

TWELVE PASS PRESCOTT

Debate Tryout Results in Selection of Three-Fourths of the Aspirants

Only sixteen of the thirty who intended to enter the forensic contests appeared at the tryout last Monday afternoon.

The plan to have Mr. Prescott, who is to coach the debating teams again this year, as the sole judge of the tryout was endorsed by all contestants. The tryout lasted three hours. Those who successfully passed the preliminaries were: Victor Morris, Fred Hardesty, Peter Crockett, Bert Lombard, Nicholas Jaureguy, Cloyd Dawson, Prentiss Brown, Lamar Tooze, Ernest Watkins, Hobart McFadden, McDowell, William Holt.

NANCE CORNELL ELECTED TO FOOTBALL CAPTAINCY

Idaho, over to a guard berth. Varnell's scheme seems the most logical. Groniger was a mainstay of the Idaho line and a terror to all opponents.

Clarke, of W. S. C., and Risley, of Oregon, seem to be in a class by themselves for the cented job. Risley is handicapped in that he was unable to participate in the O. A. C. game. While Clarke worked consistently well throughout the season, Risley led him for the honor before falling heir to the mumps.

Fawcett, Cronin and Varnell have all agreed upon Hoover, as their quarter but Coach Bezdek's backfield looks the best: Lutz, of O. A. C., quarter; Parsons, of Oregon, and Miller, of Washington, halves; and Abraham, of O. A. C., fullback.

It is hard to make room for Hoover and displace any of these stars. In fact, Bernard, of W. S. C., and Smith, of Washington, have about as good a claim for the pivot berth as Hoover. All agree that Lutz, Parsons and Miller deserve backfield positions, and Shiel, of Washington, and Abraham, of O. A. C., are both deserving of special notice. The line plunging of Abraham has not been excelled this year.

Every football letter man at Oregon is eligible for next season and it is Coach Bezdek's and Captain Cornell's earnest hope that all will return and make 1915 a big year in football for the University.

WESTERN GIRLS ARE SLOW ATHLETICALLY

"Why, I have selected field days," declared Professor Sweetser, "and would think I had worked up worlds of enthusiasm. But when the hour came to start and I went to the appointed meeting place, two girls and a yellow dog would be there, and the yellow dog was the only one who had any energy. Yes, we pay the price for our climate."

The gift of $10,000,000 offered to Harvard University by Major Clarence Wiener, of London, with the provision that the institution dispense with the services of Professor Hugo Munsterberg, has evidently not tempted the college authorities, for they recently refused the resignation of the noted psychologist. Munsterberg has been prominent for his strong pro-German attitude.

TWELVE NEW THESPIANS MAKE DRAMATIC CLUB

Other Candidates to Have a Second Tryout After Thanksgiving Vacation

The Dramatic Club held a tryout Thursday evening in the rooms of the Civil Engineering Building. Dr. Ralph Bennett, who will coach the club this year, Bert Jerard, Maurice Hill, and Josephine Moorhead were judges.

The following contestants were successful in making the club: Robert McMurray, Merlin Bailey, Wallace Martyn, Don Orput, Jack Dolph, Ben Fleishman, Earl Smith, Echo Zahl, Julia Platt, Gladys Colwell, Ruth McClain and Hazel Ralston.

However, all the places on the club have not been filled and a second tryout will be held some time after the Thanksgiving vacation. Those who "got by" the judges for the second tryout are: Juanita Wilkins, Laura Jerard, Beulah Hayes, Roberta Kilham, Erma Keithley, Sara Barker, Grace Reed, Alice Bingham, Ann Wilson Flawnice Killingsworth, Marjorie McGuire, Nicholas Jaureguy, Richard Nelson, Edison Marshall, Elton Loucks and Charles Lowry.

"I am greatly pleased with the tryouts," said Dr. Bennett, "and am surprised at the amount of dramatic talent here among the students on the whole. The women are better than the men, and it was a real task to pick out the best ones. (Sheet copy missing)

"The club this year will put on two or three modern plays. We intend to enlarge the club so that the casts in the plays can be larger. There is no reason why we can't have one of the best dramatic clubs in the country, and I am looking forward to a very successful year."

Mr. Prescott will meet the class in Girls' Debating Wednesday evening, December 2, at 7:00 P. M., in Professor Howe's room, Deady Hall.

Sophomores at DePauw University have adopted shirts of heavy black and white flannel as their official garb.

Melbourne Inman, champion of the British style of billiards, and Willie Hoppe, champion billiard player of the world, will give an exhibition at "The Obak" Thursday afternoon and evening.

JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT HAS BEGINNINGS OF A MUSEUM

A museum of printing has been started by Professor Eric Allen, of the Department of Journalism, in his classroom in the basement of McClure Hall. The museum is not merely for exhibition purposes, but is a store case for material which will actually be used in one or another of Professor Allen's classes.

The collection consists of various materials used in all processes of printing, from the metals of which the type and stereotype alloys are composed to the printing cuts themselves.

The exhibits thus far have been largely picked up by Professor Allen at one of the local newspaper offices. Some of the prints, however, were given to him by O. R. Ball, of the American Type Foundry.

"I am expanding my course in The Technique of Newspaper Manufacture," said Professor Allen, "and I decided I must have my own collection of exhibits to illustrate what I was talking about. I intend to enlarge the collection from time to time."

DR. STRAUB WILL ADDRESS SOUTHERN OREGON SCHOOLS

Dean Straub left Thursday evening for Southern Oregon, where he will speak before several high schools. Friday morning he gave his first address at the high school in Gold spoke before several high schools. school. The line of talk at both high schools was an appeal for higher education, showing its value in dollars and cents.

At Central Point, Friday evening, Dr. Straub gave a lecture on "Ancient Athens."

This trip to Southern Oregon made it impossible for Dean Straub to attend the Freshman bonfire. "It was be the first bonfire given by the Freshmen that I have ever missed," said Dean Straub, "and it was with regret that I did not participate."
