,222 foreign students in attendance at colleges and universities in the United States in the year 1918, according to figures just compiled by the United States bureau of education. This is an increase of 577 in two years.

Yale's Freshman class numbers 741, or six more than last year. Amherst has four more students that last year, the total registration being 410.

Though the campus of Nebraska University has not changed from dry to wet, no student need thirst there now. A large glass container of buttermilk has been placed at the entrance of one of the buildings, where the thirsty "stude" can pause between classes and "wet his whistle" free of cost.
