Professor Sweetser Will Read Paper on "Municipal Water Supplies" at Wednesday Session

"Municipal Water Supplies," with especial reference to the water supply of Eugene, will be the subject of a paper to be read by A. R. Sweetser, Professor of Botany and Bacteriology, before the newly formed Science Club of the University of Oregon, Wednesday evening. The meeting will be open to citizens of Eugene and will be in Room 25, Deady Hall, at 8:00 o'clock. Physicians and science teachers are invited.

The ideal municipal supply and how to get it will be enlarged upon by Professor Sweetser, who, in addition to three years' experience with the water problem in Eugene, has also examined many sources of supply in the East and West.

Prior to the reading, a meeting of the club will be held, at which a constitution will be discussed. Future meetings may also be opened to townspeople.

The officers of the Science Club, which was formed during January and which will meet once a month, are: President, W. P. Boynton, Professor of Physics; Secretary-Treasurer, O. F. Stafford, Professor of Chemistry; Executive Committee, the above two officers, with Dr. R. M. Winger, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, Warren D. Smith, Professor of Geology, and C. H. Edmonson, Assistant Professor of Zoology.

In a paper read at the meeting of the Association of American Universities at Princeton, President Lowell, of Harvard, suggested a college course of two years, and a graduate course of two years in place of four years' general course, for the future business men of the country.

The women of Leland Stanford University have established a precedent for co-educational institutions in organizing for purposes of participation in baseball fencing and crew.

"THE YELLOW TICKET"

Bell Mitchell, in the gripping play, "The Yellow Ticket," a new play by Michael Morton, produced by A. H. Woods, will come to the Eugene Theatre February 11.

"The Yellow Ticket" is timely, in that it deals with the condition and status of the Jew in modern Russia. The chief characters are taken from official life, and it is said many of the incidents are founded on fact. Michael Morton, the author, lived in St. Petersburg for some time in order to study conditions there and obtain material for his new play. Mr. Morton, who is a well known English playwright, is best known in this country for his dramatization of "Resurrection," in which Blanche Walsh starred. "The Yellow Ticket" will be given here with a splendid cast, including:

Belle Mitchell, Warner Oland, Edward Foley, John Ravold, Louis Hartman, Arthur Maitland, Dorothy Ellis, Reginald Carrington, Clyde Veaux, Leo Kennedy, and others.

MILLS COLLEGE ALUMNAE EXTEND INVITATION TO WOMEN

"The alumnae of Mills College, of Oakland, California, extend a cordial invitation to college women and their friends to visit our headquarters, 'the White and Gold Room,' in the Inside Inn, within the grounds of the Panama Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, California, February 20 to December 4, 1915." This bulletin appears on the board in Villard Hall.

Miss Luella Clay Carson, President of Mills College for three and one-half years, was for several years connected with the English Department of the University of Oregon. Miss Carson now resides in Portland, Oregon, where she located after resigning her position in Mills College.

Coach Childs is looking forward to a change in track athletics at Indiana this year. The first call was given recently and one hundred men responded. A few improvements are being made to build up this sport. A new track is being laid in the men's gymnasium and a few out-door tracks will be started soon. Eighty-four cups and medals will be awarded to winners of track events for the coming year.

A general women's field meet has been set for April 24th. It is the first time for women of Stanford University to participate in our national sport. Much enthusiasm is displayed by the women students in regard to these sports and keen competition is evident among the competitors.
