

TRIPPLE TO HAVE PLAY

Freshman Girls Stage Comedy After Christmas

At the Triple meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Delta Delta Delta house, the Freshman girls planned to give a play after the Christmas vacation.

A stunt is given at each meeting for the purpose of practicing for the play. The play will be of a comic nature, and the idea is to arouse spirit in the society.

As a result of co-operation between the student government authorities at the University of Wisconsin and the city officials of Madison, a new police regulation will require every young man who enters a saloon with the intention of purchasing liquor to sign a statement in the presence of witnesses to the effect that he is 21 years of age. This measure has been adopted in an effort to keep freshmen and all minors away from saloons.

"BOB" BEAN ELECTED FOOTBALL STUDENT MANAGER

Robert Bean has been appointed student manager of football for next year, by A. R. Tiffany, Graduate Manager.

"Bob" has acted in this capacity as assistant football manager here last year. While at the Portland Academy, in Portland, he was baseball manager for one year, and was also track manager for Salem High School when he attended school there. Bean is a graduate of Portland Academy.

The work of student manager is to look after supplies and keeping the field in condition and other things connected with football on the campus.

SPOTLIGHT SPURTS

By Mandell Weiss.

The University Quartet will sing at the Commonwealth session tomorrow evening in Villard.

William Vawter sang "Little Gray Home," by Loehr, this afternoon at the Commonwealth meeting in Villard.

The Dramatic Club will hold a second tryout for membership in the near future. The last one showed a keen amount of interest displayed by the contestants.

After an illness of three weeks, Professor A. F. Reddie returns to meet his classes in Dramatics and Public Speaking. The four playlets which were scheduled for appearance in November to be postponed on account of his illness. They will be given some time during the third week of January.

Those who witnessed the concert of the Glee Club last year will remember the excellence of the program given by that organization. This year finds the club in better shape than the previous one. More good material is to be found among the members, so that success is a foregone conclusion. The club numbers 24 members besides a piano accompanist.

Manager Michael, of the Glee Club, will leave on December 18 in the interest of heralding the concerts of the Eastern Oregon tour. He will keep one week in advance of the club, so as to give ample time for publicity work. This is the first year that such a systematic advance billing has been followed. It was found that last year's partial success of the club's itinerary was due to lack of proper advertising. With this defect remedied, the club ought to come off with flying colors.

A local concert and a short Southern Oregon tour is the busy schedule which the Women's Glee Club have undertaken. On January 8, they will appear in concert at the Eugene Theatre, and the following week they will leave for a tour which will take in the towns of Creswell, Cottage Grove, Drain and Roseburg. In all these places the expenses have been guaranteed by friends of the University residing in the locality, thus making the venture a safe one financially.

The club will leave on Wednesday, January 3, and return on January 16.

SENIOR ELECTRICS WILL WRITE THESE UP MCKENZIE

Eight senior members of the Electrical Engineering Class who expect to be graduated next June will prepare their theses about 45 miles up the McKenzie River on the problem of a practical site for an electrical power plant. The trip will be made during Easter vacation if the plans of Professor Reed materialize.

The Oregon Electric at the present time has a corps of engineers about 60 miles up the McKenzie with the same object in view.

Professor McAllister conducted an investigation in the same country on the flow and fall of the river. Later he embodied the results of his research in a book which is now in the University library.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR GERMAN CLUB MEMBERS

A Christmas party will be given by the German Club at the meeting next Tuesday evening at the Chi Omega house. A Christmas tree will be in evidence and each member of the club is requested to bring a joke present costing not more than ten cents. The presents are to be accompanied by appropriate German verses. Each member will respond to the roll call with a German proverb.

The program follows: Piano solo, Fraulein Constance Taylor; German recitation, Herr Papas; vocal solo, Fraulein Irene Pugh; monologue, Herr Martin Nelson. Refreshments will be served.

JUNIOR CLASS HOUR DATE NOT YET DECIDED UPON

The date for the annual Junior class hour has not been decided upon as yet. It has been the custom during the past few years for each class to entertain the University at an assembly hour. Prentiss Brown, President of the Junior class, made the statement that a vote will be taken at the next meeting of the class to ascertain whether or not the sentiment was in favor of such an hour this year.

"I feel that the Juniors want a class hour," said Brown, "and it is now only a question of taking a vote in meeting. Then the faculty will consider the granting of a date."

EXHIBITION AND SALE OF PAINTINGS AT BUNGALOW

An exhibition and sale of paintings and of china will be given Friday and Saturday at the Young Women's Christian Association Bungalow, by Mrs. W. B. Fields, of Eugene.

The collection will include about 15 water color and oil paintings and charcoal drawings of the University campus, the mill race, and scenes around Eugene.

The display of china will include several hand-painted tea sets, salt and pepper shakers, plates, vases, cups and saucers, and bar pins.

The paintings, as well as the china, have been done by Mrs. Fields, who for three years was instructor in art at the University of North Dakota.

A 15 per cent discount will be given on the first hundred orders taken, and 20 per cent on the next hundred. Orders will be taken for any of the pieces of china with the desired design.
